

One wrong ingredient

The potion hissed as Lucy dropped another ingredient into the mix. Bubbles surfaced as she frantically kept on adding more and more of the prescribed materials to the concoction. Although it was her first time making a potion, she thought it was going well so far. “Just a few more ingredients, and then I can finally get what I’ve wanted!”

Her search for a more curvaceous body had culminated in this moment. She had wanted an impressive hourglass figure for as long as she could remember, and the potion she was making would supposedly give her what she desired. Right now, she had a slim and athletic body. She was fit and toned but had barely any ass to speak of and a pair of B-cups. She hoped that would all change today... She had made sure to wear stretchy yoga pants and an elastic tank top so there was plenty of room to grow.

She followed the instructions in the occult book she had recently bought, but the mere thought of expanding had gotten her excited... and clumsy. The bowl she was using to mix the ingredients was perched on the kitchen counter, since she hadn’t taken the time to move anywhere else. As she rapidly grabbed and added ingredients, she knocked her hand against the shelves in front of her, causing food to fall down and clatter on the tabletop. “Shit!” she said, reaching out and grabbing the shelves. As Lucy tried to stop them from wobbling, a single blueberry fell into the potion. She didn’t notice the tiny splash. She sighed in relief as the shelves stopped shaking, and continued adding ingredients to her potion until it was completed.

The concoction swirled with a sparkly blue sheen, no longer hissing and spitting. It was ready. “This is going to be awesome,” Lucy said, feeling butterflies in her stomach. She grabbed the potion and hurried to her bedroom, where she stood in front of a full-length mirror. If she was going to expand, she wanted to watch it happening.

She gave one last look at the potion. The book had said once she drank it, it would have an irreversible and unstoppable effect on her body. Knowing there would be no going back only added to her excitement. “Here goes!” she said, before bringing the bowl to her lips and drinking the entire potion.

Lucy watched herself in the mirror, waiting for it to happen. She stared at her breasts, watching for any changes in their size... but nothing was happening. Instead, she noticed something strange occurring. A small blue patch began spreading across her nose. It spread out further as she watched, beginning to affect the area around her nose as well. “Oops...” she said, squinting, “I think I may have messed up.”

The patch kept on moving out wider and wider, gradually turning her whole face blue. As she watched the skin on her neck and shoulders changing colour too, she found that she wasn’t too fazed about the whole thing. Her body was slowly turning blue, which meant that the potion was sure to be working! Her excitement rose even higher, and she could feel her heart racing in her chest.

As the colouration slowly progressed down her body, Lucy noticed that there was a complexity to the colour. A light, sapphire blue led the way down over the tops of her arms. Her face was now darkening in colour, becoming more of a deep indigo as the potion’s effect became more permanent. Lucy watched her skin turn from tanned to blue, and she grinned. It looked so pretty as the colours played across her body, a wash of bright blues at the edges and a saturation of dark blues left in its wake.

The blue spread down over her chest, and Lucy pulled down on the neckline of her top to get a better look. She could see her breasts slowly being overtaken by the effect, first becoming an ocean blue and then gradually darkening in colour until they were almost violet. She suddenly heard a gurgling sound come from her tits. "Holy shit," she gasped, her mouth falling open. She knew this would be how it started!

The wave of blue continued down her toned stomach, although she couldn't see it underneath her shirt. To get a good look, she pulled the hem of her shirt up. She watched in the mirror as the colour moved across her tight belly, and then out over her hips. Again, a grumbling sound came from her body – this time from her stomach. It was as if her body was getting ready for something... and Lucy knew exactly what was about to happen. She was ecstatic, and fought to keep her excitement under control

The colouration continued down her legs and ended at her feet, stopping only when Lucy's skin had turned completely blue. Her legs and feet darkened in tone, slowly coming to match the indigo of the rest of her skin. She looked over herself; the excitement made her go slightly light-headed. "This actually looks pretty good," she said, rapidly coming to appreciate whatever accident had caused her body to change colour.

She watched her body for any more changes, breathing heavily. She could hear the sound of her heart beating in her chest as she waited in anticipation. Her body went woozy with all the adrenaline pumping through her body. Surely she would start expanding soon? She felt so on edge that it was torturous! She wanted nothing more than for her body to start growing, and she wasn't sure how long it would take to kick in.

Then, finally, it began. Her nipples quickly hardened, showing through her shirt. A wave of pleasure moved over her entire body, and she knew without a doubt that the potion was about to do its job.

Lucy felt it in her butt first. She looked back and saw her ass slowly beginning to inflate, letting out a gurgling sound as she filled out. "Yes, it's finally happening!" she said, her eyes going wide as her butt expanded. It inched further out behind her, gradually taking shape from her previously flat form. Two round and firm ass cheeks developed rapidly, pressing out more and more with each second. She could feel her skin stretching to accommodate her expansion, and her butt pressed outwards against her yoga pants. For the first time in her life, she actually had a noticeable ass!

Her slim, sexy stomach rumbled as the potion continued to do its work. It was barely audible over the gurgling sounds coming from her inflating butt, however. Lucy tingled all over, her every fibre alive with pleasure. "It feels so good!" she said. She was particularly fond of how her butt felt as it grew. It felt as if it were filling with something... Something that was forcing her ass to stretch and grow larger and larger. This only made her blue ass tingle all the more, sending pulses of bliss out across her ballooning butt cheeks while they expanded.

Lucy heard another gurgling sound. It came from her indigo tits as they started to fill up too. She felt what she assumed to be juice rushing into her small breasts, filling them out and making them slowly surge forwards. They pushed into her tank top, her hard nipples leading the way. Her boobs inflated like filling water balloons, taking up space in every direction. They moved ahead, to the sides, and also progressed down her ribs as they swelled.

Lucy looked at herself in the mirror. Her eyes fixated on her tits, and she watched them gradually round out. She twisted at her hips in order to get a view of her ballooning bum, her emotions soaring as she saw it progress out to larger sizes. Next, she took in the blue tinge to her skin. Any part of her fit body that wasn't covered by her tightening clothes advertised her blue skin. When she looked at her face, she noticed that her eyes had even changed to be a bright blue, to match her skin. The sight of herself made her heart flutter, and she bit her lip excitedly.

"This is amazing," she said, content with watching her body blossoming in the mirror. She had wanted this for so long! Now it was actually happening, she was more excited than ever. Not only that, but she had never expected it to feel so good! She was in a constant state of pleasure as her skin pulsed with hypersensitivity.

Angling herself for a better look, Lucy watched her ass grow even more. It filled out her yoga pants nicely now, and she could feel it stretching the material even more as she continued to expand. Not to be outdone, Lucy noticed that her hips were getting bigger too! They widened out to the sides as her ass filled out behind her. Her rear bubbled as it swelled with juice, tingling all the while. Her butt and hips swelled and swelled every second until her ass stuck out 6 inches (15cm) behind her, and her hips were 3 inches (7.5cm) wider than her waist on either side.

Lucy's boobs made the fabric of her tank top stretch around them as they grew. They felt so sensitive as the material rubbed against their swelling forms, sending tingles down her spine. Lucy looked at herself in the mirror as she brought her hands up to cup her breasts. They felt so heavy and she could feel them slowly overspilling her grasp as they grew onwards. Just touching them made her moan as blissful sensations spread across them. More and more juice rushed into her tits, forcing them out even bigger. Her blue skin stretched to make room for her tits as they forced their way ahead and moved her hands further out from her chest. They were as big as her head now, and still growing.

Lucy felt her thighs beginning to rub together which was strange because she usually had a considerable thigh gap. She rubbed her legs together, getting used to the unfamiliar sensation. In the mirror, she saw they were much fuller than before. She could even see them thickening as she watched.

Between her ass, her hips and her thighs, most of her lower half was now expanding. Her butt became rounder and firmer as she filled up with juice. Her azure hips kept pace with her butt's growth, getting wider and wider too. She watched as her yoga pants stretched around her gurgling body, rapidly running out of space to give. As her pants tightened, Lucy felt her butt and thighs become awash with pleasure. "Just keep on growing," she groaned, fully giving into her expansion.

Lucy felt her juicy blue thighs swelling more and more. They squashed up on one another as they expanded. Soon, the pressure was enough to make her widen her stance. As she moved her feet out to the side, she felt her wide hips sway from side to side, making her ass wobble. She giggled, thoroughly enjoying the feeling of having a fuller body. After a few seconds, her butt stopped jiggling, but she heard her breasts sloshing with the movement. She could even feel the juice inside them making her boobs undulate heavily on her small frame.

She looked down at her tits and was met with the sight of her deep cleavage. It peered out through the neckline of her top, and she could see her boobs extending further and further ahead. They had grown several cup sizes since she had last looked at them, and they didn't look to be stopping any time soon. Her boobs pressed over her tank top, their blue curves rising slowly upwards towards her chin. Her top constricted around her tits as they relentlessly ballooned up. Her nipples looked as if they were trying to bore through the fabric, slowly moving ahead as her boobs filled out behind them. She watched as her top began to get dragged upwards by her tits. Her athletic stomach gradually became exposed as it continued to grumble. Her tits were now as big as watermelons, and her top was looking far too small.

As Lucy watched her body blow up, she felt her excitement get even more overwhelming. Her heart was beating so fast that it felt like it was trying to burst out of her chest! Her breathing had quickened but, despite breathing heavily, she couldn't hear it over the sound of her body gurgling as it filled out. Her whole body was alive with intense sensations. She could feel every inch of her skin as it stretched around her swelling curves, adding inches with every second.

Lucy made the most of the moment and started running her hands all over her body. She grabbed her blueberry ass, groaning as she felt it pressing against her hands. "Ohhhh, yessss," she moaned, the pleasurable feelings intensifying as she felt herself. She lingered for a moment, allowing her butt to move her hands further behind her. Then, she ran her palms up along the over-pronounced curves of her hips and up to squeeze her breasts. She felt her soft flesh bulge between her fingers as she did so, gradually growing even bigger still. They were far too big for her to hold now, reaching almost the size of soccer balls, but she made sure to feel every inch of them nonetheless. She grew and grew and grew, the blueberry juice continually forcing her body to expand and swell.

Lucy felt her yoga pants digging into her skin, so looked back to see how tight they had become. "Wow, I'm getting huge!" she said, getting even more excited. Her ass now bulged over the top of her pants, forming a blue curve of swelling bubble butt. It slowly pushed over the top more and more as her hips continued to press out to the sides. This made the waistband really dig into her, but it didn't feel unpleasant, it actually felt really good. Her butt, hips and thighs filled up like a balloon, inflating in all directions.

Her thighs were still rubbing together, and she had to widen her stance once again. Her massive ass, which now stuck out a whole foot (30cm) behind her, ponderously wobbled. She heard her yoga pants groan as more and more blue skin pushed its way over the top of it. The fabric constricted around her legs, which were thick enough to compliment her behemoth of an ass.

It was then that the persistent sound of gurgling stopped coming from her butt. "No no no, not yet!" she said, watching as her bum slowly stopped growing. Her hips and thighs inched out a little more before stopping too. Her heart sank. She had been enjoying the expansion so much that she hadn't even thought about it stopping!

Her breasts let out a long grumble, snapping her attention to them once more. Thankfully, they were still filling with juice, although they were already massive. Her tank top was barely holding her breasts back. It was tightly wrapped around her cerulean bosom and had risen so far up her body that the entirety of her stomach was on show. She could feel her boobs carry on growing, slowly pressing ahead against the tight material of her top.

Since there was nowhere for them to grow anymore, she watched in the mirror as her tits bulged out of every gap they could find. Her blue breasts surged through her neckline, oozing upwards by a good few inches. Not only that, but they were also pressing out from the sides, up towards her shoulders and arms, pouring out from under her shoulder straps. She noticed that her boobs were beginning to push out from underneath her shirt too. She watched in amazement as her boobs swelled all around her top like putty, pushing it to its absolute limit.

She heard her tank top start to tear at the seams as her tits grew to be as large as basketballs. Her blueberry boobs pressed out from the rips, emphasising just how tight the top had become. They steadily rounded out even further, gurgling and groaning. The intense pressure of being filled up from inside her breasts added more and more weight every second. Her tits slowly inched down her stomach, gradually covering her belly button before Lucy noticed their expansion slowing down too. She sighed as she watched her expansion finally come to a stop.

“Well... I finally have the body I’ve always wanted,” she said, as if to console herself that the expansion had subsided. She looked over herself in the mirror, taking time to absorb the sight of her new body. She had a very over-exaggerated hourglass figure. Her hips were just over twice as wide as her waist, and her breasts were big enough to match. Her ass and thighs were thicker than she had seen on any woman, with her round butt protruding behind her enticingly. Her tits, hardly even contained in her tank top, took up the majority of her upper body. They were so big that they were easy to see sticking out to the sides from behind.

Then there was her skin. She was blue all over, but she didn’t mind that at all. In fact, she really liked it. “I just look so... ripe,” she said, grinning. She had always wanted to have amazing curves and she had gotten just that and more. She was a full-bodied blueberry woman now, and she couldn’t wait to show it off!
