Fairly Odd Mother (cont.)

Chapter 5 – Summer Wishes

Tommy woke up and wiped the crust out of his eyes from another blissful night with Kat and then Ana. The warm summer air rolled in through the open window and reminded Tommy of the hot nights he's had since his 18th birthday a few weeks ago. He rolled over to find that Ana was not by his side but probably in her fish tank talking to her friends back home. The relationship between Tommy and Ana was surprisingly laid back and worked well. So far it didn't seem that there was any kind of jealousy in the mix.

A new summer June day and Tommy couldn't wait to make some new wishes. He already had the build of a finely tuned athlete and a modest 9 inch monster that seemed to be the best fit for Kat. It was Saturday morning and Mom made chocolate chip pancakes. There was hardly any wish that would make them any better than they already were. A few changes had occurred around the house since Ana arrived. The family seemed to be a bit luckier when it came to winning contests. A new kitchen was installed last month from the local hardware store as part of a renovation contest. Tommy's parents both won new cars in different raffles a few months apart. These new additions to the family were definitely magic at work. It seemed to be the best way to keep things explainable to anyone who asked where all the stuff came from.

"Good morning Mom", I said as I ate my pancakes. I could not wait to go see Kat today. We talked last night about going to the beach with some friends. Mom interrupted and reminded me my cousins were going to be here and maybe it would be a good idea if I took them with me. "Yea, I guess they can come, but I want to take Dad's BMW." She nodded and said "you need to be back by dinner."

Ana decided to pop onto the table in the form of a pancake syrup bottle. Mrs. Butterworth never looked so hot.

"What are we doing today?" Ana asked

I told her about the beach and she squealed in delight. I told her we had my two hot female cousins who are coming too.

"This will be fun," she said.

All of us piled into the car and made the hour long drive to the beach. It was about 10am and the beach was already busy. The day was perfect and the water was just warm enough to get in for a little while. Kat was with me and she looked amazing. She had her hair tied up with just a few strands of hair hanging down across her face. It was such a hot look. She wore a loose fitting white button down shirt that covered her perky C cups. Her breasts were being nicely snuggled in by a light green bikini top. Her legs were freshly shaved and they gleamed in the sun. I smacked her on the ass and she turned around and kissed me.

“Do that again, and you’re going to get it,” she said playfully back to me.

“I definitely want it,” I replied.

My cousins Rachel and Vicky needed no excuse to strip down to their two piece bathing suits. Both of them were tall, had long blonde hair, fashion model type bodies, and a perfect set of D cup breasts. I personally think Rachel had slightly bigger breasts. They seemed to be excited to spend the day with us. They walked on ahead of Kat and I to find a nice spot by the water to setup camp.

Kat and I took out a blanket and laid it across the scorching sand. We both stretch out on our stomachs and decided to people watch a bit. Ana appeared as my towel she seemed to enjoy me lying on top of her. I could feel her nudging my cock and slowing stroking it. She did this for a few minutes until I started getting uncomfortable.

“Something wrong babe?” asked Kat as I had to adjust my stiff member.

“No, I just had to adjust my shorts” I replied.

A few people girls passed by. Not much to look at so far. Kat and I curled up together and started chatting about the people around us. There was a couple families with children and a few other 19 or 20 something couples here too. The couple just off to our left seemed a bit odd. The girl was a solid 9. Another model type body but a chest flat as a rock. The guy was average, but he didn’t give much attention to his girl. Instead he would talk to her as stare at girls as they passed by. Every time they spoke and a girl with big boobs whether she was dog ugly or hot passed by he would ogle her.

“You can see the disappointment in her eyes” Kat said as she watched. “I remember when I had nothing up top, it was tough” she said. I looked down at Ana and said I think we can fix this.

I wish that girl’s tits would grow each time her boyfriend ogled someone else. “Done!”, Ana said. We watched as the girl suddenly felt a chill down her spine on such a hot day. She shook it off as a random event and decided to lay on her stomach. People walked by and her boyfriend continued to ogle the girls. Each time he did the girl started to rise a bit off the ground. It was so subtle that she did not notice. After about the 5th time there, was definitely some side boob pushing its way out. She decided to scratch her side and was met with some flesh that wasn’t there before. She immediately sat up in a panic. “What the hell happened to me” she cried out confused. Her bikini top was straining to hold back two grapefruit sized tits. Her nipples were large and about to rip through the thin bathing suit material. The bikini forced her expanding tit flesh to push out all possible sides. Her boyfriend had not noticed yet because he was still ogling one of my cousins down the beach. The new growth came again and bikini snapped in two and landed on her boyfriend’s face. Her tits were large and capped with nice succulent nipples. It was an awesome site to see. They hung perfectly from her body as everyone on the beach just starred at what just transpired. She quickly covered up her new tits but her small hands just weren’t enough to contain the massive breasts she had. As she held her tits a rush of heat came from her sensitive new nipples. It was all too much. She let go of her tits and just started rubbing them in the summer sun. She seemed to be proud of her new assets and definitely showed them off. This happened for a few minutes until she worked up her nipples into an orgasm. She rolled each nipple between her fingers and pulled each one at least a few inches out. Her nipples were huge and so very plump. She laid back on the blanket and arched her back sending her E cups tits straight out from her body. The mountains of flesh quiver as she pulled one nipple to her mouth and started to suck. Kat and I could only watch in excitement as the girl sucked her nipple and rolled the other between her fingers. Eventually the girl let out a squeal and came hard from what appeared to be an awesome orgasm. The whole beach watched as if they just witnessed a miracle. The boyfriend finally snapped out of it and covered her up with a towel. They ran off the beach in a hurry. "I think I know who's about to get some" I said to Kat.

The afternoon was approaching and Kat and I went into the water to cool down. The waves were small as low tide was in. My cousins were in with us as we tried to ride a few waves in. Ana was doubling as my green pool noodle. We were all hanging out in the waves when a larger wave almost knocked the top off of Vicky. "Damn", I thought to myself as she fixed her top. I wouldn't directly wish to see her tits, but if nature had its way I wouldn't stop it. Ana whispered to me that there's no harm in making a few extra waves. She had a point and so I wished for a few extra good waves. It took a few minutes but the water started to recede a bit. I looked into the horizon to see a couple good of swells coming our way. With only a few seconds notice I turned to see my cousins standing with their backs to the oncoming wave slaughter. "Look out!" yelled Kat as the first wave assaulted them. Both cousins were clearly knocked off their feet. They had a few seconds to regain themselves but then the next two waves wiped them out. Vicky appeared first out of foamy water. She stood up a bit dazed and feeling somewhat naked. She looked down to see her pink bikini top floating out to sea. She turned red as she realized Kat and I could see her beautiful tits. There were teardrop and had nice dark areolas. They hardened as Vicky gave them a quick rub with her arms. She smiled at us with a naughty look and went to swim after her top. Rachel on the other hand was still nowhere to be found. I started getting worried when I felt something brush past my leg. It was Rachel's bikini top and bottom. "Over there!" yelled Kat as she pointed to someone washing up on the beach. My heart sank as I ran over to her. She was pale and not moving. I rolled her on to her back and started giving her CPR. My hand was placed firmly between her soft ample breasts. They were so soft as I tried to concentrate on the situation at hand. I gave her some compressions and then mouth to mouth for some air. I placed my lips on hers and gave her a few breaths. After a few seconds she coughed and spit out a bunch water. She opened her eyes and was startled to see me only inches over her body. I backed off as Kat just came back with a towel to cover her up. "Thanks for saving me cuz. I owe you one." Rachel said.

We decided to call it a day. On the ride home Ana whispered how sorry she was the entire way back. She even offered to wipe everyone's memory of what happened today. I said "this was a learning experience and luckily everything was ok. We'll need to be more careful in the future."

Chapter 6 – A Hot Campfire

That night we all gathered in the back yard for some marshmallows and a camp fire. My parents left early and it was just Kat, Vicky, Rachel, and myself. Kat spoke up first and said "now is a good time to have a little fun." She reached into her pocketbook and pulled out a fifth of Jack Daniels.

"Where did you get that from!?" I asked.

"My dad has a few in the basement , he'll never notice" she said in response.

"I propose some kind of game" chirped Vicky.

"Truth or dare!" blurted out Rachel.

"Perfect" I said.

I went first as this was my house. I asked Vicky first "truth or dare?"

"Ok, if you fail to complete your answer or dare correctly you have to take a shot" I said.

"Dare" she said.

"Vicky, I dare you to jump in the pool and yell out I'm soo wet"

Without hesitation Vicky jumped in and yelled at the top of her lungs "I'm so wet for you!"

"Wrong! Drink! You said more than you needed to" I said.

Vicky came over soaking wet and took her shot. Her wet white shirt was hugging every curve of her body. It was clear in the campfire light that she was not wearing a bra and her nipples were hard. They were awesome tits capped with perky nipples. I could feel my cock get excited just looking at her. Vicky noticed me staring and said "I go next."

"Tommy, Truth or Dare?" Vicky asked.

I reluctantly mumbled out "truth" and awaited my question.

"Tommy, did you enjoy kissing and touching Rachel today on the beach?"

I paused for a moment because I had not taken in the whole day's account of exactly what had transpired. Thinking back to the situation, I had indeed given her CPR which could be considered kissing my cousin and feeling her boobs.

I responded "I saved her life, I had to touch Rachel's big boobs and lips."

Kat gave me shove after I said that. She did not look too happy. I looked over to Ana who was now sitting in the tree as an owl. "I wish Kat was more open to me with other girls" I said. Poof! The campfire crackled a bit and I looked over at Kat. She seemed the same but it was time to test it.

I was about to take the next round when Rachel jumped in with her turn.

“Kat, truth or dare?” said Rachel.

“Dare” Kat said.

I listened as Rachel dared Kat to settle the score of which cousin had bigger boobs. She had to feel each girl’s breasts and make a call. This was awesome I thought, not only do I get to see my cousins tits again, I also get to see my girlfriend grope them. My cock stiffened and I waited for the fun to start.

Kat walked over and rolled up Rachel’s shirt. Her large D’s dropped out of her shirt and snuggled together to create some very nice cleavage. Kat, slid her hand under both heavy breasts and tried to size them up. Rachel seems to enjoy the soft touch of Kat as she cooed when Kat grazed her hand across her nipple. Next Kat went next to Vicky and rolled up her shirt. Once again she sized up the breasts and grazed Vicky’s nipples as well. Vicky yelped a bit as her nipples were always more sensitive. After a minute she came back and sat down next to me.

“It’s really hard to tell who had the biggest tits. If I have to choose, I would say “Rachel”.

Vicky looked disappointed and pouted “I wish my tits were bigger. Rachel always had bigger ones.”

I’m not one to pass up a good wish so I decided to make this one interesting. Then I said “Ana, I wish all the girls here would get really horny. Each time one of them gets my cum on their tits they will grow bigger tits.”

Ana granted the wish and I could see the girls starting to twitch. It was amusing to watch them all stare at me. Finally Kat suggested we go down into the basement to get more comfortable.

We walked into the basement where we had a two couches and a TV. Kat walked away and returned with a DVD porno from my secret hiding spot. She popped it in and we all started watching.

Kat was sitting next to me and started rubbing my cock through my pants. My cock grew hard and was noticeably bulging my pants. Rachel saw my pants and decided to sit down on the other side of me. She was visibly sweating from the horniness she was feeling. I could tell she was going against her better judgment but between the alcohol and the horniness she couldn’t fight it. She placed her hand on my belt and began unbuckling my pants. Vicky not to be left out took off her shirt and knelt down in front of me. She began to take off my shoes and pull my pants down. All 3 girls were fixed in a highly sexual state. Kat didn’t seem to care at all as long as she was going to get some.

My pants flew off and before I knew it Vicky positioned my cock between her big tits. They engulfed my nine inch shaft tightly and her nipples hardened against my legs. Not to be out done, Rachel leaned down and started sucking the top of my cock as it poked through Vicky’s mass of cleavage. Kat started to undress and stood up on the couch in front of me with her dripping wet pussy in front of my face. I pulled Kat closer and her puffy pussy lips were on my lips. I licked slowly at first which sent shivers down Kats back. She cooed in pleasure as she pulled on her modest C cup breasts. My two cousins continued to suck and tit fuck me. I could feel both of their nice tits slapping against my body. After what felt like only seconds, I could feel my first load starting to erupt. My body stiffened as I could feel my cock spray all over Vicky's and Rachel's tits. Vicky took the larger part of the load and sat back covered in my spray. She didn't seem to mind. Instead she placed her hand on her tits and began to rub in the cum. It only took a second to see that the cum was soaking into her tits. Her breasts heaved forward and started growing. They slowly grew from a respectable D cup to the next cup size and then the next. The feeling was all too much for Vicky, she pushed Rachel away and climbed reverse cowgirl on top of my still hard shaft. She lowered her hot dripping pussy onto my awaiting cock. Kat was still standing over my face so the two girls were now back to back.

Vicky fucked me damn hard. Her tight little pussy gripped my throbbing cock with every tight thrust. Rachel started to feel the effects of my cum too. She grabbed her tits and rubbed them as the heat built up and they started to grow. She went over behind me and lifted her new E Cups up for Kat to suck on. Kat took Rachel huge nipple into her mouth as she sucked hard. Rachel's tit was still growing a bit as she sucked. This turned her on even more as she orgasmed. Kat climbed off my face me and told Vicky to get off my cock. "It's my turn to fuck my boyfriend!" She said. With that she straddled my cock and took control. She rode me as I still laid on the couch. She pulled both Vicky and Rachel close to her and started sucking on their nipples both at the same time. All the girls cooed as they worked their pussies with their fingers. There was a lot of sucking and fucking going on here. Finally I was about to cum again. Kat saw I was about to cum and told me to stand up. I complied as all three girls lined up below me with their tits push up and together. It was an impressive sight to see all those nice big tits mashed together. I just wanted to cum all over them. Kat proceeded to work my shaft until I sprayed an even a huge load onto her small tits and a little more onto Vicky and Rachel's.

Kat's C cups where soaked in my cum. The globs dripped off her pert nipples as she started to rub it in to her breasts. The growth started immediately. Kat sat back and arched her chest. She could feel the growth happening and screamed out "I always wanted huge tits! Not boobs, not breasts, but big wonderful, luscious tits!"

As she said this she laid on top of me and pushed her enlarging tits into my face. I could feel the heat from their growth as her nipples lengthen and hardened against my cheeks. Her growth was much more rapid than that of the other girls. She was probably past a DD now with no sign of slowing down. The light from the world around me started disappearing as tit flesh covered my face. I could still Kat writhing in ecstasy as she orgasmed on top of me. Finally, as I started gasping for air the light returned and Kat got peeled herself off of me. I rubbed my eyes to see all three girls sucking each other's newly huge tits. Kat was probably around a massive H cup now, Vicky was close to a G, and Rachel was near an F. I sat back and relaxed as I could hear the girls finally working up into a final orgasm together. I looked over at Ana who seemed to enjoy the whole scene from atop of the coo coo clock. The girls came together and all three laid back where they were in ecstasy. There was a bunch of oohhs and aaahhs coming out. I made one final adjustment wish before I rolled over next to Kat to fall asleep. "I wish their tits would stay big and no one will question the change" I mumbled before passing out.

Poof! "Good Night" said Ana.

Here are another few chapters in my Fairly Odd Mother story line. I haven't decided if I will continue beyond this story line but I'll definitely keep it open to myself or others who want to try their own take. I appreciate all the good feedback and any specific ideas that would make future stories better. I have to admit I take pride in the story and typically get carried away with more of the story line than the technical details. I'll take all feedback under consideration. I hope you enjoyed these new chapters.
