Fairly Odd Mother

Chapter 1 – Birthday Wishes

Buzz Buzz Buzz. Tommy woke up and smiled. Today was his 18th birthday. He hit snooze on his Star Wars alarm clock and rolled over. It was Saturday and he didn't need to go to work for another 30 minutes. Plenty of time to shower, get dressed, eat, and get down to the local hardware store where he worked.

The day went fast because the store was busy. He barely had time to sneak a peek at Kat, the owner's daughter. Normally, he and Kat would share a few brief conversations but typically nothing more. She had a really pretty face with short brunette hair that had a few bangs that dropped down in front of her face. Her body was quite average in terms of size. She had a nice ass and great legs tanned to perfection. Her hazel eyes accented her cute little nose. Her chest was small though which is why she normally did not wear any low cut shirts. She was normally quite pleasant to work with. She didn't mind Tommy but didn't think much of him. Her self-confidence typically got in the way of her getting to know people anyway. Tommy was an average guy but definitely had some geek to him. His geekiness is what made him somewhat socially awkward around girls and Kat was no exception. He assumed Kat didn't pay him attention because of this. He had a pretty decent life but only had a few short lived girlfriends.

Tommy arrived home that day tired but content, he knew his birthday party was going to be awesome. Sure enough, as he walked through the front door the house it was sparkling clean. Mom was already busy putting all the food out. She smiled and said "Oh, I'm glad you're home. Please cleanup your video games downstairs and get ready. Your guests will be arriving soon." Mom was always very pretty. My friends definitely called her a MILF. I always wondered how Dad got so lucky. She had a model like figure with long flowing blonde hair, bright green eyes, big natural DD perky breasts, and she was smart too. She was the managing director of fashion down town at a big name company.

Guests started arriving. Uncles, aunts, cousins, and a few of my buddies from school came trickling in. Anyone could easily see the problem here, no girls except for my two hot cousins from my mom's side. The party started off pretty well. We horsed around and threw people in the pool. It was almost cake time and my Dad pulled me aside and asked me if I knew what I was going to wish for. It seemed like a juvenile question but I decided to go along with it. Not yet Dad, maybe I'll wish for a million bucks. "Sounds good son, but remember money alone won't bring you happiness. I think now is a good time to tell you the whole story of how I met your mother. It's time for you to hear it"

It was my 18th birthday just like yours. I was a lot like you where I didn't have much luck with girls. I dated, but mostly girls that were 4 or 5s. I just couldn't talk to the prettier girls. My confidence was lacking heavily. So, that night as I blew out my candle I wished that I would meet the woman of my dreams. I went to bed that night feeling as if something good was coming.

The next day I went to the mall before it closed. I had returned some shirts that Grandma thought would be a fashion statement for me. I left the mall just as the guard was locking the door behind me. The parking lot was mostly empty except for my crappy 87 Honda Civic and a shiny blue 3 series BMW. As I walked up to my car I saw a girl sitting next to the BMW sulking. She saw me and stood up immediately. I was taken aback by how pretty she was. Her hair was long, curly, and blonde. It stretched all the way down to the middle of back. She had a figure any girl would kill for. She was wearing a business suit with the top buttons of her blouse about to pop off from what they were holding back. Her face was flush red, and her eyes red from crying.

I asked her if she was okay. She apologized for being a mess. She actually seemed shyer than me because of her current condition. She told me about how she locked her keys and purse in the trunk by accident. She also was running late for a big job interview downtown. She used the payphone earlier for a locksmith to come by but he was more than an hour away. I took a look around the car and couldn't seem to find a way to get it open, maybe a gap in the window. No such luck. I asked if she had a spare key and she said they were at her ex's apartment and that she knew no one else in town since she had just moved here with her ex a few months ago. I could see she was gorgeous as she wiped some tears from her face. I could sense she was being sincere in her voice and the stress she was under. I offered her a ride to the interview. "Thanks anyway, I don't want to trouble you. I already have the locksmith on the way. I'll just have to reschedule my interview." she said sadly.

I wished her luck and got into my car. Now normally I would have driven off but something told me be persistent with her. I pulled my car around to her before I left. I rolled down my window and said "Listen, there's no need to miss this once in a lifetime opportunity. It's possible you may never get another chance at this job." She looked at me surprised. Normally she was used to guys being a dick or wanting something from her. Here she had a guy who honestly just wanted to help her. She smiled and walked over to the passenger side door. "You're so sweet, you really don't mind?" she said. Get in already! She got in and we talked the entire time to her interview. It turned out we had many things in common and just talking eased her nervousness for the interview. Long story short, she ended up getting the job, she called a few days later to thank me and we met for dinner. After that night we fell in love. We dated until I got out of college and we married shortly after. Ever since then I was one of the happiest and luckiest guys alive. I have to think it all started with my 18th birthday wish. So make your wish a good one.

My dad seemed joyed finally sharing this story with me. He really seemed to believe his wish was granted. It made me think for a moment what I would wish for. Money, power, love, a new computer? I guess anything could be possible. My mind wandered but I couldn't think of anything specific. "Cake time!" my mom called.

So, there I was, my favorite ice cream cake with a silver candle in the middle. It looked a little odd like one of those joke candles that relight after they go out. It sparked a little bit here and there. I think I recall this was a candle passed down to all the males in our family. Strange I thought, but nevertheless, tradition. Everyone sang happy birthday. I looked around at everyone and noticed the TV was still on. Fairly Odd Parents was on. I right then and there made my wish. I wished I had a fairy god parent who would grant my wishes. I blew out the candle. It sparked a few times a green and red color and went out in a puff of white smoke.

The rest of the night went as well as could be expected. All my friends and cousins played volleyball and then went into the pool for a dip. My two cousins who were in college decided to sport their two piece bikini's. Since they were from my mom's side of the family they both had racks that could make a person consider incest. They were so damn hot, my friends couldn't help but stare. The girls both had golden brown hair and blue eyes. Their breasts practically were about to burst out of their containment. After they came out of the pool you could clearly see their perfect nipples poking through the fabric. I thought to myself, one day I'll have a girl like that. I went to sleep that night happy but horny. Hopefully tomorrow will be a brand new day.

Chapter 2 – A fairly odd surprise

Sunday came and I woke up early. This was strange I thought since I was up so late. I tried to go back to sleep but I was wide awake. I got up and went downstairs. It appeared no one else was awake yet. I decided to check for the paper and see if any new computer deals were going on. As I opened the door I almost tripped over a fairly big box addressed to me. It had no shipping label just my name and Happy Birthday on it. I studied the box thinking it was some sort of trick or maybe something worse. I didn't hear any ticking or smell anything weird. I pulled the box up and it revealed a fish tank inside. I looked at the small golden fish inside and thought what strange gift. I took the gold fish up to my room and placed it on my dresser. I took a few minutes to stare at the fish and think about my life. I thought about my dad's story then about Kat from work. She liked the more athletic build on guys. Frankly I wished I was more athletic. Poof! I heard a little voice say granted in my ear. Before I knew it my body was trembling and my muscles burning. What the hell is happening?! Then a little girl with wings appeared next to me. She seemed like some sort of fairy. "How rude, I normally don't introduce myself by granting a wish first but I wanted to prove myself to you." said the fairy. By now I could feel that my muscles were many times stronger than they were before. I actually had a defined chest and biceps that could pump some serious iron. "My name is Anastasia, but you can call me Ana if you like. I'm your fairy godmother." Wholy crap, did I just hear what I thought I heard? "Yes, your wish from the enchanted candle on your 18th birthday summoned me from Fairyland. I am indentured to you until you release me or you prove yourself unfit for the wishes I grant. You must in other words, follow Da Rules!" So this is just like the TV show? Ana winked, "Something like that, but maybe not so PG."

Ana and I talked for the whole morning. We got to know each other and understand the rules. I could pretty much do anything I wanted except make people fall in love with me, hurt people, or ruin mankind. I could also not tell anyone else about Ana except if I was to fall in love. Ana would always be around me whether I could see her or not. She was cute with her green hair, white wings, a little fairy body, and quite curvy. I decided to try some small wishes in order to get the hang of this. Ok, I wish I would never go bald, that I didn't need to wear contact lenses anymore, and that I was 6' tall. Ana chirped "Granted." With a few seconds my eyes went blurry and I pulled out my contacts. I could see perfect now. I could also see my pants were now 2 inches too short for me. I wished for all my clothes to fit me. "Granted." This is going to be so cool. It was getting late and I realized it was almost time for work. I had the crappy Sunday afternoon shift at the hardware store, but it was usually slow. It was also a plus because Kat was the only other person there on Sundays.

I arrived at work just in time to catch the last of the customers leaving the store. It was now officially empty and boring. I walked to the desk in the back where a stack of invoices needed to be entered into the computer. Kat was sitting at the counter with her back to me. I said hi and she turned around. She paused for a moment as she took in my new physique. Her jaw dropped a bit as I could see her bit her lip as to what she wanted to say something. Instead she said hey and left it at that. About an hour went by and a few customers came and went. The store was empty once again. I decided to test out my next wish. Ana, I wish Kat was horny. Poof! A few minutes went by and I was just about finished with the invoices. I could hear Kat fidgeting in her chair as she went outside for a few minutes. It seemed like she was contemplating something. Kat suddenly came over to my desk. "I forgot to wish you a happy birthday" she said in her cutest voice. It's not a big deal I replied. It was surprising she even knew it was my birthday. Then she turned my chair around and said "I feel bad because I should have gotten you something." My mind went racing as she straddled my legs and put her hands over my strong shoulders and arms. "oooh, she said, I didn't realize you were so strong. She felt my arms up and across my back. She swung her hair around and leaned in for a kiss on the lips. Then she started tongue kissing me deeply and passionately. Her hands were all over my body. She had a pretty tight little body as I worked my arms around her and landed my hands on her tiny bra. I felt Kat tense up a bit as I felt her small chest. She pulled my hand away and apologized for lacking in that area. "I know you are a boob man, I see you check out all the girls with big chests that come into the store." It's okay, maybe you just haven't finish growing yet I said to her. Yeah right! Maybe you just need to want your tits to be bigger. "Woe, this is getting a little weird. Of course I want big, no huge tits, that will rip my shirt in two. Nipples so big and supple you can't help but to suckle them. So, if your question is do I want big tits? Yes!!!," she said sarcastically.

I turned to see Ana sitting on top of the $2.99 fake roses. I winked at her and whispered "I wish Kat's tits would grow big like she wanted." Poof!

It started slow, Kat sat on my lap and felt a rush of warmth to her chest. That's funny, she said as she rubbed her breasts. "What's going on?" she said. It feels sooo good. I feel sooooo hooooorrrrrnnnyyy like my breasts are on fire. Maybe your wish came true and you are just getting your growth spurt.

She rubbed her hands across her breasts and down to her panties. She leaned into me again and kissed me deeply jamming every bit of her tongue down my throat. As the pressure mounted she kissed me harder. She slipped her hand down her pants and into her sopping wet pussy while she was still sitting on me. Her eyes rolled back into her head as she started to finger her swollen clit. I had a raging boner that she was directly over. Kat continued to work herself as I could see her shirt start getting tight. Two huge pointy nipples stuck through her silk bra. The her nipples started bulging out more until two small mounds started growing behind them. This was all too much, I came in my pants. Ana, I wish my pants were clean! Poof! Kat, didn't care, she stayed straddling my lap and kept the show going right in front of me. I was hard again in a few seconds.

As Kat's tits started pressing out into her bra a bulge of flesh came over the top of her tiny bra. Kat was still in ecstasy as she pulled my hands onto her growing tits. They feel so good Tommy. "I want them bigger!" I want you to touch me all over! Tommy rubbed her hard nipples through her tightening shirt. Kat moaned in pleasure. At this rate she must have been close to a C cup and her bra was at capacity. Another minute went by and there was the tearing sound of fabric as her tits broke through their confining bra. They were growing at a steady rate now and must have pushed past double D's. My hands went up her shirt and felt her massive warm tit flesh as it continued to expand. I grabbed onto her nipples and started tugging at them. They practically grew harder and longer in my hands. Kat let out a big yelp as she orgasmed hard. She collapsed on to me with her tits pressed against my face.

As she regained her senses she whispered I want to fuck you hard. I looked over at Ana and said I wish the couch in the office was clean. Poof! I whispered to Kat maybe we should move to the couch. A second later Kat and I were on the couch making out. Her tits continued to grow bigger and bigger. Her button down office shirt was straining to contain the huge meat melons inside. I could see tit pressing through the gaps in the buttons. It made me so horny. She had tit flesh poking through the top and sides of her shirt. Her nipples were practically make holes in the shirt as they were so big and hard. Then I heard the sound we both were waiting for. Kat arched her back and her chest forward. Rrrrrriiiiiipppppp. Her huge tits practically ripped her shirt into two pieces. Two of the most succulent nipples and creamy breasts stood straight out a foot off of her chest. Kat grabbed my hands and placed them on her still growing tits. She pulled my head to her nipples and said to suck them hard. I only wish I could get both in my mouth. I heard "granted" whispered in my ear. Her nipples grew even longer and I could now get both in my mouth at the same time. I nibbled a bit and sucked hard. Kat let out a very long OOOOOOOOOOOO and came so hard her panties soaked all through.

When she was able to refocus we swapped positions and she took off my pants.. She straddled me again and lowered herself slowly on to my throbbing hard cock. She was so tight. Her tit growth had slowed now and her nipples were now resting on my stomach. I cupped her firm butt cheeks with my hands and with my newly found strength lifted her up and down my shaft. Her pussy was very wet and slid smoothly against my cock. Being my first time the feeling was amazing. The heat of her vagina felt so natural around me. Her pussy gripped my cock as if there was a hand in there. It was amazing! She knew I was just about to cum and she pulled off of me and started deep throating my cock. She took my wet cock and wrapped her huge tits around it just enough to start sucking my head. I couldn't take any more. My balls erupted in a stream of cum. I blew a huge load all over her tits and face for what seemed an entire minute. She licked her lips from my load and sucked my cock until it was limp. She then rubbed my cum all over her tits as she smiled at me. I passed out for a few minutes with a big smile on my face.

When I awoke Kat was still next to me admiring her new tits. She seemed so content with them. She laid there twisting and pulling at her nipples. She now knew why girls with big tits liked them so much. She even tried pulling one of her nipples to her mouth and sucking on it. She hefted her massive tit to her mouth and sucked on her huge nipple. Goose bumps appeared all down her body. She saw me watching her and said too bad there's no milk to feed my baby.

Ana, I wish Kat's tits produced chocolate and vanilla milk shakes. Another wink and Ana went to work. Poof! Kat didn't hear me but felt the change right away. Her nipples got really cold and hard. She pulled her nipple back to her mouth and sucked. Nothing at first, but after a while she felt it. Like trying to suck a milk shake through a straw it took some time. Then she got a taste. It was the best chocolate shake she ever had. "Time to feed my baby" she said and positioned her tit for me. I leaned over and started to suck. It was truly delicious. After we both had our fill sucking her tits it was time to put things back to normal. Although Kat was very accepting of the whole situation I couldn't risk exposing my secret. I wished for everything to go back to normal and that Kat would only remember us making out and feeling up each other. The second she heard my wish she looked disappointed and poof.

Kat woke up from her nap on the couch. "What a crazy dream I had." She looked over at me still putting in invoices on the computer. She came over and gave me a kiss on the cheek as she hugged me. Her form fitting shirt was still hugging her small breasts. She reached up and felt one of her breasts. She somehow felt disappointed though it felt different. "Huh, seems a little off" she said. I told her it was probably that growth spurt I mentioned earlier. I didn't have the heart to leave her with small tits. Before she woke I wish for her tits to slowly grow to modest C cups over the next day. I figured she at least deserved that for treating me with respect for the last few years.

Chapter 3 - Fantasies

That night I was tired. Ana and I stayed up late talking about what it was like being a fairy god mother. She typically had younger kids under her watch but this was the first time she had an adult. She loved all her children but came clean and said it got kind of boring granted wishes of icecream, puppies, and video games. She was actually excited to dive into the more adult wishes of sex and fantasies. She blushed as her beautiful green eyes glittered with fairy dust around her. What do you do for fun for yourself I asked her. She was caught off guard for a moment. "Me? I usually don't have time for myself. This is a full time job" she sighed. I felt bad for her. You mean you never get to take care of yourself? She smiled and said sometimes I sneak away, but I never been with a human before. I decided to take a chance. I figured maybe I could have my cake and eat it too. Ana, I wish I had a king size bed. Poof. Next I wish I you were a full size woman next to me. "What!?" being taken by surprise. Just grant the wish, and she did. Ana was lying next to me in a silk nightie. Her skin was like no other I ever felt. It was very soft all over. Her legs were perfectly smooth as was her long green hair. She rolled into my arms to face me and I noticed she had quite an ample set of fairy tits. Too soon I thought to myself. I wrapped my arms around her and she quivered. "I, I" she stumbled over her words and felt my body warmth against her skin. She was quiet for a minute as we laid there together and snuggled. "This is nice, thank you" she said finally. We fell asleep in each other's arms. That night I had vivid dream of making love to Ana.

"Wake up baby" I heard whispered in my ear. I opened my eyes expecting to see Ana but it was Kat. Your mom said you were up stairs and I decided to bring you a little treat. I looked around to see where Ana went. She was back in her fish bowl winking at me. Kat pulled out a bag with some fresh hot bagels.

She smiled and leaned into give me a kiss. I noticed her newly grown cleavage as she bent over. She seemed happier and content. I didn't make any extreme changes to myself, but I guess she had low self image too. She was now more confident and I'm guessing between her tits and our dream hookup yesterday she was feeling pretty good.

We sat and ate our bagels. It was a rather pleasant change from eating cereal alone or with my parents. We laid in my bed all morning and talked about random things. Kat rolled over and gave me a kiss on lips. What was that for I asked? "Just because, you've been so nice to me and I was so worried what everyone thought of me I never took time to get to know you" she said. I like you too I said back to her. The sound of the car starting outside confirmed that my parents left to go shopping. With this we then proceeded to make out a bit more and then the conversation got interesting. We started talking about fantasies and Kat admitted she wanted to have a lesbian experience with another girl who had really big tits. She wanted to lay on top of the girl and suck her tits while that girl sucked her tits. It was a cute fantasy but she knew it would never happen. "What about you, what is one of your fantasies Tommy? I thought for a moment and said I wish I was the girl in your fantasy. I heard Ana say "this is going to be good." Poof!

Kat yawned and became sleepy. A heavy fog rolled into my bed room made everything appear as a dream. Then I felt it. My hair started getting longer and changed from brown to a dirty blonde. My muscular body shrank to a woman's size 3. Then I felt my cock get sucked in like a pop sound. My two balls rolled up and disappeared. It didn't hurt but felt really weird. My clothes disappeared and I could see the body of a gorgeous girl forming before my own eyes. No tits yet I thought. "I saved the best for last, I think you'll like this" Ana said.

I grabbed my flat chest and felt the skin start to ripple. It started off slow then stopped. A small girly nipple formed but that was it. What gives Ana? "They'll only grow when you say the word grow." OK, I get it. Grow! Then it happened. My perk little nipples grew a cup size. Grow! They grew again. I was now a firm B cup. Grow! C cup! I raised my hands up to cup my new breasts. They were still warm and topped with nice pink nipples. I rolled my nipples between my fingers and felt a heat swell in my new pussy. I kept rolling my nipples and my body shook. I was flush all over. "Congratulations, you just had your first female orgasm" laugh Ana. It was now time. I bent down and kissed Kat. She awoke into what she thought was a dream. "What's going on? Who are you? I told her I was here to satisfy her fantasy and that all this was a dream. She wasted no time and started kissing me. She paused for a moment and thought how this girl's kiss was somewhat familiar. I slowly unbutton her shirt and and kissed down her neck. With a snap of my fingers her bra was on the ground. Her newly grown C cups were perfect. I suckled on one of her nipples and she squealed a bit. "I wanted bigger tits she said, but at least they started to grow recently." There was that word again. My chest warmed up and my tits pushed out against her chest. "What just happened?" she asked. Oh, my tits get bigger whenever you say grow. They grew again into DD's. "No shit!" Kat said as she pushed me down and laid on top of me. Her tits dangled in my mouth and her mouth found my nipples. She sucked hard and I sucked on hers. We were caught in an endless nipple suck fest. Then she let go and said "Grow!, Grow!, Grow!" I was caught off guard. My chest erupted as she bit down on my nipple. They grew into G cups slowly! My nipples elongated and she sucked down harder. My tit flesh caused her body to rise up under my growing tits. I could barely reach her tits now. "Grow, Grow, Grow, Grow, Grow, Grow, Grow!" is all I heard her say. Once again a rush of heat flowed to my chest. The last of her tit escaped my mouth as she was pushed skyward. She was riding ontop of my gigantic tits. I couldn't even get my arms to reach my nipples. Her mouth stayed on my thick icepop sized nipples. She moved her body so she could suck one nipple and the other was just about under her sopping wet pussy. "Grow, Grow, Grow!" My tits were so big I lost track of their size. Kat was now suckling on my huge nipple and the other forced it's nipple up into her hot pussy. She was now sucking and fucking my tits. I was in complete glory and I felt ripples of orgasms flow through my body. I could feel her pussy start to tighten up as her orgasm built up. She worked my one nipple with her entire mouth as she massaged my tit with two hands. She rocked harder and faster until I said "Grow, Grow!" That was it, my nipple expanded up into her pussy and pushed her over the edge. Kat came hard. Her pussy erupted with spasms that rocked my nipple and caused me to orgasm just as hard. She cried out as the wave of euphoria rushed across her. Our bodies were wet with sweat and everything else. She slid down my tits and next to me. We kissed and she cuddled me as she fell asleep. The fog rolled away and my body transformed back into my old self.

I got dressed and went to lay back with Kat. She awoke and apologized for falling asleep. "I just had the most incredible and vivid dream. It was like you were there but a girl. It was soo incredible and amazing. You were a girl, at least I think it was you, and your tits would get bigger whenever someone said grow." She said it and I felt a little warmth in my chest. "I looked over at Ana. Sorry, I forgot to undo that one" she whispered. Poof!

Kat and I headed out for a day of fun. I didn't know what was next , but it didn't matter. I now had someone to share a good time with.

Chapter 4 - Dreams of Ana

Ana and I had been together for a few weeks now. It was a new routine for us to snuggle at night. My relationship with Kat was going really well and Ana seemed to approve. There were a few times I wondered if Ana was at all interested in me. We seemed to get along really well and I could tell she was trying a few different things to get my attention. For example she changed her long bright green hair to more shoulder length with a bit of purple mixed in. I had to admit it did look much better. She also started wearing more form fitting outfits. Which was a big change from the normal flowing cover ups should typically wore. She was very pretty in her own right but I wondered if she ever considered anything more between us.

It was early in the morning on day and Ana was laying asleep next to me. I woke up because I had another vivid dream of Ana sucking my cock. It seemed so real that I couldn't shake the feeling. I noticed my cock was hard as can be and it actually ached to be take care of right now. I started to get up but Ana turned rolled over and grabbed my hand. "I would be honored to take care of that for you" she said with a gleam in her eye. I don't know, won't this be kind of weird? "No, I promise this is only business" she said as she reached out for my bulging pants. She snapped her fingers and my underwear was gone. I still had my same size cock before I met Ana. I thought maybe she wanted something a bit bigger to show off her talents. Ana ,I wish my cock was a foot long and as thick as a beer bottle. I want to be able to come multiple times. Poof! My cock stiffened up and Ana took it into her mouth. She starting sucking on it as if she was shaping it. The more she pulled the longer it became. Then she took the tip into her mouth and blew into it. My cock widened in her hands. Next she grabbed my balls and put each one into her mouth one at a time. She rolled each one around in her mouth until they were 3 times the size they used to be.

“Now it’s time to take care of you. I assume you’ll want some nice tits to look at while I’m going down on you” she said. I nodded and she proceeded to untie her nightie and reveal the most perfect tits I had ever seen. They flowed down from just below her shoulders into perfect teardrops. They were large, maybe the size of F cup capped with big blue areolas and big plump nipples. They were truly a site to behold. She had me lay down on the bed while she kissed me on the lips and tongue kissed me down to my waiting cock. She let her hard nipples gently graze my stomach as she worked her way down. She propped her huge tits around my cock just enough so she could still suck me. She worked my cock like it was magic. I was on the verge of cumming many times but she waived her finger at me and said not yet. I could feel the pressure building up in my newly enlarged balls. I reached down to feel her warm tits that were surrounding my cock. I was just about to cum when she took my entire cock down her throat up to my balls. She started humming and instant wave of pleasure erupted from deep in my balls and down my shaft. I came so hard I felt like I jumped off the bed. Ana locked down on my cock and swallowed every bit of my seed. When I was done she licked her lips and said goodnight. I could get use to this I thought.

I enjoyed writing this story. I feel it has many opportunities to build out more story lines. I see Tommy getting more involved with Ana but will jealousy appear between her and Kat? Will Tommy embrace his gift and bring more girls into the picture? I think the next chapter will send Tommy to college. I hope he can handle it! Enjoy, CJ
