Quick notes from the Author to the readers:

- 1) English is not my native tongue, pair this with my dyslectic handicap and you can run across some weird phrasing and punctuation and even missing complete words. Even after many reading passes, it's very likely issues may still exist that are not being detected by basic spelling checkers.
- 2) The story initially existed out of only a few pages long having a simple format, but over a long period time between many writing session it grew longer and longer with each and every pass of reading checks that were being applied. It grew out to be come 71 page's in size, given I'm using slightly larger font to aid my dyslectic handicap. Expect about 30% less pages when you size it down somewhat.
- 3) I might have gone a bit overboard with details, describing nearly every scene and conversation that is taking place with a lot of details. Even though I could have reduced it a by lot, it has been a greet aid for me through the creation of this story.
- 4) I'm certain a lot of words can be dropped and some things can be simplified, but this requires yet more read troughs along with risking even more changes to be applied and expanding the story even further. In order to prevent it from turning in to a full blown book, hence why I'm leaving the story in it's current state. Please do let me know if it wasn't to rough around the edges in the comments
- 5) I welcome all comments and feedback, both the good, the bad and the ugly on "The Overflowing Bra".

Sparkling Uncut Jewels

* * * Friday - 17:05 * * *

Daniel bobbed and weaved between the crowded side walks making haste, his heart pounding in his chest as he rushed through the crowds to get home and meet with a few old friends he had not seen since high school, who would arrive soon. Once he made it to the subway, he managed to regain his breath, his heart nonetheless was still pounding like crazy. A quick glance at his phone, reading 17:08, confirmed he was making good time. Thanking himself for habit of setting up additional reminders for the event & reminder he put in his phone.

Daniel had an athletic build, standing really tall at 6'11, with moderately broad shoulders and strong build, but as he approached the 40's, he started developing a bit of a belly. Nothing too serious though, something he was actively working in the gym for nearly 3 times a week. For now he just concealed it by not wearing anything tight, so a loose shirt was sufficient.

Daniel was staring out in front of himself, seeing fellow passengers who were occupied with their phones, but not looking at anyone in particular, staring between them gazing at his own reflection in the window.

His dark brown hair had a messy appeal and was long due for a clean cut, along with his bearded face. He had not maintained it for a good week and what could also use a good trimming. Something he hoped he would have done already, specially now that he was receiving friends.

On his lap rested his backpack, one that contained his notebook from work, along with his typical geeky IT equipment. He clenched it tightly.

Daniel works for an archaeology company, having an IT security role, maintaining a fair amount of the security systems and its computers.

He's was good at his job, mostly due to his very proactive approach of not sitting idle, waiting for something to break down first. This had most likely saved his skin a few times already when his department he worked at had a reduction in headcount.

Daniel didn't care much for the riches that company found, cataloged and eventually sold or rent out to museums. The only finds he found fascinating were related to the middle ages, knights in armor and that kind of stuff. Daniel was a big fan of fantasy and fiction that got sparked by the old school pen & paper dungeon and dragons games that he continued to play till his late twenties.

But a few months back there were a series of break-in attempts, at first nothing was stolen, for they failed to get passed a closed door, that they tried to pry open. A second attempt also failed, even though they did manage to drill open a lock, but camera's showed they never actually went inside.

Several quiet weeks followed as security guards made their rounds around the building for a few weeks during the nights, until a fourth attempt occurred. The thieves, had gotten their hands on the janitor key's, along with a security badge from the hired company who supplied the guards, giving them free access to building and the archaeology finds. They went for only one specific thing. Some stone carved relic with 8 uncut jewels. They didn't get far though and got arrested upon trying to leave the building.

Daniel was tasked helping as an investigation took place, providing access and to the recorded security video's as well as provide copies of what was known about the relic in question.

The detectives didn't care much for it's history or origin, let alone the tales known from old and sadly incomplete written script about what it was used for. They only cared about it's value, for it had 8 uncut jewels in there.

Even though incomplete, the few translated pieces, gave clues that had Daniel's fantasy running wild and peaked it's interest in to the relic. "They shall shine", "when empowered", "in the light", "They remain dark, when spend" There were some more lines about empowering and sacrifices, that made very little sense, with the exception of the word "granting".

Throughout the investigation, Daniel was allowed handle the relic, given he wore gloves while doing so. All the jewels were roughly the same size and color, two were dark, four were bright and two sat somewhere in between.

"Next stop" sounded the internal speakers, causing Daniel to promptly stand up, eager to get home.

*** Friday - 17:25 ***

Closing the door behind him, he glanced at the clock on the wall reading 17:25. "Good, I've some time left", quickly making his way to the bedroom, dropping his backpack off in the corner of the bedroom, grabbing some clean clothes and moved on to the bathroom.

A quick beard trimming, a shower, some wax to tame his hair, clean clothes and he was ready to welcome his guests.

Back in his living room, Daniel looked around his apartment, spotting a few remaining dirty plates and glasses from his breakfast and late night meal, along with some other items he deemed to be clutter. Daniel quickly relocated them, in to the dishwasher, along with the other things he considered visual clutter storing them out of sight and finishing with opening a window for some additional fresh air, to get rid of possible odor's he might not be aware of.

He sat down on his couch checking his emails to pass the time, while a good half hour passed away, before the door bell rang.

*** Friday - 18:40 ***

Daniel opened the front door, facing two woman, "Naomi? ... Aika?" Daniel spoke as he stared down the two ladies on his door step. "Dan!" shrieked Aika, arms flying wide open to receive a greeting's hug from Daniel. Daniel lower himself to meet Aika's open arms for Aika was only 4'9 in height, "Have you grown bigger?" Aika spoke as they exchanged greeting kisses. "May be only a little" Daniel joked, not exactly sure himself.

Once Aika finally released her hug, Daniel turned to Naomi, who also gave him a long tight hug along with the associated greeting kisses.

The ladies were invited to come inside, coats were received and put away while guiding the ladies through his apartment to the living room.

"Let me get a good look of you first" Naomi said as they stepped in to the living room. "God it's true Aika" Naomi continued, "Men do age like fine wine" as she gave Daniel a thorough visual inspection.

Daniel did a little tip toeing 360, like a ballerina, what looked ridiculous, but was entertaining enough for the ladies.

"The beard looks nice on you" Aika commented while smiling

"And Daniel" Naomi cut in, "How have we aged" taking up a superhero pose, shoulders held back sticking out her chest. Aika laughing as Naomi took on the exaggerated pose.

"Still putting me on the spot I see" Daniel responded laughing while shaking his head.

"Yes Daniel, how do we look" Aika said as she sucked in air loudly for everybody to hear, while taking up the same pose as Naomi.

Daniel took a few step back from the ladies, flipped a light switch what illuminated the ladies, walking back over to giving them a good visual inspection.

Naomi was a 5'6 tall, had a warm ivory skin tone, blond curly hair that touched her shoulders and was a fair amount more voluptuous then how he remembered she was during high school. If Daniel remember correct, she was 3 or 4 year younger than him, putting her around the age of 33 or 34.

She wore a baggy blouse that didn't reveal much of her bodily features other then that she had an ample bosom hiding at least a pair of grapefruit's in there somewhere Daniel thought.

Daniel motioned with hand and finger gesture for Naomi to turn around. Naomi did so, presenting her side's to Daniel

Her jeans gave her a nicely curved bottom and appealing hips.

Daniel gave an approving facial expression what Naomi took as a good sign and returned back to her normal casual stance, "Well?" Naomi asked expecting a verdict.

"You have aged like fine wine as well, Naomi" Daniel returned with a smile

"My turn!" Aika squeaked.

Again Daniel did a visual inspection, exaggerate the process as he did before with Naomi.

Aika stood 4'9 tall, with a warm beige skin tone, long dark blackish hair that ran all the way down her back, she had a slender frame, tinny waist what gave her a bit more flare to her hips. Aika was a good deal younger then both of them, she did go the same school high school they all went to. She was the type that acted much older for age and hung out with older friends. How they met and joined their unique collection of friends, Daniel didn't recall any more. He guessed she was in her early 30's, but dared not to ask.

Without having to motion for it, Aika did a side turn hop, putting her side on display.

She has long hair reaching all the way down to just above her bottom that didn't have much curves going for her. Her breasts looked bigger on her small frame, but she didn't have a lot going, he guessed they were no bigger then a lemon

Daniel wasn't able to spot much of a difference of how he remembered Aika from high school, she was still the same small Asian girl, full of energy.

"I honestly can't tell much of a difference from how I recall your younger you, and how you look now, still bursting with energy" Daniel commented
"Yeaah, ... Aced it!" Aika celebrated while doing several short victory jumps and hops to the air.

* * * Friday - 18:50 * * *

Drinks were poured and memories were dug up as the ladies jumped from one conversation on to the next.

"Actually,..." Daniel interrupted and changing the topic, "Were is Kevin? Wasn't he supposed to come with you?"

"Kevin could not make it" Naomi was quick to respond, "He had a bit of an accident yesterday".

"Oh?" Daniel responded, "Nothing to serious I hope"

"That depends" Aika responded grinning, "He got his fingers trapped between the car door, as his kid closed it"

"Ouch" Daniel said while expressing how that might have felt.

"He could have come, but it's more his ego that is hurting" Naomi smiled as she reached for her glass of wine.

Drinks were flowing just as easy as the conversations were and they were all having a good time, Daniel had shared his life story after high school, his first few real jobs and how he ended up now working for this archaeology company, he even shared his failed relationships, something he didn't expect he would actually share so openly.

Aika worked for a transportation company, having an administrative secretary job for some regional manager. Naomi had a similar job, but the company she worked for had gone bankrupt. She was currently between jobs and was serving tables for the time being. To Daniels surprise Naomi and Aika were both still single and had experienced the same bad luck in relations and lovers as he had.

The reservation for four at a nearby restaurant was canceled and they had ordered sushi instead. The delivery came very late and as an apology, they were given a second bottle of Sake as means of an apology.

Things became only more enjoyable for the party of three for the evening.

* * * Saturday - 00:50 * * *

It was well passed midnight, when Daniel excused himself to the toilet. Instead of going to the one in the hallway, he went to the one in his bathroom, he had to go for package number two and didn't want to stink up the toilet when he had guests.

He passed through his bedroom, stumbling over his own cozy slippers in the process, ending up flat out on the floor with a loud thud.

Daniel could hear the ladies burst out in to laughter, while he was laying on the floor. Just before he attempted to get up, he faced his backpack that was less than an arm length away and recalled what was inside it.

Daniel got back up and went in to the bathroom, a few minutes later he came back out of it. Standing next to it and staring down at his backpack. A brief moment passed, when he suddenly knelt down, reaching down in to the backpack and taking hold of it.

He never expecting he actually would go through with this mad idea that he had drafted in his head a few weeks back. But he had done it anyway, from the bag he pulled out the old stone relic, containing 8 uncut jewels.

Daniel had exploited the scheduled maintenance and hardware upgrades to the security system, he was instructed to oversee. This gave him free access to the relic, with no other personnel on the floor, other than himself and no electronic eyes as they were being worked on, giving him free access to the price. He hid the relic for several days, everything went so smooth making him wonder if he had taken up the right profession.

The day he finally worked up the nerves to actually smuggle it out was a stressful one, he came in very early, what was convenient for the upgraded security system were causing some issues. When he actually left, saying good night to the guards on shift, his phone chimed a reminder notification.

Pulling out his phone he read the reminder "High school friends @1830" "Shit!" Daniel cursed, "Everything all right sir" the security guard asked, "Yeah, only later for an appointment with friends" Looking at the guard giving him a friendly nod "Got to run, have a good evening" as Daniel started running away and out of the door.

Now here he stood, looking down upon the relic in his hands. Giving the jewels another inspection in the light, several bright and a few were dark.

He wanted to test it somehow, but he wasn't quite sure how yet.

Another burst of laughter came from the living ladies in the living room, as Daniel heard as Aiko voice raised up from the conversation, loud enough to make out a few words. "You what?... Oh!! You kinky... Twisted fetish" More laughter followed as the conversation went on.

Daniel's mind remained stuck on the word fetish, for he had some of his own. The kind he wasn't comfortable with sharing. Specially not with his guests, he would need to be way more drunk for that to happen, he figured.

Daniel knew he wasn't alone, there were many more out there who shared his fetishes. Daniel was also pretty convinced, that what he overheard was girl to girl talk and would he step back in the room, would not be something that would be brought up in a conversation with him present again.

He sat down on his XL king sized bed, deep in thoughts. Girls laughing hysterically again in the background.

Daniel mumbled talking to himself and repeated the words "Fetish" and "Dirty" several times over. Until finally, "I wish Aika and Noamie would have the same dirty minded fetishes I have, so we can openly talk about it and share the experience" Daniel whispered, while holding the relic in his lap held by one hand

The laughing of the ladies abruptly halted and fell silent.

Daniel look up and turned to face the bedroom door, listing to there sudden silence. Relieved to hear the conversation pickup again followed by more laughter.

Daniel opened up the nightstand drawer and placed the relic in side, before returning to the ladies who could still be heard talking to one another.

Daniel returned to the living room to be welcomed by two long and loud "Burps!" thrown at him by the girls. When it ended, both girls burst in to laughter again, while Aika managed to control her laughter just long enough to say "No more Sake" as both ladies held two upside down turned empty sake bottles, they all have been drinking from the last few hours. Daniel burst in laughter as well, as took place on the sofa joined the conversation again.

* * * Saturday - 3:05 * * *

Enjoying the last beer from the fridge while ladies started working on an old white wine bottle, that had been opened for a few weeks now, they had been drinking red wine all evening, but with it being the last remaining bottle of liquor in the house, they didn't object to it's age or opened state.

"So" Aika said as she let her self fall down next to Daniel, on to the two-seat sofa, while he attempted to take a sip from his beer. Some beer splashed out of the can on to his shirt, but he manged to control most of it, Aika wasn't that heavy to begin with. "What kind of fetishes are you in to Daniel" Aika went on causing Daniel to choke on some of his beer he tried to swallow.

"What?" Daniel responded, a bit dumbstruck, while coughing out some fluids.

"Aika asked, if you have a dirty fetish of some kind" Naomi followed up, claimed the free space Aika gave up as she exchanged places, laying back on the other larger sofa

Daniel's mind was working over time. He had heard it right, they were daring him to openly discuss his fetishes.

"10 bucks he's in to high heels" Aika shooting back a glance to Naomi.

It's the alcohol talking, Daniel convinced himself, this isn't happening for real is it?

"No he likes to wear woman's panties" Naomi joked as the girls awaited his response

"Will you girls excuse me for one second" As Daniel stood up, walking towards the bedroom.

"I'm telling you, he's fetching his high heels collection" Aika joked as both ladies burst in laughter again.

Daniel rushed to his nightstand and pulled out the relic and held it in to the light, inspecting the jewels. His jaw dropped in awe as one of the jewels had faded and remains now dark to the light, leaving him with three bright jewels, two dark ones and two somewhere in the between of the two.

"It actually worked" he mumbled to himself. He placed back the relic, "I need to know for certain", standing up and walking over to bookshelves shelves picking up leather pouch.

"Ahwww, no high heels" Aika continuing her joke, making a sad face in the process as Daniel walked back in to the room again, Daniel sat back down next to Aika, holding up the leather pouch and giving it a shake

Both girls eye went wide in excitement, expecting Daniel's fetish to be revealed.

"Dice" Daniel spoke, what had two eyebrows raised "Dice?" both ladies spoke in union.

"What kind of weird fetish is that" Naomi was quick to follow up.

"No, No, Not a fetish" Daniel quickly countered, "A mean of deciding who goes first to reveal their fetish"

"Ohhh, I get it" spoke Aika, smiling back at Daniel and Naomi in turn

Daniel pulled several different shaped dices from the pouch in to his hands and held it in front of Aika. "Pick one, that we will use"

Of all the choices Aika had, she went with just a plain, six side dice "Not exactly sure how they other's work" She said as she held up her choice.

Daniel smiled and silently and shook his head, the ladies had way to much to drink he reasoned while he put back the remaining dice in his hand in to the pouch.

"The highest roller, goes first" Daniel spoke as he rolled the dice and that came to a stop on the 2. Naomi, got up from her seat, with her first few steps being a bit unsteady, but regained her balance, walking over, "Excuse me" standing next to Daniel, motioning to make some room on the two-seat sofa.

Sitting hip to hip, with Daniel firmly squeezed in the middle of the two ladies, Naomi took the dice from Daniel's hand and rolled it on to the table, were it came to a stop on the 5 "Snap" Naomi promptly said, already concluding she would start first. Daniel scooped up the dice from the table and handed it to Aika. "16.6% chance you roll a six" Daniel told Aika, who threw the dice on to the table, where it kept spinning around for a little while before also turning up on the 5

"Phew" Naomi said, while Aika looked at Daniel, "What now?"

"To determine who of you girls go first, both roll off again against one another, same rules, highest roller goes first" Daniel responded.

Daniel grabbed the dice of the table again, he had the longest reach of the two anyhow, handing it to Naomi first

Naomi was quick to throw it and the dice ended coming up on the 3 this time. Daniel scooped up the dice, facing Aika "33% chance of rolling under it, 16% for a tie and 50% chance you roll higher" Daniel pointed out before handed her the dice

Aika glanced at Daniel for a moment, wondering how he knew those odds so easily, even though it's just plain math, Daniel knew this due his long history with pen & paper dice games.

Aika rolled the dice, that bounced off the table, having all three participants lean forward to see it's result, it came up on the 2.

"Ah snap, I go first" Aika sighed heavily, as she reached out to her glass of wine on the side table. A few quick sips and she eased back in to the sofa again, having two spectators to her fullest of attention.

A few more moments of silence and heavy sighs before she started with "Well now" ... "I've a fetish for big breasts", causing two jaws to drop on queue "really, really big breasts" Aika continued, causing two dropped jaws to drop even further "preferably my own, but I'm stuck with these two cherries" she joked, cupping her own bosom "The boob fairy only gave me these mere B cup filling cherries".

"Oh my god" was Naomi the first to respond, "I've the exact same fetish as you do dear, "Oh my god, how crazy is that". "Really? Your not yanking my chain, are you?" Aika was quick to ask, "No for real" as Naomi cupped her own bosom and gave them a firm squeeze, "The boob fairy as you put it, only granted me a nice D cup rack, but god I also wanted a really, really big rack, for I'm so turned on by seeing other more bustier woman"

Dumbstuck in the middle sat Daniel, who still was turning his head back and forth between Aika and Naomi, mouth wide open with amazement.

"What?" said Aika as she pushed Daniels his mouth to a closed position with her hand. Naomi now also facing Daniel expecting some kind of response

"What can I say" Daniel started, "I'm a guy" causing Aika to give him playful poke in the ribs, "Seriously now". "I'm dead serious" Daniel shot back at Aika, "It kind of comes naturally for us guys to have an interest in woman's breasts, for we don't have them ourselves or at least I believe most guys are wired that way". "I also have a fetish for woman with really, really big tits and not those stuffed full with silicon implants."

"This is amazing" Naomi said as she bent over to reached for the dice on the floor, "simply amazing" Naomi said again as she came back up with the dice in hand, "What now" She said as she faced Daniel "Do we roll off against one another or do all three of us roll again?"

"We can do either of them, but as Aika was the first to go, let Aika decide if she wants in on this next round or not" Daniel said to Naomi, turning to face Aika, awaiting a response.

"I'll watch you two roll first and eventual both of you will tell me your dirty little fetishes" Aika beaming a wide grin to both Daniel and Naomi while rubbing her hands.

Naomi threw the dice, that came up on the 4, Daniel scooped up the dice and threw it straight away, were it ended up spinning on the table briefly before coming up on the 3, it added some tension to there little game.

"Ok" Naomi started, looking back at Daniel and Aika who were once again all ears. "I've a fetish for lactation" Naomi spoke after a brief moment of silence Aika experienced her first jaw dropping moment, as Daniel and Naomi had the round before that. Daniel this time, also sat with open mouth again of amazement, but a little less, as this was yet again one of his fetishes and apparently so, he had wished for the ladies to share his fetishes as well.

"Oh my, you are in to drinking milk from woman's breasts" Aika spoke during the brief moment of silence, staring hard at Naomi with wide open eye's of amazement.

"Well yes, no, ... It's bit more complex" Naomi continued, rubbing her neck in the process. "I would like to be lactating myself, feeding a grown man or woman", switching her hand to cupping one of her breasts, plucking away through the fabric, pinching her own nipple.

"It adds to the fetish of really big breasts" Naomi continued, "you know, bigger breasts, the more milk kind of thinking"

"Oh this is so amazing" as Aika tilted her head back, speaking towards ceiling "I'm so all in this too you know, big milky breasts, it's a shame neither of us got knocked up yet"

"Exactly" responded Naomi, looking past them, starting in to the distance, "To bad it always ends with a baby" What had Aika nodding silently in agreement as well.

"So Daniel" Aika clamping on to his arm in excitement, "Tell us your little dirty fetish secret". Causing Naomi to snap out of her brief little staring trance and turned to face Daniel.

"You already shared two fetishes of mine with each other" Daniel started, "or at least more or less" he correct, "I'm in to lactating, being the one suckling on the teats, drinking the milk from a woman's breast and preferably a really, really big breast" he grinned

Naomi nodding with a smile, as she unaware continued to kneed and pluck away at her own nipple through the fabric of her baggy blouse.

"I've a fetish for the female body" Daniel started, but go interrupted by Aika "As do most men!" expecting Daniel to weasel himself out of it, ignoring Aika Daniel continued "Not simply voluptuous curves of a woman, but the more extreme curves" Daniel turned to face both Aika and Naomi to see them in silent staring with an open mouth towards Daniel. "Exceptionally wide hips, a really big firm round booty, still a relative slim waist, you know, pear shaped ... And of course with the previous fetishes, really, really big boobs and milk... Not exactly sure if Pear shape is still correct" Daniel finished, while giving his own question some more thought

"I'm so in love with you guy right now" Aika spoke as she broke the silence, wrapping herself around Daniel's arm "That is so me again"

Naomi, faced Daniel "I'm speechless ... again a perfect description of my fetish"

A few minutes of silence passed as Aika and Naomi cuddled against Daniel, "Who's next" Daniel asked, reaching for a pillow and the dice, placing the pillow strategically on his lap and on it the dice. Daniel needed some camouflage for he wasn't sure for how long he could hold it back.

"I'll go again" Aika was quick to jump, not even taking the dice, while she started pulling one arm back in to her long sleeved shirt "I've weird looking breasts!" while she pulling her other arm back in to her shirt.

Daniel wasn't sure for a moment were this was going, and if this was one of his other less pronounced fetishes or something from Aika her own entirely.

Aika pulled off her long sleeved shirt, revealing her bra, tossing the shirt to the other larger sofa. Daniel didn't exactly know where he should be looking, darting back and forth between Aika her eye's and her bra as she stood in front of them.

With a quick fluid motion, she pulled her bra outwards and upwards, causing her small breast to become exposed. "See, I've very a small breast, with a very large puffy round areolas and a thick nipple"

Daniel and Naomi looked with open amazement, as she undressed without any shame or embarrassment of being naked and exposed, while two pair of eye's were dead locked at her unusual breasts. Aika her breast were the size of a small orange or a mandarin with on top of it a small kiwi cut in half, that fully represented here putty areola and a thick perky nipple.

"God those are some really sexy puffy nipples" Naomi spoke under her own breath of amazement, "And how do you manage to conceal those tenting out?" Only to realizing she spoke out loud like she was drooling over a pair of oddly shaped breasts.

Aika reached in to her bra and with some effort pulled out some padding, with some sort of plastic on the other side, shaped in to the breast shape, they had been seeing through her clothing.

"I need these" holding up her padding "for else it looks like I've miniaturized circus tent covered up under anything tight"

"If I could get bigger breasts" Aike continued, as she started stuffing her nipple concealing padding back in her bra again "I don't want my tits to remain in the same size ratio, between boobs and puffy areola's, I would ..." as she briefly paused to pull her bra back over her breasts again and cover up, "I would simply like really, really big boobs, with a size-able areola covering the front puffing outwards with a big milk leaking teat"

"Hell yeah!" sounded Naomi, "Again, the exact same fetish, this is surreal"

Daniel only nodded in agreement, words were not needed, his face did most of the talking already.

"My turn now" Naomi promptly said, bring some relieve to Daniel, for he had two more fetish left and he wasn't very keen on mentioning this himself, for it felt a bit embarrassing.

"I like 'm big" Naomi said and let it sink in for a few seconds, "I like 'm big and creamy" she continued, where as Akia was following Naomi and nodding in agreement, Daniel played dumb, pretending to not know yet what she was describing. "I like 'm really, really big, creamy and filling" as she made a fist and grabbed her lower arm just above the elbow with her other hand. "Sadly they only come in rubber sized shapes, not even a well endowed black African American will meet my size fetish" She grabbed the empty wine bottle, looking at it and then grabbed the sake bottle from the floor and did the same. "This one more or less meet's my dirty mind fetish" as she held up the sake bottle that had a slightly large circumvent.

Daniel nodded, "Being bigger and... Creamier is something most guys wish for" as he continued to nod, "setting new measurement records and still pleasuring a woman with there tremendous size is a dream come true for most man, including myself" he smirked

A few minutes they set in silence, while the ladies rested against Daniel, staring in to the distance.

"Any more fetishes" Aika asked in the open.

"Well Daniel responded, "You ladies summed up a lot of my dirty minded fetishes" Causing Aikato give him a tighter squeeze around the arm she held, when he mentioned the word dirty.

"There is one more thing" Daniel went as Aika and Naomi awaited with eager excitement, while remaining snug up against him. Daniel paused briefly, struggling with how he would pick the right words to share his fetish and not come of as a freak.

"I'm in to big boobs, puffy areola and nipples and, ... and the whole milk thing" Daniel paused again while Naomi placed her hand on Daniels hand that was resting on top of the pillow "Please continue" she spoke silently.

"Well, ... When a woman becomes pregnant, many of those changes occur, ... Breast start to grow and lactate, they might even gain some extra weight that ends up in their booty, ... And with that growing belly it really adds to the extreme female curves for me" Another moment of silence fell when Daniel suddenly continued "And I can't help but wonder, ... what it would be like, to have sex with, ... To have sex with a pregnant woman in her final stages, when her belly is at it's biggest point and breast start to lactate" Both ladies remained in silence only secretly nodding in agreement "But it's just a fetish, I'm not really in to kids, it takes two to make a baby, seeing as how I'm single, and aging" Rolling his eye's "I count my odds to be very slim for this dirty fantasy of mine to come true."

"Pregnancy, without an actual baby" Naomi gave Daniel hand a firm squeeze, while looking at him "Who knows, some break through in science a few years from now."

"I wish" sighed Aika who was dreaming away of the idea against Daniels shoulder.

* * * Saturday - 3:40 * * *

The ladies exchanged a few more fetishes of there own, but nothing really shocking or absurd as Daniels fetishes were. It did make Daniel wonder how much of their own fetishes, the might have added to his own fetishes, would he not have made the wish.

A wish, the thought of it had Daniel thinking about the Relic again and of actually making there just shared dirty fetishes reality, it would be bizarre and on the extremes, would he go through with them. But how to get the ladies, in the idea of actually wishing for it. He had to try...

"Excuse me ladies" Daniel interrupting the ladies fetish conversation and stood up and walked towards the bedroom, to return a few minutes later with a thick dinner plate size stone object, that had 8 uncut jewels slotted in it, of which a few were shiny.

"What is that" Naomi was the first to ask,

"Something very old and mystical ... It's a relic of some kind, from a lost culture"

"Cool" Aika put in, not exactly sure what to make of it, as she reached out to touch one of the jewels.

"Sorry, no touching please, it's very old and brittle" Daniel said as he moved the relic slightly away from Aika approaching hand, "It's from an archaeology find and

I need to return it after the weekend, for I'm technically not supposed to be having this here"

Daniel took up his place again between the girls on the sofa, scooping up the pillow from the ground and placing it within his lap with the relic on top of it.

"Imagine what if" Daniel started, taking a glance at each of the ladies next to him. "What if this relic could grant each of you ladies a wish" Aika and Naomi smiled and Akia was quick to jump the gun "I know, I wish to be filthy rich"

Daniel flinched as a shock of fear shot through his body, fearing Akia just triggered a wish already. With a quick but calm enough glance at the relic, Daniel inspected the gems, without altering its position on the pillow, he could still see three bright sparkling gems as before. Removing his hands from the Relic securing the pillow.

"Yeah, that's a start but what about your other fetishes we spoke about"

"Oké" nodded Naomi, "I'll indulge myself, in your little game", holding out her hands in front of her, pushing her arm inwards and outwards, playing with the idea of how far her imaginary bosom would reach out. "I need something more physical to visualize this" She said and stood up, "Do you have an old baggy shirt I could use and maybe some braces?" Daniel looked towards the bedroom and nodded in its direction "Bedroom is in there, first closet door, is where I've my t-shirt, top shelves should hold some old ones. The bottom drawer could hold braces, but I hardly ever worn them, so it might no longer have those."

Naomi walked away towards the bedroom. Sound of a chair being dragged across the bedroom floor could be heard. Naomi return several minutes later, holding stack of shirts and a braces in hand, "The blue one, has an incorrect label, it's not my size and too big" Daniel put in as he recognized some of his old shirt he had not worn for a long time.

Too both Aika and Daniel there surprise, Naomi unbuttoned her baggy blouse and fully taken it off to reveal what was underneath. An impressive bra holding two cantaloupe sized melons in place in her D cup sized bra.

She was a bit on the chubby side, as she had a bit of a belly fat going, a bit more than Daniel, that she like Daniel, concealed with a baggy clothing.

Naomi still had a good pear figure going for her as her slightly wider hips flared out from her smaller waist.

As Naomi caught both of them staring at her, she gave her boobs a bit of up and down movement shake, before putting on the blue over-sized t-shirt.

While adjusting the braces to it's shortest possible settings, she attached the two front clamps to her jeans, but instead of one on each side, she connected both of them to the right side next to her zipper she wrapped it around her neck back down crossing and back to the opposite side of the zipper.

"I need stuffing" Naomi said, while collected the four pillows from the sofa's. Stuffing two in each half of her baggy t-shirt. The pillows were not really big and filling, "Not enough" She walked away, back in to the bedroom to return with two much larger pillows from Daniel's bed. She continued to stuff those in each half of her t-shirt, now with the help of Aika, for things kept falling out again, eventually giving her an incredibly large imaginary bosom. Through out some re-position of the pillows as well as stuffing the remainder of the shirt's in there and tucking the remainder of the blue shirt in her jeans, she created a pair of ridiculously rounded imaginary curves.

Again she held out her hands, this time tracing along the new dimensions out in front of her. Only tracing along the outside, unable to reach the actual front unless she compressed the pillows. She walked around with them, sat down with them in a chair. Until she finally nodded in agreement "This would be more or less the size I would want wish for"

Aika nodded in agreement, extending her own arms out in front of her, arms slightly spread apart, visualizing her own curves. When looking back at Naomi who had turned and was now displaying her side view "Looks like your pregnant from the side, most definitely with twins" Aika joked, "Quadruplets" Naomi responded, tapping her left followed by her right imaginary breasts, both ladies beamed each other wide smiles.

"How do we describe these dimensions" while Naomi measured with her hands of a single pillow stuffed boob. "Do you have a measuring tape?" Daniel got up, placing the pillow and relic on the side table in front of him and retreated to a hallway closet and started rummaging through his stuff

"Here is a measuring tape, but also this" As Daniel threw a gift wrapped package to Naomi, "What's this?" who caught it and then started to open taking off the gift wrapping paper. "It was for my 4 year old nephew's birthday, but I could not make it and I didn't get a chance to revisit them yet, so it's still here." Daniel sat back down on the sofa taking the pillow and relic from the table on to his lap again.

"A beach ball, Oh Nice" Naomi said as she tossed the measuring tape and sealed beach ball to Aika, "Help me out dear, will you" while she started to dig out one of her imaginary pillowed boobs

Aika took a quick glance at the package, reading out loud the label "20 inch beach ball", setting aside the measuring tape, followed by unwrapping the plastic sealed bag, quickly followed by blowing up the beach ball, what took a bit more effort, before helping Naomi stuff the inflated beach ball in to her baggy shirt along with the two sofa pillows to weight it down a bit. The imaginary beach ball sized boob, look a whole lot more realistic now that it was more round. With one hand she traced along the outside of the perfectly round sphere. "I so badly want this" Naomi tip toed.

"Can I try" Aika asked Naomi, "Sure"

Several minutes later they switched places with Aika now wearing the over-sized blue tshirt, bracers, stuffed with one big pillow to two small sofa pillows on one side and a beach ball along with two small sofa pillow to weight it down again on the other side.

Aika also tracing along the side of her beach ball side boob, they looked even bigger on her shorter and smaller frame "These are just perfect" Aika purred.

Naomi bit on her lip, giving something some thought, "Daniel, what do you think, should we wish for the exact same size or should I go a bit bigger according to our height and body size difference"

"It's you wish" Daniel answered smiling, "But what do you did you have in mind to get an accurate size difference?" Daniel asked, not entirely sure where Naomi was going.

"Height and weight", Naomi sad as she pulled out her phone.

"I'm 5'6 and Aika is?", "I'm 4'9" Aika answered

"I weight ... And Aika, how heavy are you", a movement of silence fell when Naomi looked up from her phone at Aika and Daniel

"You first sweetie" smirked Aika

Naomi rolled her eye's and started over again,

"I weight 170 pounds ... and yes am a good 20~25ish pounds to heavy for what I should weigh, happy now, Aika?", "115 pounds dear"

Some silence fell while Naomi was busy crunching numbers on her phone

"Lets see, we have about 15% height difference, and a good 45% in weight"

Some more phone tapping, "That would result in a 30% difference in size, 20 inch beach ball, plus 30% makes 26 inch" Naomi looked up from her phone "You good with this Aika?", Aika nodded her head.

"Oke, lets see" Daniel cut in "You wish for full round boobs with a 20 inch in diameter bust and 26 inch in diameter bust" while he looked at Aika and Naomi in turns "That produce milk, how much milk?", joined in union by both ladies "Lots of milk" Both smiling at each other for there perfect timing ending up with an out burst of laughter

"Be more specific ladies" Daniel continued once the ladies had stopped laughing.

"Can we do the same math trick again" Aika asked, "Difference in milk production" now looking at Naomi.

"We don't need to" Aika responded quickly "For example, If we say that 1/10 of our total boob mass comes from our milk, we should be producing different amounts of milk as my boobs will be bigger and their for also heavier."

"Brilliant, but is 10% high enough?" Aika wondered while scratching her head.

"Depends on how heavy our boobs become and that, I really don't know" as Naomi pounded over the idea how heavy the would become.

"Come on take a wild guess" Aika prodded back.

"Maybe 35 or 40 pounds each, I guess" Naomi wasn't sure how far off she would be, she hoped it wasn't by a huge margin.

"70 to 80 pounds, 10% ... 7 to 8 pounds worth of milk, a little over 1 gallon"

Daniel, Aika and Naomi both visualized how much 1 gallon of breast milk actually was, quite a lot when Aika squeaked "Lets do 15%"

Naomi briefly considered it and nodded in agreement, as they both turned to Daniel.

"Oke, lets continue, ...You wish for full round breasts with a 20 inch in diameter bust" looking at Aika, "and 26 inch in diameter bust" looking at Naomi, "That produces lots of milk, making up to be 15% of the total breast mass, with large puffy areolas and a big nipple ... How does that sound?"

"With an exceptionally large" Naomi started but go cut of by Aika, "no with freaking ridiculously large puffy areolas and huge nipples only an adult suckling can feed from", "You naught, naught girl" Naomi smirked back, and turned and nodded to Daniel's

"Once more, ...You wish for full round breasts with a 20 inch in diameter bust" looking at Aika, "and 26 inch diameter bust" looking at Naomi, "That produces lots of milk, good for 15% of the total breast mass, with freaking ridiculously large puffy areolas and huge nipples only an adult suckling can feed from"

"That's it" Aika beaming a wide smile, "make the wish, I want them badly" while rubbing her own breasts, through her bra

"Ok" Daniel responded as he placed his hand on the relic, making ready to repeat it all over.

"What about being able to carry them" Naomi questioned, "They will be really heavy", "They most certainly will" Daniel nodded in agreement, "What about if I add, ... And they shall carry them with ease and with pride"

"Works for me" Aika quickly put in, now looking at Naomi, eager to get this wish going, that had made her panties so wet.

Naomi nodded again in agreement toward Daniel, who continued "One last thing that comes to mind, how about we grow them over a short period" While gazing at the clock "It's 4am in the morning ladies, so you can grow in to them quite literally.

Two wide grinning faces and eager nodding heads told Daniel enough.

"So 6 to 8 hours of sleep, wake up, breakfast and enjoy the growth for another 8 or so hours?" Daniel thought out loud "A full day" Aika responded, "Yeah 24 hours" Naomi answered as well.

"Last time, ..." while placing his hands back on the pillow "You wish that, over a period of 24 hours Aika and Naomi's their breast will grow a pair of tremendously large full and firm breasts, with a 20 inch in diameter bust for Aika and 26 inch in diameter bust for Naomi, that produces lots of milk, good for 15% of the total breast mass, with freaking ridiculously large puffy areolas and huge nipples only an adult suckling can feed from and they shall carry them with ease and with pride"

"That's it" spoke Aika again, "I like the added tremendously large breasts part" Smiled Naomi

Daniel took hold of the relic again, this time with both hands, took a few good breaths and spoke "I wish that that over a period of 24 hours Aika and Naomi's their breast will grow a pair of ridiculous large full and firm breasts, with a 20 inch in diameter bust for Aika and 26 inch in diameter bust for Naomi, that produces lots of milk, good for adding 15% to the total breast mass, with freaking ridiculously large puffy areolas and huge nipples only an adult suckling can feed from and they shall carry them with ease and with pride"

Aika and Naomi cuddling against Daniel again, "If only wishes came true" Naomi sad with a heavy sigh

Daniel looked at the Relic to see only two of the uncut jewels now shining brighter than the other five.

A moment of silence fell as the two ladies snuggled up against Daniel for a little while, "I wish I had a clean and dry pair of panties" Aika suddenly said that ended with the three bursting out in laughter.

* * * Saturday - 4:25 * * *

"You ladies take my bed, I'll crash on the sofa" Daniel offered, while Aika and Naomi said there good nights along with associated kisses before they made their way into the bedroom.

5 minutes later Daniel had setup his improvised sleeping sofa, fully undressed to his boxers, looking at his own tented erection, when Naomi suddenly walked in to living room with only her panties on.

Daniel could not help but stare at her breasts, was not expecting Naomi to be half naked exposing her busty D cup sized bosom

Yet he could not help but visualize that those cantaloupe sized boobs, bare and naked, would soon look more like Honeydew melons. "Sorry" Naomi said "We forgot our pillows" while she collected the large pillows the previously had used as imaginary boobs of the floor and walked back again calling back "Sleep tight". Daniel stood there for a brief moment longer, wondering if Naomi actually saw his tenting erection or not, before climbing in to his own improvised bed.

* * * Saturday - 08:55 * * *

Morning came way to early for Daniel, not having closed the blinds before he went to bed allowed the sun to shine in to his eye's waking him up early.

9am, at least a good 4 to 5 hours of sleep Daniel reasoned.

Some aspirins and a good amount of water, got him going, he wondered in what state the ladies would wake up in, both had a lot more to drink then he had, but then again, he didn't need to drink a lot to get drunk.

Quietly Daniel cleaned up the empty bottles and dirty dishes along with some clutter from the floor, gift wrapping paper, measuring tape and Aika's discarded longed sleeved shirt.

He got dressed, and wanted to go out to buy some breakfast along with some other groceries and possible some more alcohol, for it was all gone and the weekend on just had started.

His wallet however was in his computer bag, what was in the bedroom with the ladies. He didn't want to enter and get a sneak peak and ruin the surprise, but he knew he had to, else he could no go and get breakfast.

So quiet as a mouse, he tipped toed in to the bedroom, got his backpack, retrieved his wallet and turned to move out, making sure to keep is back to the girls and not facing them.

He however forgot about the full length closet door mirror that gave him a glimpse of a breast that peeking out from underneath the blankets. Trying to suppress the image of what he just seen, he made his way out of the bedroom, quickly and quietly.

Quietly he went out the front door while catching a glimpse of the time 9:35am. The supermarket was around the corner, a few minutes away.

* * * Saturday - 09:40 * * *

While loading up his shopping cart, with extra bread, eggs and other breakfast groceries than normal, he had more mouths to feed. He moved along through the aisle ignoring most of the good, eventually halting at the liqueur section. He considered not buying anything new, they had plenty to drink last night.

Moving on collected some more groceries, when he halted at a pyramid stack of wine bottle boxes, the same red wine brand the ladies consumed last night so very quickly. Buy 1 get 1 for free read the sign, "Half price" Daniel spoke to himself, reconsidering his previous decision. "Ahw f'it" as he placed two boxes, for a total of 12 wine bottle under his cart.

As Daniel turned in to the vegetable section, he could not help but seeing that brief glimpse of a breast he saw, that seemed to reappear as the looked at the round fruits and vegetables. And this sparked an idea of sorts, he loaded up a single lemon, orange, grapefruit, cantaloupe, honeydew melon, two different sized watermelon's one a fair bit larger then the other.

When Daniel was about to pull out of the fruit and vegetable section, he spotted a really huge picnic watermelon on display, not for sale but more as prop, as it was ridiculously big, nearly twice the size of the largest watermelon he had placed in his cart.

A good 15 minutes later Daniel was walking out of the supermarket, with a full cart of groceries, along with a second in tow. This one was pushed by a bag boy containing the huge picnic watermelon. He had persuaded the manger for an addition 50 buck tip as well as paying a whopping 100 for the huge picnic watermelon, that wasn't a prop, but real. The supermarket manager allow him to take the two shopping cart's and extra hand with him. Despite the pain he felt now in his wallet, he was smiling nonetheless.

Daniel came home a little over 10am, quietly bringing the groceries in to his house. When he carried in the huge picnic watermelon he wondered what it weighted or let alone what two of these would weigh in total.

Daniel ordered the fruits in order of size on to his bar that stood between the kitchen and the breakfast table, along with the beach ball, sitting between the huge picnic watermelon and the largest watermelon in the line up.

He made a pot of coffee and had a quick light bite to eat, wanting to have breakfast with the girls, if and when they woke up.

* * * Saturday - 11:05 * * *

About 45 minutes had passed and the ladies were still asleep, Daniel's could no longer resist it anymore as he had to get another sneak peak.

He tip toed quietly back in to the bedroom again, pretending to be fetch his wallet. He had told himself he would only look at them through the reflection of the mirror again, he turned towards the mirror, this time a bit slower, again seeing the same breast as before, only a little bit bigger he thought, as the blankets lay higher on top. Or he reasons they had just been pulled back a bit more, instead of the breast having grown out from underneath the blankets.

Daniel didn't exactly know, but it was turning him on nonetheless. Despite the lack of light, Daniel was certain he was looking at one of Naomi her breasts, equally certain he was about the once cantaloupe sized breasts, had grown well in to the range of honeydew melon sized breasts, they where growing.

He finally tore his gaze from the mirror reflection as it dawned to him, minutes had passed by. He tipped toed back out of the bedroom. Waiting some more for the girls to wake up and have another coffee.

Another 45 minutes passed away and still no sign from the girls. Daniel could not resist waiting much longer and went in to the bedroom again, this time no wallet as an excuses, nor looking in to the mirror. He sat down, simply to observe and marvel in the moment.

The blankets had moved again, sadly this time covering more of the breast, now only showed a little of itself, there wasn't really much to look at. But as before, Daniel was certain it was growing bigger.

* * * Saturday - 11:50 * * *

More time passed while he sad still in the far corner of the bedroom, his mind drifted off to the relic again, along with the two uncut jewels that still appeared brighter then the others, two potential wishes remaining.

A part of him, didn't want to go through the long process of spinning the idea of wishes and getting the girls all hyped up about their now shared dirty minded desires and fetishes. The first wish was accidental, but things worked out really good along the way, Aika and Naomi even added some additional changes of their own creation or were those all of his own creation, he didn't really know or care.

The best part was the whole growth process, he would not have considered it, if it wasn't for the fact it took so long and he was very tired... This slowly growing of the girls was a really big turn on for Daniel.

Daniel however had his mind set of having sex with them, but wasn't sure if they would willingly go through with it. He really wanted to reserve one wish, just in case something backfired and they would not consent to having sex with him. He really hoped he didn't need to make a wish and enslave their ladies to force them to have sex with him.

Daniel also hoped that the monster cock fetish would seal the deal and win their hearts and minds over, but he also wanted them to have more extreme female curves in the booty and hip department and he could have only one, would something backfire.

Daniel silently pondered over a possible solution of the changes he could consider while starting at a gradually growing breast that revealed more and more of its self. It was much like looking at a time piece and following the small arm, changes too slow to see, but it was still exciting enough for Daniel.

"Ehmmmeuu" moaned Aika as she was the first waking up and possibly tried to turn around or something as he could hear movement. More moaning followed as the sheets got pulled even further back from the breast Daniel has been keeping track of, became more exposed revealing half an areola and nipple. Exposed to the cooler bedroom temperature, Daniel could see the already impressively big nipple grow erect. He felt his own erection growing in his jeans, responding to the scene in front of him. He needed to leave quickly.

Daniel had barely slipped out of the bedroom, when he heard Aika's voice shriek loud, with both excitement and fear. "Oh my God!!! It's a dream!, it's a dream!, It's a dream!" she kept on repeating it over a few more times before Naomi's voice merged with hers "Holly cow, ... This this is surreal!"

Letting a few seconds pass before Daniel knocked loud on the door, pretending to have been alerted by their awaking only just, "Aika, Naomi you alright in there?" while pushing open the door a little bit further, but dared not to look in. "Get your ass in here Daniel, Now!" Naomi boomed in response.

Daniel feared the worst as he was called to come in to the room which such an outburst, that he would catch hell from Naomi and he would have to sacrifice another wish to make fixes.

Daniel opened the door, and was faced down by two wide open extremely busty ladies who both had grown much bigger than he had visualized. Their breasts were surely affected by gravity, they were wider and a bit flatter, but still retained much of the firmness and roundness they wished for. They both were within the size range of watermelon category size breasts already.

Naomi leaning on her elbows in a semi-upright position on the right side of the bed, her breast was most defiantly still larger than Aika's, but what size difference that they used to have, mattered very little compared to their new size that they both were now. Naomi watermelon sized breasts lay apart from one another, with two legs sticking out from in between.

Aika lay with her back turned to Naomi and her two watermelon sized breasts spread apart to the side in front of her, resting on the left side of the bed. Her frame looked really small for those heavy boulders, she faced down her own huge breasts, repeating "It's a dream!, It's a dream!" over and over again.

"Daniel!" Naomi shrieked, "Please tell me this isn't a dream, pinch me. Please!"

Daniel walking towards Naomi, not daring to touch her watermelon sized breasts, "Come on already pinch me" Naomi hurried him on.

Daniel grabbed some skin from her upper arm and gave it a twist "Aaauuuhw, that hurt", Daniel quickly released, while Naomi started rubbing her now sore skin.

Daniel took a step back, not sure what would happen next, when Naomi sighed heavily "Oh my god, ... Oh My God!" Naomi went on, grabbing Aika by the arm, pulling Aika towards her and then locking her arm around her small waist and further pulling her in until Aika's back was firmly pressed in to her own left watermelon size breast and shoulder. She hugged her tightly.

"It's not a dream" Aika spoke again, "I know dear, it's not a dream" Naomi replied, but Aika remained unresponsive and said again "It's a dream"

"Daniel, a damp cloth please, ... she doesn't appear to be fully aware and awake yet"

Daniel dove in to the bathroom, grabbing a small washing cloth what he drenched with tap water. A quick wring to get rid of the excess water and Daniel was back in the bedroom handing Naomi the damp cloth.

Aika gradually snapped out of her shock effect and came back to reason and awoken state.

"Oh my god, they are huge", was Aika's first response, "please tell me this isn't a dream", Naomi who continued applying the damp cloth to Aika, "This isn't a dream, dear, it's for real"

Aika's hands snapped to her head, along with a sudden gasp of air "We, we" she rambled, "Oh my god, we are growing. Are we not?" slightly turning to face, Naomi, not even noticing Daniel standing at the end of the bed, switching on the lights. "We are growing" she said again to Naomi. "Yes dear, ... And that's not even the best part of it" Naomi smiled, Aika only held a blank gaze in return still overtaken by the initial shock.

"We have a good 16 more hours to grow, and this" waving a gesture motion over their big watermelon sized breasts, "This is the results of only 8 hours of growth"

Daniel was relieved, things didn't backfire on him, it went smooth, maybe even too smooth. Both ladies were exceptionally happy with the fact the wishes actually worked. What made him wonder if making wishes was another fetish of his, that he shared with the girls with his first wish.

* * * Saturday - 12:25 * * *

Getting the ladies on to her feet for the first time and seeing them walking around was hilarious to see, especially for Aika who never had large breasts, was light on her feet and now had two watermelons sized breasts hanging down her small frame.

Turning around wasn't as easy anymore with the added extra weight, she had to move around much slower and more controlled.

About an hour later, the three were sitting at the breakfast table, digesting the breakfast they ate, while enjoying a cup of coffee or tea. Both Aika and Naomi wearing one of Daniel's regular shirts, for neither of them would fit in any of their previous clothing no more, except for their jeans.

"So" Naomi said, breaking the silence "What are we going to explore next" when Daniel felt Naomi's foot, softly rub along his lower leg, gradually moving upwards, brushing up only slightly inwards along his upper leg, but going no further. Daniel was relieved, that was the extent of Naomi's reach, her new watermelon sized breasts forced her to sit further back from the table.

"Well about that" while Daniel gave both ladies a good long look, "You girls liked 'em really, really big, creamy and filling", Naomi biting on her lip nodding her head with a naughty look, Aika said nothing, but her excited eyes revealed enough. "I would like to become that fantasy of yours" causing Aika to let sound a playful glee of excitement, "However, I don't want to become too big and end up not being able to have sex at all"

Daniel reached for the empty sake bottle that was standing on the bar behind him, placing it on the table, causing eyes to open even wider in excitement, "Neither of you ladies can actually fit something this thick inside of you" He stated

A few moments of silence passed and the excitement levels lowered in expectations.

"I've tried a soda can once" Aika put in, laying her thoughts out on the table.

"Tried a wine bottle once" Naomi added, "It was a painfully tight fit"

Daniel didn't expect either of the girls to be this open or having experimented with these objects before.

Naomi grabbed the sake bottle, "I so want to be able to fit this thing inside me" giving it another long yearning look, before placing it back on the table. "Can't we just wish for it?" Aika questioned "We could" Daniel answered, "But we have only two wishes left" before realizing what he shared out loud with the ladies.

Daniel, Aika and Naomi remained in silence while thinking about the problem, when suddenly Aika bolted up in her chair, "Look" Pointing across from her to Naomi at her bosom. Naomi trying to understand what Aika was pointing at, not seeing anything unusual from her point of view, except for her own watermelon size breasts, hidden under Daniel's shirt. Daniel also looking, not seeing either what Aika was pointing at.

"Your breasts, your leaking" Aika squealed with joy, causing Daniel now to see the darker toned fabric. Naomi reached out to her nipples to touch on her milk damp shirt. Aika did the same, but didn't find the same results as she had hoped she would, "Darts" she cursed.

Naomi pulled up her shirt exposing her nipple and pinched and pulled on her nipple. A few thin streams of milk shot out over the breakfast table. Naomi milked a few more thin sprays out of her thumb sized nipple, but it died down to only a few drops quickly. Naomi smiled wildly, not minding it was only a little bit of milk, for it was a start of things yet to come. She repeating the same for her other nipple have also only a few sprays worth of milk in them, she lowered her shirt back down of her watermelon sized breasts looking back pleased at her big watermelon sized breasts

A quick few minutes of silence passed, when Naomi finally took notice of the bar and the line up of fruits ordered in size, on the bar behind Aika and Daniel "What are those for" pointing at the bar

Causing both Aika and Daniel to turn and face the bar "Oh that, ... It was a bit of weird idea as I was doing groceries, this morning, I didn't expect you ladies grow this quick. ... I already had a sneak peak, while you were still sleeping" he quickly added

"And to do what with them" Aika questioned while facing Daniel.

"To compare sizes with and maybe eat later, I don't know, it was just a weird idea from my weird brain" Daniel answered, getting the sense it was as stupid idea, "I like it, when do we start" Naomi responded, returning smile on Daniel's face again.

Let me first clean up the breakfast table, so we have an empty table to use.

* * * Saturday - 13:35 * * *

Daniel finished cleaning up the breakfast table and had placed the cantaloupe and honeydew melon as well as both the different sized watermelons on to the table

"The idea was simple" Daniel started explaining "place a your bare breasts on the table and find a matching sized fruit".

Aika acted first, by pulling of her shirt and lifting her breasts on to the table "Ayyeee! That cold to the touch" she shrieked when placing her breasts down genitally. Daniel place the honeydew melon next to her left breast and the smaller watermelon next to her right.

Naomi had pulled of her shirt as well, placing them next to watermelon right from Aika

Daniel placed the largest watermelon next to Naomi right breast and stepped back taking in the sights.

Both of them were not quite big enough to match the size of the smaller, yet still large watermelon, the girls exchanged glance of joy as the looked and marveled over their own impressive sizes.

"Do you have a mirror" Aika question Daniel, who nodded his head in return, walking away from the table

Daniel return with a long hallway mirror enclosed in a wooden frame.

He tilted it horizontally and placed it slightly tilled backwards on the table across from the ladies, who stared with wide open eye's and mouths at their own reflection.

"So Daniel" Naomi asked as she patted the smaller watermelon to her left, "How long do you figure it will take use to start to out grow this one, ... and how long for this one" now patting the largest watermelon. Aika and Naomi exchanged glances and drawing wide grins of approval, while Daniel was scratching his beard, searching for an answer.

"Oh I don't know, 1 or 2 hours for the smaller watermelon and a good 4 or 5 hours for the bigger one" The girls again exchanging glances of happiness.

Daniel returned the mirror back in to the hallway, where it hung on the wall. When he returned Aika was probing and measuring around her areola.

"What are you doing" Daniel asked, "I'm wondering how big and puffy my areolas are" Aika responded "I need a good side view for that".

Daniel smiled beckoning Aika to stand up, grabbing the cantaloupe and walking around to the table in front of Aika. Daniel held the cantaloupe melon in front of Aika puffy areola, looking around it from several angles before pressed it firmly in to her breast, until her full areola vanished. "Ok." he said while taking the melon with him back to the kitchen where he cut about 2/5 from it. Daniel walked back and grabbed the smaller watermelon turning it sides ways and placing the sliced of cantaloupe on the end and holding it for Aika and Naomi to see. "Perfect" responded Aika who had a wide smile, while exchanging glances with Daniel and Naomi.

* * * Saturday - 13:50 * * *

The trio, retreated back to the living room, after enjoying eating a good portion of the cantaloupe, that Daniel had cut up to smaller piece.

When Daniel joined the ladies, he found Aika sitting on the floor in front of the side table while studying the relic that had been laying on the pillow, where it has been since last night.

Daniel realized that at any given time Aika or Naomi could have taken it and made a wish. Walking over to Aika casting a quick glance at the uncut jewels to still count two bright jewels. Tapping Aika on the shoulder offering her a hand to get up, she accepted and both sat down on the two-seat sofa.

"I've been thinking" Aika started, "What if we have been looking at the too big cock problem the wrong way", both Daniel and Naomi looking at Aika, keen to learn what she intended "Why not just make it grow bigger, until its the ideal size."

"But we still need to specify how big" Daniel responded, still not exactly sure what Aika was getting at, "Not necessarily" Aika was quick to respond back, leaving Daniel and Naomi still guessing, where she was getting at.

"Wishes are magic are they not" Aika continued, trying to make sense, "specify a trigger, an effect, a duration and have it return back to its normal size"

Daniel and Naomi suddenly aware of what Aika meant and all the new doors she opened with this new different approach.

A good 90 minutes had passed as they discussed the new approach, coming up with multiple new idea on how to make it work, freely discussing idea's some more kinky and dirtier then the other. Something they would normally not have shared so openly with one another.

"My breast feel a bit bloated" Aika said halting the discussion "unpleasant even" As she rubbed across here round spheres. "The same here" Naomi responded also rubbing across her round spheres "Milk?" Daniel questioned in response.

Aika pulled up Daniels shirt, that was more tightly wrapped around them, exposing a single large watermelon sized breast. "Suck!" Aika ordered Danial, who looked up in surprise, exchanging glances with Naomi and Aika, to see two serious smiling faces. He didn't hesitate and latched on to Aika her large nipple and started sucking.

Aika responded with a moan of pleasure, as she felt her first milk flow out of her. Daniel sucked eagerly as he tasted sweat milk, he continued to suck for a few minutes, before releasing for it air. "That felt sooo goood" Aika moaned as she reached down to her own nipple, gently milking it. Several intense spray's of milk blasted from her nipple, spraying all over and beyond the side table that stood across from them.

Naomi pulled up her shirt as well, giving a milking pull on the large nipples as well, equally blasting an equally intense blast of spraying milk from her nipples, also over the side table and over it. "Wow" she responded.

Daniel placed his hand on Aika her hand and nipple, as another blast sprayed right in to it. "Please ladies, my living room can't handle this much milk" while Daniel looked down on to his carpet.

"What do you suggest" Naomi asked, as Daniel considered their newly created problem.

"The bathroom" Daniel was quick to respond, Naomi rose from the large sofa promptly followed by Aika

* * * Saturday - 15:25 * * *

5 minutes later Aika and Naomi were kneeling on a pile of towels, while resting there breast on to the edge of the bathtub, as they gleefully sprayed blast after blast of milk in to it tub. Another 5 minutes passed and they where still very much at it giggling as the were engaged in girl to girl talk.

Daniel, briefly stood there and marveled at the sight, when and idea came to mind. "Maybe I should go out and buy you ladies some milking equipment, to help with this", resulting both Aika and Naomia looking over there shoulder, responding with eagerly "Yes please" and "Good thinking".

Daniel scooped up his backpack, removing his notebook along with some other stuff he shook out of his pack on to the floor in the corner.

Gathered a few more things and went out the door.

* * * Saturday - 17:10 * * *

Almost two hours passed before Daniel returned, walking out of hallway in to the living room, while holding up two large bags, he expected to be greeted by two busty ladies, but they where not there to greet him.

A burst of laughter came from his bedroom or most likely from the bathroom it self.

Daniel set down his backpack and went on to the bathroom, along with the two shopping bags.

"Ladies, I come bearing gifts" Daniel announced as he entered the bathroom, expecting to find Aika and Naomi, still milking.

They were not and instead they were now sitting in his very spacious bathtub facing one another, two pair of floating breasts, exposing only a small portion of them above the water surface. Daniel could not see much as the water was milky white. "That much milk" he heard himself say out loud, causing the ladies to burst in to laughter. "No, No, we added water, come on seriously" Aika responded snickering with laughter.

"How long have you been milking?" Daniel followed up, partially relieved to hear they added water. "Maybe about 10 or 15 more minutes, after you left" Naomi added, setting Daniel's mind at ease.

"So what did you bring us" Aika promptly asked, leaning over on the side a little inspecting the bags. Daniel put down one bag in front of him, while placing the other behind him. He retrieve an automated breast pump from the bag, an image on the box showed tubing, a suction cup what was placed over the nipples and a drainage tube leading on to a small bottle. "I think we might need bigger bottles for these" Aika sad, "Yeah we do" Daniel responded "The bottle rings have are same size as our regular bottles, allowing us to exchange them for something much bigger"

"What more did you bring" Aika eager to know what was in other bag, behind Daniel.

"Well, ..." Daniel started, while he switched bags and set down a much larger square shaped bag. "I figured those suction cups milking your nipples might end up becoming too small, so I went looking for bigger ones, ... They however don't exist and had to go to places I never, ever expected to go"

Both ladies eagerly awaiting to learn what was in the larger square bag and where Daniel went to.

He reached in to the bag and pulled out two much larger suction cups
"These come from a sex shop, they have the same fittings as the breast pumps tubing, I already tested this" as he motioned towards the box that wasn't sealed anymore.

"Thanks," Naomi responded kindly, "What more do you have in the big bag for us"

Daniel smiled and continued on telling his adventure "While I was in the store some shopper overheard, my conversation with the store owner, as I tried to find something better", "As I left the store he approached me and asked me if I was looking for a high performance breast milking machine".

"I was a bit taken away, not realizing he was in the store with me and overheard our conversation", "but I did say yes", "He let me to a some BDSM store, down some back alley" Daniel pulled a large square black box, that had a top lid from the bag, "there I found this"

He sat it down and opened up the lid, the girls leaning over the bathtub edge peaking in to it, were they could see some sort of device, lots of black tubing and long metallic cones at the end of the tubing and some glass shielded container that had 4 tubes attached to it. "It's a small portable, dairy cow milking machine, it's new and I've have 15 days to return it before my credit card gets billed for 600 bucks" Daniel finished, looking at the girls for approval.

"Oh wow, can't wait to try that thing" Naomi said while Aika was bouncing up and down in the bathtub of excitement, causing milky waves of water to splash over the sides.

Daniel left the ladies, to do a quick wash down and to dry off, while he retreated back to the living room, awaiting their return.

* * * Saturday - 17:25 * * *

About 15 minutes passed when the ladies walked back in to the living room, where they spotted Daniel standing behind the breakfast table, with the largest watermelon placed in the middle of the table, the inflated beach ball and huge picnic watermelon lay on the ground next to it. The hallway mirror was also standing next to him leaning against the bar "Ladies if you please"

Naomi and Aika smiled eagerly and gently walked over to the table, with each step the took, causing a wobble, followed by a bounce and ending with a sway as the approach the table, they were also visually filling and stretching Daniel's shirts much more than before.

Aika and Naomi, pulled up there shirts some what, exposing the bottom halve of there breasts, before placing them on to the breakfast table, where they followed by pulling the shirt fully back and over there heads, pushing it on to there backs, but didn't undo the sleeves causing the shirt the ride high between there shoulders

Daniel placed the hallway mirror horizontally on to the table again, tilting it slightly back. The trio marveled with awe, while inspecting their growing assets comparing it to the large watermelon, between them. Naomi's larger watermelon sized breast, out matched it's size by a good amount, while Aika wasn't that far behind to match it's size.

Daniel sat down the mirror, removed the larger watermelon and placed the 20inch beach ball between them and setup the mirror again.

The trio looked and marveled again in silence, but something was off.

The 20inch beach ball, was a good deal larger than there large watermelons sized breasts that lay out in front of them, but it wasn't that much bigger either.

"Daniel?" Naomi questioned, "How long you think before, Aika reaches this size" Daniel, thought about it and came up with guessing another 2 or 3 hours, without responding yet. But the girls would be growing until about 4am and that was a good 10 hours away.

He could not make sense of this, setting aside the hallway mirror and took the beach ball in hand, checking the rubbery valve, pulling it open, blowing several blows or air in to it, causing the beach ball to protest somewhat as it's stretched even bigger. Closing the valve again, without losing any air. He placed it back down between Aika and Naomi their large watermelon size breasts and looked at it again.

It was only a bit bigger, but Aika still only need about 2 or 3 more hours of growth to match it.

"Something isn't right, for I'm guessing Aika has about 2 or 3 more hours to go" "I'm thinking the same thing here, but why are we growing bigger when clearly specified our dimensions"

Daniel didn't know the answer to that as he was starching his beard again.

"Did we measure this?" asked Naomi looking at Aika, who was given the measuring tape and beach ball back then. "Yes" Aika responded, but as she thought about it "Actually, ..."

Daniel and Naomi were both now looking at Aika,
"Actually no, the package had 20inch printed on it, so I didn't measure"

"Do we still have the package?" Naomi turn to Daniel, who promptly walked over to the trashcan, to return with the printed label, that indeed read 20inch beach ball.

Daniel grabbed out his phone and started Googling for the product, ending up with other search results, what revealed the problem.

"Fuck, It's the advertisement name, deflate the beach ball please" asked Daniel, while walking away to the hallway storage closet, to return shortly with the measuring tape in hand.

Deflating the beach ball took a little bit time and when Daniel took the now fully deflated beach ball from Aika, he flattened it out even further, creating a long oval shape, that matched up with the colored patches, looking like a pointier American Foot ball. Taking the measuring tape in hand, measuring from valve to bottom, reading 20 and a half inch from the measuring tape.

"This is the 20inch they advertise, when inflated it's about 15inch, that's 33% smaller" Daniel continued, "So your both going to end becoming 33% bigger than you had imagined"

"I'm so sorry" Aika said turning to face Naomi, with red teary eye's "It's alright dear" Naomi said, while pulling her breasts from the table to embraced Aika from the side, who started crying even more.

Daniel retreated to the kitchen while Naomi comforted Aika along with some girl to girl talk.

Few minutes later Aike spoke again "I need a drink!", followed by all three bursting out in to laughter.

* * * Saturday - 17:50 * * *

The trio had ordered food, shortly after opening the first wine bottle for the evening. They food delivery arrived on time and was quickly consumed, as the party of three ate it at the breakfast table. A second bottle of wine got opened when the ladies retreated back to the living room, with Daniel quickly cleaned up the table, to join a few minutes later, joining the conversation the girls had going.

* * * Saturday - 19:20 * * *

During one of the many conversation they had going, Naomi interrupted it "I think, I need to have my breasts milked again", "Think so too" Aika added smiling while rubbing over her own breasts.

Daniel took it upon him to fetch, the portable dairy cow milking machine and set it down on the other side table across from Naomi, on full display for everyone to see, while Aika joined Naomi on the large sofa.

Both ladies had pulled up there now really stretched and moderately tight shirts, just high enough to expose there rather large nipples.

Daniel turned on the milking machine, that came to life, suction could be heard on the outer ends of the teat cups. The machine was humming but not too loud, so they could continue having there conversation.

Both Aika and Naomi eagerly awaited the teat cup's, to be applied to there nipples, what Daniel did first to Aika her left breast, were it firmly latched on to causing Aika to let out little moan of pleasure. Milk started flowing in to the center chamber at a steady flow, Daniel followed up by latching on the other teat cup to Aika bare nipple, walked around the side table to connect Naomi.

A steady stream of milky white fluids kept flowing into the center chamber. Both Aika and Naomi were enjoying their nipple massage the machine was giving them while being milked.

* * * Saturday - 19:35 * * *

Shortly after Daniel sat back down, Aika started a new topic of conversation again.

"About that wish, we have been brainstorming about this early afternoon" Daniel and Naomi both smiled as they listened to Aika, she have been bring up the topic multiple times now during there previous conversation.

"If we go with a magical effect, activated by specified trigger, an effect to occur, a duration and have it return back to it's normal size after a set period of time" briefly interrupting as she took a sip from her red wine.

Aika brushed softly over the upper half of her very large watermelon size breasts before continuing. "What if we use the milk from our breasts as the trigger" only briefly looking up to see Daniel wide eyed facial expression of approval

"That is sooo Hot!" Naomi responded in approval, "What more do we need" excitedly shifting around in her seat.

"The effect should be that it stimulates and erection of Daniel's cock along with it growing, thicker and longer, equal to the amount of fluids he drank from our breasts"

"Viagra included" Daniel spoke, while he was already visualizing how the effects would play out, while listening to Aika, who didn't stop there. "Daniel can control how much milk he drinks, limiting it's maximum size.", briefly interrupted again by another sip from her wine. "Or we could put in a statement to never allow it to grow bigger then to who he is making love to can handle", "And maybe have any addition milk he drinks enhance his volume of cream he can put out himself"

"Absolutely brilliant Aika! What do you think Daniel" Naomi asked, "Just perfect", he said as he stood up to retrieve his backpack and from it the relic
Daniel returned with relic in hand grabbing a small pillow for his lap and placing the relic on top of it.

"We are missing duration and when it's shrinks back down again" Daniel asked as he faced Aika as well as Naomi.

"For as long as you can sustain the erection and after loosing it for more then 15 minutes" Aika was quick to add, who had clearly been occupied with this for a long time

"Lets sum things up" "I wish that when I consumes milk, directly form Aika or Naomi their breasts, my cock will become sexually stimulated and becomes erect, while growing bigger in thickness and length, equal to how much milk I consumed from their breasts, additionally I will never grow bigger then to who I'm making love to and how much she can actually handle, any addition milk consumed will enhance my volume of sperm I can ejaculate equal to the amount consumed, the erection will last for as long as I can sustain it, shrinking to my previous size when not erected any more for more then 15 minutes."

Aika nodded eagerly in approval, "that's gonna be a lot of cream" Naomi commented.

Daniel thought about it and nodded in agreement. While he though about while looking down at the relic that he was holding showing one uncut jewel remained shiny, while releasing the relic

"It appears I already wished for it" Daniel announced, looking up back at the ladies.

A loud "Click!" sounded as the milking machine switched off. The center chamber had filled to it's maximum capacity, causing the teat cups to lose it's suction and means to hold on, until they popped of falling onto the carpet.

Both Aika and Naomi's nipples looked a fair amount bigger as before the teat cups were attached, they have been stimulated and grown erect, through out the milking process.

Aika reached for her own nipple, giving it one more milking pull, causing an intense streams of milk to spray out in front of her.

"not fully done yet, it seems", while Naomi did the same test, also causing intense stream of milk to erupt from her nipple, "Good" Naomi smiled, while turning to face Aika "We will need it to confirm the wish", Aika looked back with an even bigger smile, both ladies turned to face Daniel.

Daniel didn't need to hear another invite, as he had already started working on kicking of his shoes, while his hands worked on his belt.

Moment's later Daniel came down on to his knee's in front of Naomi in boxers only, who offered him a nipple.

"Only a sip, to see if it gets stimulated" Aika was quick to add, while Daniel took the nipple in to his mouth.

Naomi could, feel a gently suckle from Daniel, who promptly released it, who faced the girls again and then stood up.

With in his boxes the ladies could see an erection quickly forming tenting outwards.

Daniel held out his hands, offering each lady a helping hand to stand up. What both Aika and Naomi happily accepted

* * * Saturday - 19:45 * * *

Clothing was quickly removed when they entered the bedroom, were a little bit of foreplay took place with kissing, touching and caressing one another.

"Aika, you go first" said Naomi, causing there foreplay next to the bed advance in to it. Daniel took up the bottom position, while Aika climbed on top, needing a bit more time as her huge watermelon size breasts were slowing her down.

Aika guided Daniel's pulsing erection in to her wet pussy and slowly eased it in to her, until it was fully inside her.

Naomi who had taken up position next to Daniel heads, offered him her breast and awaiting nipple.

Before Daniel took it in to his mouth she quickly added, "Go slow, one suckle at the time, enjoy feeling it grow"

Daniel latched on and drank once and instantly felt his member grow thicker and push in deeper, "Again" Aika said, after releasing a moan of pleasure

Naomi felt Daniel, drink again, pausing briefly, hearing more moans and grunts of sexual pleasure, before drinking again from her teat.

While Daniel steadily but slowly continued to drink, he could feel the tightness increase as well, until suddenly he felt his balls become bigger and heavier. Another two drinks confirmed only his balls were growing, before releasing Naomi her big nipple. "I'm at my biggest" he announced. "Good" Aika moaned, as she started the rise up and down his much longer shaft, it didn't take long before both were heavily breathing riding the edge of their climax. Aika was the first to come, causing her breasts to start spraying milk in the process, Daniel nearly instantly followed as her milk sprayed over him, feeling a tense load of cream blasting up his member in to Aika.

While still breathing heavily and recovering from this new intense sensation, Daniel grabbed Aika her nipples gently pinching them, stopping the flow of milk spraying out. Aika who wasn't even aware of her breast experiencing a let-down, she was enjoying herself, head tilted backward facing the heavens, she simply enjoyed it, including being pinched in the nipples by Daniel.

Several long and silent minutes passed, before Daniel release his gentle pinched hold on Aika her nipples. Only a few drops of milk followed but no more let-down. "Naomi, can you get a few towels for us, I think we are creating a wet patch" Daniel asked and turned to face Naomi, "And there is much more to come" Naomi smiled back, before dragging herself and her larger watermelon sized breasts from the bed to fetch some towels form the bathroom.

With the added help from Naomi, Aika pulled herself from Daniel, causing a big thick cucumber sized piece of meat to slide out and slap on to his belly. He had lost his erection, but was still mighty big, even for this flaccid cucumber.

"Go wash up" Naomi told Aika who was holding a towel pressed on to her cream dripping pussy "I want the full experience" Naomi added, turning to face Daniel.

Aika and Daniel retreated in to the bathroom, to clean themselves, before returning a good 15 minutes later, along with clean stack of towels and an empty plastic shopping bag. Daniel placed the plastic bag out over the wet patch along with a large towel on top, before taking on his bottom position again, Naomi didn't wait long to climb on top, as so limited in how fast she could drag her larger watermelon sized breast around.

Aika didn't offer her breast to Daniel and didn't had to as Naomi was large enough to offer her own, without having Daniel to reach for it.

Daniel latching on to a nipple, drank a tiny bit, flaring up an erection in his now normal sized cock. With a bit of steering from Naomi, it entered her eagerly awaiting wet pussy. Daniel gave a good suckle on her teat, causing Naomi to experience the first growth to occur, while Daniel's cock grew thicker and pushed deeper inside of her, grunts and moans of pleasure followed. Each time Daniel drank a little more, tightness slowly increased of Naomi her pussy, it didn't take long, before it stopped. Daniel released the big teat from her left breast and gasped for air in the process, followed by a loud burp. "Sorry" Daniel said, "This one is empty", only drawing smiles from the ladies, while he switched over to Naomi's other breast and latched on to the nipple.

A few good more drinks from the nipple and Daniel felt the tightness around is member no longer increase, he had reached it's maximum size. Daniel released the nipple placing his hands on Naomi her hips, pushing Naomi up, she however didn't budge. Naomi smirked as she offering her right breast again "A little more if you please", Daniel didn't need explaining and latched on to the nipple again, to add a bit more cream as requested.

Several strong suckles later, caused Daniel balls to fill and expand, growing heavier in the process, becoming about the same size they previously were with Aika. Daniel paused, while holding on to the teat, waiting until Naomi met his stare. Naomi could only see Daniel's eye's, that sparkled, she bit her lip and nodded with agreement knowing what would come next.

Daniel continued suckling, feeling his balls expand and pressing in to his inner thigh, he didn't stop and continued to suckle on, increasing their size and weight even more as well as the pressure in to his thighs. A sudden discomfort to his balls, had Daniel briefly pause, his balls had shifted position, as Daniel could now feel one resting on top of one another.

Aika who had been watching the show from the side, also knew what was going on started crawling along the bed to get a glimpse from a different angle. Between Daniel's legs rest a huge scrotum, with two bloated balls the size of large orange's in it. They continued to grow larger and larger before stopping to grow, ending in the size of large grapefruit's.

Daniel released the teat gasping for air again, "It's empty" Daniel spoke, sounding maybe a bit disappointing

Naomi switched in to first gear while she started sliding up and down his mighty thick member.

Both quickly started moaning and groaning with pleasure as Daniel assisted Naomi grabbing her by the waist, shifting to a higher gear.

It didn't take long for them to reach their climax, this time Daniel gently pinched Naomi her nipples, just before she broke out in a screaming orgasm.

Daniel wasn't far behind, to reach his own, causing Naomi to go on a good deal longer, before he erupted inside her.

Aika witnessed with awe, while thick stream's of mixed juices, pour down Daniel's shaft, dripping on to his huge scrotum and further down between his legs.

Again several minutes passed in silence as they recovered from the sexual activities.

Aika now taking on the role, with towels in hand ready for them to dismount.

When Naomi got off, they all got to see what size Daniel member had become, a big eggplant sized cock covered in fluids, lay spread on his belly also starting to go flaccid.

Daniel and Naomi went to wash up in to the bathroom, while Aika cleaned up behind them. The towel covering the wet patch was soaked with their fluids, when she collected it along with the plastic bag to cling to it, she was surprised to see the sheets underneath it had remained dry, except for the initial small wet patch from before.

Aika had joined them in the bathroom, who joined the other two under the shower in the spacious square bathtub.

For the first time Daniel actually appreciating its unusually big size, that was left by the previous apartment owner. Daniel wasn't much of a going in bath kind of guy and had considered having it removed, but now, that he was standing in it, with two extremely busty women, he was happy he had one this spacious.

* * * Saturday - 21:15 * * *

The trio returned back to the living room some time later, where Daniel was quick to empty out the milking machine, allowing the ladies, to continue fully milk their breasts. Naomi had only a little bit left, Aika had a bit more, but not a whole lot. Sandwiches were made, for they had not eaten for a good while and finished with the remainder of the cantaloupe melon. A third bottle of wine was opened while they gathered around the breakfast table once more.

Two pair of huge watermelon sized breast were resting on top of it. Between Aika and Naomi lay the large watermelon, that was now being overshadowed by their breast size. Daniel removed the watermelon to swap it out for the beach ball. "Yup" Aika prompted, "about 3 hours indeed" while nodding her head with confirmation. Aika had outgrown the beach ball by a fair bit and a full additional hour, it had been nearly 4 hours ago when they did there last comparison.

Naomi was a great deal bigger than the beach ball, taking up a good amount of space with her breast on the breakfast table. Daniel took away the beach ball, throwing it over the ladies where it landed and bounced around on the ground. He then lift the huge picnic watermelon from the ground and placed it on the table, motioning the ladies to create a bit more space between them, before pushing it between their breasts into the line up. The trio looked at it in silence for a little while, before Naomi spoke again. "I guess I'm about 2 or 3 hours away from matching this" referring to the huge picnic watermelon. A deep and long sigh followed from Naomi, what prompted Daniel to look at her, expecting to find a disapproving sad face. Instead Noamie had pleasing expression almost like she was yearning for the idea of it.

"Daniel, how big do you think I'll get" Aika question Daniel, who swiftly responded "We wished for a 20 inch in diameter bust for you, so I expect a 20 inch bust for you", Aika shook her head and smiled, "No, I mean how big is 20" while drawing a sphere motion with her hands in to the air. "Or even better how big is this huge picnic watermelon. Daniel understood what Aika was getting at and picked up the measuring tape from the bar behind him and started measuring the huge picnic watermelon on the table. Taken the phone from his pocked and placing it on the table opening the calculator app, "69 inch circumvent, divided by Pi" Daniel spoke while tapping his phone screen, "about 22 inch in diameter, rounded up" he spoke while looking up to catch Aika smirking at the huge picnic watermelon, "2 inch smaller" Aika said while warming up to the idea that hear breasts would end up almost as big.

"4 inch more" Naomi said while smirking and winking her eye-brows at Aika, who laughed an in return and gave Naomi a playful punch to the shoulder.

The trio retreated back to the living room, where they continued to enjoy their drinks and pick up in conversation again.

* * * Saturday - 21:40 * * *

A short time passed as they talked some more, while Daniel continued playing the host and was refilling Naomi her glass with wine

"Daniel" Naomi asked, "Do you have anything bigger for me to wear? This old shirt of yours, It's becoming a bit tight"

Daniel could see what she meant, Naomi had even switched shirts and was now wearing his old blue shirt, what stretching out around her breasts"

"I do" Daniel responded, "But I actually had hoped to surprise you with those at the end", setting down the bottle of wine, "And as you ladies end up being a fair bit bigger, I might as well give them now"

Daniel stepping away, walking to his backpack to pull from it another full plastic bag.

"I went to the plus plus sized store, had a quick look in sales section" while returning and pulling out two colored shirts one pink and the other deep purple "6XL" throwing the pink one to Aika, "8XL" throwing the deep purple one to Naomi

"You're the best Daniel" Aika said from behind her up held pink shirt, inspecting the front "It even has a V shape neckline, how nice".

Naomi was also inspecting her very similar shirt only two sizes bigger, before looking at Daniel, "Daniel can you help me in getting this off, don't want to tear it" Daniel smiled, while not saying out loud, how he would love to see that happening. Setting aside the plastic bag that still contained something and walked over to help Naomi

Few minutes later and the ladies were wearing their now much more visually appealing and less stretching plus-sized shirts that were wrapped snug around their bosomy spheres.

Daniel only just sat back down next to Aika on the two-seat sofa, when she motioned towards the relic, that has been laying on the side table in front of them on its pillow, ever since they made the last wish. "We have one more wish left right?"

Daniel nodded, "Yup one more bright jewel remains, so one more wish", knowing what the next conversation would be

"I did some more thinking" Aika continued, "Me and Naomi are already really, really big and we are only getting bigger, I'm not so sure I like the idea of adding more weight" Aika was referring to their shared fetish of the more extreme female curves or pear shape that Daniel called it.

Naomi was nodding in agreement, knowing what Aika was getting at, "Don't get me wrong" Aika continued, "I really would love to see myself looking back in to the mirror, admire my wide curvy hips", Aika pause, while visualizing her reflection "Wait, no, I would not be able to see them because of these" Referring to her extremely large breasts, pressing down on her lap "Anyway, you get my point right, I really really want them, but don't think it's wise"

"I know exactly what you mean and also sadly have to agree with it" Naomi put in sharing the same concerns

Daniel was already visualizing crossing of the extreme curves fetish from his wish list, for Aika was making a very good point.

"So, I was thinking" Aika continued, causing Daniel to pause crossing it of it's imaginary list.

"What if we make it work, similar to what we done for Daniel's growing cock wish" Aika finished

"Oh you are so good at this" Naomi celebrated in her seat while clapping and bobbing up and down in her seat of excitement as she was catching on to what Aika was getting add. Daniel smiled agreeing with what Naomi said, Aika, she was quite clever with this wishing stuff as she found a possible solution yet again.

Daniel reached for the pillow and relic, placing it in his lap, "Let's hear it, Aika, what do have for us"

"OK, what about this" Aika started "When we drink milk from each others breasts, we will grow to be come more curvier, growing wider and fuller hips and a bigger rounder booty, adding a multiplier to how much milk we drink as growth effect, like for every ounce, we gain 25 or 50 ounces in weight. Have it last for a little while, ...", "A full day" Naomiecut in, "A full day, sure and after that, we change back to our old boring curves" Aika finished.

Daniel was running numbers through his head adding to the conversation "16 ounces is 1 pound, what would make 50 a little over 3 pounds"

"Lets go with 25 than" Naomi added, "Daniel you happy with this?"

"Hell yeah!" Daniel responded looking up from the relic to be met by two very excited faces

"Shall I do it or will you" as he looked down to the relic and back up at Aika, making him second guess if that was a right move or not.

"You do it" Aika replied to much of Daniel's relieve.

"Sum it up one more time" Naomi spoke to Daniel who nodded

Hand this time placed next to the pillow, "I wish that when Aika and Naomi drink milk from each others breasts, they will become more curvier, growing fuller and wider hips as well as growing a bigger, fuller, firmer and rounder ass, for every ounce of milk they drink they will gain 25 ounces of weight filling out those curves, lasting for a full day, before they shrink back down to their normal hip and booty size”

“Perfect” Aika said while Naomi gave to big thumbs up for approval

Daniel placed his hands on the relic and repeated the wish, “I wish that when Aika and Naomi drink milk from each others breasts, they will become more curvier, growing fuller and wider hips as well as growing a bigger, fuller, firmer and rounder ass, for every ounce of milk they drink they will gain 25 ounces of weight filling out those curves, lasting for a full day, before they shrink back down to there normal hip and booty size”

Daniel picked up the relic, holding it in to the light as he gave one more final look at the 8 uncut jewels as the last one also had become dull and dark as well, before placing it along with the pillow on the side table in front of him.

Aika tried to get up, but struggled a bit, failing to get out of her seat on the first attempt, needing several more before finally getting her boob mass to cooperated and stood up. Standing she continued to unbutton her jeans, sliding it down her hips were it remained clung on to her upper thigh’s. Turning, she bend over, planting her heavy bosom on the sofa, while working on get her jeans further down and off.

Aika eventually manage to get her jean’s of, it was very entertaining look at “Needed help?” Daniel asked, what got answered by a punch from Aika to his leg, while she walked over to Naomi, sticking out her tongue at Daniel when passing by. Naomi, who had already started raising her purple shirt to expose a very large and eagerly awaiting nipple.

In front of Naomi, Aika lowered herself on to her knee’s assuming a kneeling position, resting her arms on top of her own breasts resting on the floor. Before taking Naomi’s nipple to the mouth, she looked back over her shoulder at Daniel, giving her small booty a little shake “Do let me know if you see anything happen”, turning around to latch on to the teat, giving it several good long suckles and then swallowed it all in one go.

Both Daniel and Naomi watched with opened mouth as Aika here curves rapidly increased in size and flared out in volume, within only a few seconds time here formally small and humble rear, puffed up to nearly twice it’s volume, along with here hips flaring out ever so rapidly. Her panties rose higher around her flaring hips, her ass cheeks continued rounding out and puffing out fuller and fuller, while her panties slowly vanished between them, taking on the shape of g-string.

Aika gave her booty another playful shake as means of entertainment, not seeing what was developing behind her, it however didn't quite wobble and bounce as he had expected it would, causing her to stop drinking and give her rear an inspection.

"Holly shit!" looking with total amazement, being equally dumbstruck as Daniel and Naomi were, who failed to say anything other than to stare at it with open mouth.

"Fetch me that mirror" Aika snapped at Daniel, as she tried to get up on to her feet quickly, "I want to see my reflection"

Daniel got up, walking over to the bar where the hallway mirror was leaning against the bar.

When Daniel returned Aika was carefully walking towards Daniel and the mirror.

Naomi had her hands pressed against one another, holding it in front of her still open gaping mouth, staring with some disbelief at Aika's new extreme curves.

Daniel held the mirror out in front of him, allowing Aika to see nearly her full reflection.

Aika raised her pink shirt, exposing the bottom half of her extremely large breasts, to see what she had expected, two legs increasing in thickness in her thighs, before being met and obscured by her own breasts.

When side stepping to look at her side view, it caused Daniel to almost lose his balance and drop the mirror. Aika her ass was sticking out ridiculously far, while remaining so full and round, raised high on her flaring hips, she had the drawn figure of an exaggerated big booty, one might expect to find in a dirty magazine or a cartoon.

"Oh wow!" Aika reacted to the sight, making another side turn fully exposing the full rear, "Oh wow!" she said again while she marveled at her own reflection, adding a bit of up and down movement causing her booty and boobies to wobble and bounce in response for a little while.

"Your smoking hot" Daniel finally commented on her new looks, "I know" Aika answered back, before turning her head to face Naomi, who had remained silent all this time. Instead of asking Naomi what she thought about her new looks, looking for a compliment, she raised her pink shirt some more, until it exposed a big teat.

Naomi, looked at it, looking back at Aika, who was grinning, before she started working on undoing her jeans as well, this time assisted by Aika.

They both sat back down on the large sofa where Naomi latched on to Aika teat and drank from it, releasing it and inspect the rapid changes. With a much more controlled pace Naomi drank, until her body had the same ridiculously curves Aika had.

Aika and Naomi exchanged looks, smirking before struggling somewhat with standing up, before walking over to Daniel, who was still holding the mirror. Naomi took the mirror from his hands, placing it on to the sofa, while Aika walked towards the bedroom at a slow pace, holding Daniel's hand and Daniel in tow.

* * * Saturday - 23:40 * * *

Two hours passed, Daniel was the first to be walking out of the bedroom, his hair still damp from the shower making his way in to the kitchen and giving the beach ball in his path a playful kick, he was smiling glowing with joy.

Daniel preparing another round of sandwiches, for him and the ladies to eat along with a strong pot of coffee. Even though he was tired, due to a short amount of sleep along with some physical exercise through out the day, he knew he would not be get any sleep tonight.

Aika was the second to emerge from the bedroom with her hair warped in a towel, she walked over to the breakfast table and took place in a chair, she was also glowing with joy, while taking in a good deep whiff of the coffee smell that hung in the air.

Naomi was the last to emerge, while bumping it to one side of the door frame, while attempting to pass through it. This bump with the door frame set her off balance a bit, causing her next few steps to look a bit odd as she sought to regain her balance.

Her curly blond hair was still dry, but her purple shirt showed signs of wet hair in the neck and shoulders creating darker spots around her neck, she was beaming a wide smile, while making her way to the breakfast table, sitting down next to Aika, also taking in a whiff of the coffee smell.

Daniel joined them a few minutes later, with a fresh pot of strong coffee and a big plate of sandwiches.

They ate mostly in silence the first 10 or 15 minutes, while regained some energy and caffeine slowly starting to kick in.

After that some small talk formed, while they continued eating the remainder of the sandwiches.

Daniel cleaned off the table, returning with new pot of coffee, for a second refill.

* * * Sunday - 00:10 * * *

Naomi, pushed her now empty coffee cup to the opposite side of the table where Daniel was sitting, while pushing her self up on to her feet. She raised the front of her purple shirt completely, pulling it back over her head, while keeping her arms in the sleeves, placing her enormous breast, one by one on the table out in front of her.

Aika quickly caught on and started unwrapped her hair from the towel first, before doing the same as Naomi. She struggled a bit with getting them lifted on to the table, but succeeded after a few attempts, also lifting them one by one, instead of both at the same time, something the ladies still managed to be able to do several hours ago.

Daniel took the empty cups from the table and sat them down on the bar behind him, he then picked up the huge picnic watermelon and placed it in front of him, while looking between the breast of Aika and Naomi and what little space that remained. A quick hand motion beckoning the ladies to make some more room, once again. He pushed the huge picnic watermelon between them once more for the line up.

Aika huge watermelon sized breast had grown bigger again as expected, but they had a good amount of growing still left to do.

"About 4 more hours and I'll be nearly as big as this puppy", she said while padding the huge picnic watermelon.

Naomi's breasts had advance to new size category, grown to become large picnic watermelon sized, the real huge picnic watermelon was only little bit bigger. "Yup, a few more hours" Naomi added

Silence fell among the trio again while they admired there growing bosoms

"Shit!" Daniel suddenly said, causing the ladies to face Daniel, wondering what was wrong, "I should have made photo's of this with my camera" now looking up to face the girls, "It's a bit late now" while he looked away a bit disappointed, he wished he had thought of this sooner.

"Go grab that camera dear" Naomi said, sharing his pain, it would have been great to be able look a back on these fruit to breast size comparison session, "I feel the need for a pinup photo shoot, with two ridiculously busty and curvy models in it. How about you Aika?" Naomi asked, "So do I, so do I" Aika was quick to respond.

* * * Sunday - 00:15 * * *

Daniel needed a little bit of time to retrieve his Canon DSLR Rebel T6, along with a few different lenses and a tripod, to return and find the ladies sharing the large sofa hooked up to the milking machine again, with a glass of wine in hand.

"I started leaking milk" Aika told Daniel, feeling the need to explain herself to him.

Daniel who wanted to start taking photo's of the girls now hooked up to the milking machine, learned his camera battery was empty, as it displayed a low battery symbol and promptly switched off again.

Daniel put the battery in the quick charger and joined the girls in the living room, with a glass of wine of his own, joining in on the conversation the girls were already having.

10 minutes later the milking machine switched off, spurting Daniel in to action to drain the milk and resume milking.

An other 5 or 6 minutes passed, Aika was the first to pull the teat cup's from her nipples followed by Naomi's a few minutes later.

About 30 to 45 minutes passed, when Daniel went to retrieve his camera installing the almost fully charged battery, along with a fourth bottle of wine.

They started with taking several photos of them hooked up to the milking machine again, before advancing to poses.

Aika and Naomi became really turned on by having there pictures taken and it didn't take long before they stepped out of bounds. Advancing from pinups to pornography, things became even more crazy when Aika discovered Daniel had balcony and abruptly went out side on it, while wearing only her panties and if that wasn't worse enough the howled at the moon, causing every nearby stray dog to erupt in barking and howls of there own in response.

Daniel was quick to pull her back inside again, fearing she would be spotted by someone.

The party of three continued having fun, having ended the photo session and where now chilling on the sofa's, Aika giggling on endlessly being in a tipsy drunk state, finding everything extremely funny of the loud conversation that continued on.

* * * Sunday - 01:25 * * *

The door bell rang and a firm knock on the door followed, interrupted there conversation, not knowing who to expected, Daniel beckoned the ladies to go to the bedroom, for they were not properly dressed any half naked. There giggling and laughter could still be heard though the closed hallway door, when Daniel opened the front door. To be greeted by two police officers at this door step.

"Good evening" Daniel said as he stood in the open door way, facing down two officers

"Good evening sir" the shortest of the two officers spoke, "Sorry to disturb you at this late hour, but we had had some complaints about the noise levels"

Daniel glanced at a clock in the hallway, seeing it was almost half past one, while the police officer continued on speaking, "We have been standing next to your apartment door for a few minutes now and could indeed hear you and your guests I assume are having a good time in there"

Daniel didn't know how to respond as he bit down on his first, acting a bit embarrassed

The taller officer continued the conversation "If you would mind dialing it down and taking in account it's well passed midnight, we will not have to bother you any more at this late hour."

Some chatter sounded over their radio's causing one officer to step away responding to the call, while the other dialed down the volume of his radio set.

"I'm sorry officer" Daniel replied followed by a heavy sigh, "It's true time really flies when you're having fun", while having another look back at the clock in the hallway "I'm sorry for the noise disturbance me and my friends caused, we will dial it down and ..."

The second officer had rejoined and interrupted holding up his hand in front of Daniel, while facing his partner "We have a 10-16, one block from here"

"Sorry sir, but we have to go" the shorter officer continued again, "Thank you for your cooperation and have a nice night sir"

Both officers walked away making haste to get to the elevator

Daniel closed the front door behind him, breathing relieved, making his way back to the living room.

A knock on the bedroom door "It's safe to come out now, quietly", Daniel spoke through it.

Naomi came out first, looking at him while smiling "Noise complaint?" she asked, Daniel nodded with confirmation

Aika followed, still giggling as she passed by Daniel.

Few minutes later they were chilling again on the sofa's, all three of them had exchanged their wine glasses for water or a soda, to sober up a little bit.

The ladies had put on their shirts again, that were stretched outwards around their ridiculously large breasts, that rested heavily on the lap, overflowing to the sides on to the sofa

Aika now holding the relic, as it rested on top of her bosom, while she studied it, by turning it around as well as holding it in the light.

"I need some fresh air", Aika said, extending one hand to Daniel beckoning to be helped out of her seat.

Daniel was quick on his feet, being the good host, helping Aika up out her seat, who then went out on the balcony for some fresh air.

10 or 15 minutes later she returned, two large erect nipples tenting out of her stretched pink shirt. Aika met the stares from both Daniel and Naomi "What?" she asked, before tracing back where they both were looking at, "Hey, It's cold outside, OK" she defended while walking back to the two-seat sofa

After Aika sat back down next to Daniels left side, she brought the relic back on to her bosom in her left hand, where she continued to study it some more before handing it off to Daniel. Daniel placed it back on the pillow in front of them on the side table. When Daniel leaned back in to sofa again he said "You could have damaged it when you set down". "I know, I'm sorry" Aika responded leaning in to Daniel with her bosom spilling over on to his lap

Eventually they got a calm and quiet conversation going again that occupied them as time passed away, awaiting the final result.

* * * Sunday - 03:40 * * *

The quiet conversation they had going got suddenly interrupted during a movement of silence of fabric tearing, while Naomi shifted her position some what. "It appears I'm out growing your gift Daniel" Naomi said, looking down her overly stretched purple shirt.

"That reminds me, I have two more" Daniel spoke, getting out of the sofa seat, while pushing back some of Aika boob mass that was overflowing in to his lap, Aika her pink shirt also made soft sounds of protest.

Daniel retrieved the bag from the ground and pulled out two dark green dresses, he held them out one in each hand showing it to the ladies. The dresses had a black vertical pattern woven in to it, mixed with a lighter gray as highlight.

It didn't look very appealing at first glance for it was a lot of fabric hanging of the small clothing hanger.

"They are both the same size, and the last two they had hanging in the sales section I considered worthy with my limited knowledge of woman clothing. Both should be a 8XL I believe."

Daniel handed one to Aike who eagerly wanted to inspect it. Daniel walked around the tables to Naomi, just before he handed her the dress as well Aike spoke up "This a 10" halting Daniel in place, "10XL?" Daniel question Aika, "Yeah".

Daniel fished out the label and read 8XL, "Lucky me" he said to himself not loud enough for the ladies to hear "What size is it" Naomi asked Daniel, who turned to face Aika, "This is an 8XL", walking back to exchanges the dresses.

With a bit if help from Daniel, Aika shirt came off, without ripping or tearing any further, while Daniel was helping Naomi out of her overly stretched purple shirt Aika was already commenting on the dress while trying it on. "Never expected they would sell off-shoulder design in a plus plus sized store."

Naomi shirt eventual came off as well, without ripping our tearing, even though it protested a lot.

The dresses were not the very pretty, but they hung freely over there enormous breasts, it came with a cloth belt strap, but neither of them had tied it around there waist. The off-shoulder neckline, revealed a good amount of cleavage, giving it a sexy appeal.

A little bit more time passed, before they moved from the living room to gather around at the breakfast table again.

* * * Sunday - 04:05 * * *

Daniel taking photo's, this time marveling through the lens of his camera, capturing the moment of the events unfolding in front of him.

Aika and Naomi stood half naked wearing only their panties, with both breasts placed spreading outwards to Daniels side of the table. The real huge picnic watermelon lined up in the middle, some what squeezed in between two breasts, there was simply no more table room left on the table.

Aika brushing over her own very large picnic watermelon sized breasts that lay out in front of her that had grown in to a large size category. Nodding pleasingly that her breasts had ended up being almost as big as the real huge picnic watermelon next to her.

Naomi also very pleased with their new and final size, she was already calling them "Over-sized picnic watermelons" as they were a good deal bigger than the real one next to her.

Daniel took a few more photo's before the trio retreated in to the bedroom, finally get some long needed sleep.

* * * Sunday - 11:20 * * *

Daniel was awoken by Aika who slept on his left, who was shaking the bed while attempting to climb out of it.

While pulling back the blanket to face Aika, he could see her looking back at him "Can you help?" she whispered quietly to Daniel "I need to be milked. Badly!"

Daniel nodded, assisting Aika with getting out of bed.

Instead of going to the living room where the milking machine stood, Aika sat down at the breakfast table, both breasts resting on the table out in front of her. Daniel had retrieved the milking machine from the living, emptying it, along with giving it a quick wash, before setting it up for use.

Aika stared out over her own huge picnic watermelon sized breasts, awaiting for Daniel to finish cleaning it and setting it up.

While with one hand caressing gently over her painfully sore breast bloated full of milk.

Daniel arrived and was quick to place down the milking machine on the floor, switching it on and attaching two teat cup's on to Aika her nipples.

Aika instantly felt relieve of pressure as she could hear fluids splashing within the collection chamber, confirming she was being milked.

She looked off to her side a bit arms on top of her own breast with her head placed on it, gazing over her own huge picnic watermelon sized breasts, while enjoying being milked, when she noticed the real picnic watermelon she had been sitting next to.

While looking at it, she could not help but have the feeling it was smaller. She ignored it only briefly, until her curiosity urged her to investigate.

Aika stood up, having another good look at it, again being certain her breasts were bigger than the real one, meaning she had grown even bigger.

"Daniel" Aika asked, "Do my breasts look bigger then the picnic watermelon?"

Daniel briefly looked at and confirmed "Yeah they do, must be the milk, they look bloated"

Aika sitting back down repeating after Daniel, "Yeah, must be the milk"

10 minutes in silence passed, while they were enjoying a fresh cup of coffee when the milking machine switched off,

Daniel was quick to drain it and switching it back on again.

While he was walking back and forth, he glanced over Aika her ridiculous large breast and the picnic watermelon again.

"See" Daniel sad, pointing at the picnic watermelon, "your breasts are already reducing in size as you are being milked, the real melon is now bigger again" Aika stood up again, to get a better look. Relieve to see, they were indeed a bit small then the real picnic watermelon, Daniel's milk theory was accurate.

12 minutes passed by when Daniel switched off the milking machine. Aika pulled her breasts from the table, that obviously felt a bit lighter.

Another cup of coffee was poured, they enjoyed together with some small talk.

* * * Sunday - 11:50 * * *

Daniel and Aika had a conversation going when Naomi suddenly called out "Oh my god!". When turning to face Naomi, they could see her standing partial in the bedroom doorway, both her tremendously large breasts were touching and pushing in to the door frame "This didn't happen to me a little after 4" Naomi pushed her breast through the door frame, experiencing some discomfort, for they were also very full of milk. Daniel stood up, leaving Aika her side, sliding the chair back and gesturing to Naomi to sit down.

"Place your breasts on the table dear" Aika said, just before Naomi wanted to sit down.

With two additional pair of helping hands, they were placed on the table. Daniel switching on the milking machine followed by two teat cups latching on to her nipples.

"Oh that feels nice" Naomi moaned as milky white fluids started being milked from her breasts.

"It's the milk" Aika added, "It's most likely adding to our total breasts mass, instead of being part of it"

Naomi thought about it only a little, as it made perfect sense, before she noticed how her previously over-sized picnic watermelon sized breasts, were a good amount bigger "Oh my god" Naomi spoke again "I've gone from over-sized to super-sized" while looking at the real picnic watermelon.

"Oh god I love these super-sized tits" Naomi said while embracing them.

Two milk machine milking cycles later and Daniel setup the table for breakfast.

The trio finished breakfast a little while later, Daniel cleaning up before they all moved in to the living room again, where they watched some news on the TV for a little while, mixed with some conversation in between.

* * * Sunday - 13:20 * * *

"Daniel?" Aika asked, when he switched off the TV.

"Yes?" Daniel responded, "Am I too bold, for asking you to have make love with me?"

Daniel laughed at the question, "It's bold yes, but ..." exchanging looks between Aika and Naomi "With breasts that big, you can ask me any time of the day and I'll not say no"

"Good, then I want you now" smirked Aika, extending her arms out to be helped out of her sofa.

Daniel pulled Naomi out her large sofa first, for he was sitting next to her this time, before aiding Aika and walking to the bedroom

With the Aika and Naomi walking out in front of them, to the bedroom, he could not help but notice how much they remained walking up right leaning back only a little, not being effected by there tremendous.

They undressed during the foreplay, kissing and caressing one another, while slowly moving on to the bed.

The plastic shopping bag along with a dried up towel, were placed on the bed again, as means of protection against the wet patch, extra towels lay also nearby.

No milk was needed to stimulate Daniel's erection, nonetheless, they all wanted it to become bigger.

Latching on to Aika her teats, Daniel suckled thirsty, rapidly growing his cock both thicker and longer inside of Aika, who moaned with pleasure as her pussy grew tighter and welcomed more of his member pushing deeper inside of her.

It didn't take long before, the tightness didn't increase anymore and his balls started expanding in size instead. Daniel released Aika her teat, meeting her glance of approval. He didn't find it, "Oh no, I want them big, cantaloupe sized big" while pushing her teat back towards his face.

Daniel eagerly latched on and started drinking eagerly, while his balls and scrotum expanded in size, to release the teat once again little later.

"I'm sorry Aika, I can't drink any more milk, I'm full" Daniel spoke, with burping in between Aika reached for Daniels ball's sizing them up, in the touching process "These will do", starting to slide up and down along Daniels member.

Moans and groans mixed with heavy breathing as both working there way to their climax, Aika was the first to experience her orgasm and like before a milk let-down took place. Only a few thin spray's got released, before ending in a dribble and stopping leaking milk. They came prepared this time and had wrapped one small rubber band over each of Aika nipples.

Daniel was to close to reaching his own orgasm, failing to notice the milk Aika brief milk let-down.

A few strong firm thrust and a load grunt followed by a moans of pleasure, Daniel had blown his load in to Aika, that was now gushing down his shaft on to the protect wet patch.

Daniel fell back on to the bed, caressing one of Aika big breasts resting on his rest, overflowing on to the bed.

Aika was resting on top of Daniel and her own breasts, recovering from their intense orgasm's they just shared, when all of the sudden Aika gasped "Oh my", scrambling to to an up right position, looking down between her breasts cleavage.

"What's wrong Naomi asked" who had been watching the show from the side, "My belly" Aika answered, sliding a hand between her breasts to reach and touch her belly "It's growing" Aika marveled

"What do you mean it's growing" Daniel asked still not sure what Aika was getting at.

"It's growing" Aika said again, with even more excitement in her voice.

"Don't be silly" Naomi responded, not understanding where Aika was talking about either.

Aika started moaning gently with pleasure again, at first soft, but gradually ramping up in intensity and volume, like she did when riding Daniel huge cock, towards a climax, like she had done only moments ago.

Daniel and Naomi exchanged brief glances, both sharing the same facial expression, not understanding what was happening to Aika. Until Daniel noticed Aika her breasts were being pushed outwards, more and more, until he could see her skin again and being greeted by round belly button bloating outwards, toward him. "Oh my god" Daniel now understanding some of it, "What" Naomi asked, still in the dark. Daniel pointed a finger between Aika her breasts "Look". Naomi crawled closer to lean in, "Oh my god!"

Aika belly continued to grow bigger at a gradually increasing growth rate, pushing her breasts further apart and outwards taking up the space in the middle. Aika started to bucking harder and harder as she riding on the peak of her orgasm, extending it on longer.

Daniel staring in disbelief at Aika bloating belly continued to push outwards more and more, bloating up becoming rounder and rounder growing towards his face, almost like he was re-watching a scene out of the movie of Species with the expanding belly scene. Only this time causing pleasure instead of pain.

Aika fell silent, only to breath heavily as the orgasm had reached it's climax.

"What in god's name is happening" Naomi asked, when Aika weakly tried to raise a finger in to the air. "One, ... Moment" Aika finally spoke again, between deep breaths of exhaustion.

A minute passed when Aika sucked in a good gasp of air, raising her head to face to face Daniel and Naomi.

"What's happening", Naomi asked again

"I, ... I may have wished for this" Aika responded,

"But all jewels had gone dark" Daniel questioned

"So did I" Aika answered.

"When did you wish for this?" Naomi asked, quickly following with another question, "And what did you wish for?"

"When I went for fresh air, I took it with me, outside", Aika responded to one of the question

"Really" Daniel cut in "And I though you nearly sat on it"

Aika only smiled back at Daniel's, winking her eye brows, before continuing on, "In the moon light, them not fully dark jewels, still sparkled brightly, so I made a wish"

"What did you wish for" Naomi asked again

"I'm hoping I didn't fuck up, for I was a bit drunk" Aika added

"Only a little bit, she say's" Naomi rolling her eye's.

"It should have been something like, ...", pausing, taking deep breath "I wish that during the 4 day period of a full moon, I and Naomi will experience a fake pregnancy, when made love to and a male ejaculates his load in side of us. We shall grow a pregnant belly of 9 month's in size within 9 minutes time, combined with and orgasm reaching it's peak when fully grown. Our fake pregnant bellies will remain for 9 hours, before shrinking back down, additionally drinking milk from our own breasts will extend the fake pregnancy up to 24 hours and would we be made love to again while having a fake pregnant belly it will double in size"

"Oh my god, you made it work again" Naomi spoke to Aika, while crawling up next to her, giving her firm kiss on the lips. When pulling back, Naomi softly said "Love, you ready for twins?"

Aika looked up surprised, looking back at Naomie, seeing she had a naughty glint sparkling in her eye's "I would love to, but I'm spend. Give me sometime to recover."

"Do you mind if we switch?" Naomi questioned, "Oh no please, I need to regain my breath" Aika responded in turn, slowly pulling his still erect member out of her as she started to rise.

Daniel and Naomi assisted Aika of from Daniel's fat cucumber sized cock, setting down next to them on the bed.

Daniel felt relieved as the heavy load was lifted off his chest, that had been Aika's tremendously large breast and added pregnant looking belly.

Naomi now taking up the place, placing here even bigger tremendously large pair of breasts down on top of Daniel, mostly overflowing to the side of.

"Help me push them apart, I want to see my belly" Naomi asked Daniel, who gladly assisted offloading her heavy breasts on to the bed next to his chest.

Naomi reached for Daniel's still fully erected cucumber sized cock and eased it in to her wet pussy.

Aika pulled the rubber bands from her nipples, handing them to Naomi just before she was about to start.

"You will need these, dear" Naomi smiled and quickly put them on before getting to work.

It didn't take long before both of them were moaning and groaning, heavily breathing as they made their way to their climax.

Naomi, this time more focused on getting Daniel to come first and trying to avoid reaching her own orgasm.

It helped for Daniel burst his load in to her, paired with heavy moans of pleasure, more fluids dribbling down his shaft to the protected wet patch.

Naomi slowly slowed down her thrusting until coming to a full stop, staring down to her own belly between her tremendously big breasts spread aside.

A little time passed before Naomi said "Oh yes", closing her eyes and tilting her head back. I can feel it growing.

Naomi had a little bit of belly fat going, concealing the slow but steadily increasing growth for a little while, before it started bloating up and filling outwards. Naomi started moaning softly as the first signs of her advancing orgasm came to bear.

Aika looked in amazement as Naomi her belly rounded outward taking on the shape of a pregnant belly, growing faster and faster.

Daniel meanwhile getting extremely turned by the show, resumed thrusting, what unconsciously got assisted by Naomi who could do nothing else but let this rising wave of sexual stimulation wash over her.

Aika watched the scene unfold before her in total awe. When a 9 months pregnant belly finished growing she witnessed both Daniel and Naomi peaked their orgasm. Another load of fluids came gushing down Daniel's shaft, disappearing on to the wet patch.

Naomi lay resting on top of Daniel, as well as resting on her tremendously big breasts and her newly pregnant looking belly, that was pressing down on Daniel's belly, while recovering from this insanely intense orgasm she had never ever experienced before.

A few minutes passed before she looked up exchanging looks between Daniel and Aika, beaming a smile with satisfaction, before her eye opened wide in surprise, feeling something she had felt once before again.

"Get ready for twins, dear!" Aika moving in closer to Naomi and placing a supporting hand across her shoulder.

Naomi's pregnant belly started growing again, gradually ramping up in size and growth speed.

Another wave of uncontrollable sexually stimulated pleasures washed over her ramping up to another intense orgasm.

Both Aika and Daniel watched in total silence as Naomi's belly expanded towards a twin sized looking pregnancy.

Her breasts were being pushed even further apart as her expanding belly claimed up more and more space between them.

Daniel's previous scene from the movie Species, was re-playing over in front of him, this time the enhanced 2.0 version.

15 minutes passed before Naomi regained consciousness, becoming aware of a cold damp cloth was being pressed on to her by Aika, quickly becoming aware what just happened, looking down at her enormously round looking pregnant belly that had doubled in size. "Did I miss out on a third round? I'm looking to big for twins and more like triplets" she spoke with some confusion.

Daniel breathed relieved as Naomi had regained was talking again, also observing the same thing Aika and Daniel had concluded when she was unconscious.

Aika who was still pressing a cold damp cloth on Naomi shook her head and surrounding skin while smiling. "No dear you didn't miss out on a third round, I wished the fake pregnant belly to double in size and that's what it did"

"I should have used different words" Aika continued on, "But my in my defense, I was a little bit drunk" while beaming a smile back at them.

Naomi rested a bit longer, before making an attempt to dismount from Daniel.

Just as she was about to raise up, she promptly lowered herself again, looking with wide open eye's at Aika who was sitting kneeling next to her, ready to assist. "Does that mean, going for a third round I'll end up with a belly four times as big?" referring to her current twice as large pregnant looking belly, to double in size again.

Aika thought about it before responding "I believe it will"

A smile slowly formed on Naomi her mouth as the answer was slowly being processed in her head.

"Ready for a third round?" Daniel asked Naomi, certain she was going to say no to it or at least for now, seeing how that smile grew in to grin.

"I need a break, I'm to tired right now", Naomi responded to Daniel, while maintaining her wide smile and rose to dismount from Daniel's now natural sized cock.

"You wash up" Daniel suggested, "I'll clean up in here" while looking at the towel laying over the wet patch along with a dark spot extending around it, knowing it could not handle all the fluids, even with the added protection of the plastic bag.

Aika pushed her self through the door frame, as her added pregnant looking belly was now causing her own tremendously large breasts to brush up against the door frame.

"Ehmm, guy's. I'm gonna need some help with these" Naomi said looking at the same door frame problem only much worse.

With two extra pair of hands helping to lift her breasts a bit above her belly she managed to push through the door way.

While the girls where washing themselves, Daniel pulled away the add wet patch protection towel that had failed, to his surprise the plastic had done his job, only the towel was much bigger, causing it to pass through on the outsides, it didn't matter, his sheets were soaked in bodily fluids, he pulled off the sheets from mattress, looking at the mattress that clearly showed it had become wet. He threw the dirty bed linen on to a pile in the corner.

Daniel left the bedroom briefly to return with a pair of scissors and a role of plastic garbage bags along with a bottle of cleaning vinegar.

Sprinkling a fair out of the wet stains. He continued unrolling a garbage bag and tearing two off. Then proceeded to cut it open along the side and the bottom half. Now unfolding a very large plastic sheet.

Instead of applying it over the with vinegar treated stained mattress, he flipped the whole thing around, figuring it would dry easier through the bottom on his wooden slatted bed frame.

Daniel finished redoing the bed with cleaning linen, along with an extra plastic layer of protection and another cut open, just in case they for some reason would not be having sex in the middle of the bed, where the layer of plastic protection was.

Daniel shook approving of his clever thinking, before picking up the dirty bed linen and walking in to the bathroom.

* * * Sunday - 15:30 * * *

The trio sat in a nearly fully filled milky white bath, Aika and Naomi sitting across from one another, two tremendously large breasts floating out in front of them, being pushed outwards to the side of the bathtub by their pregnant looking bellies that lay fully submerged in the water, only Naomi's twice as large pregnant looking belly would every so now and then peak out just above the water line.

Aika had a large bowl resting on top of one of her breasts floating out in front of her, that had been filled with potato chips, not much was left of them though. On her other breast rested her own hand holding a nearly empty tall glass. On each of Naomi her floating platforms lay a large dinner plate, one empty along with two empty tall glasses placed on it, the other dinner plate had still some refreshments remaining.

Daniel sat in between of them, Aika's left and Naomi's right breasts brushing up against his arms and chest, filling up the space in front of him. Their breasts were only one foot away from touching, nipple length not included. The once spacious bathtub, had not much space left any more, but neither of them minded, it only made the whole experience more intimate for themselves.

The trio returned back to the living room, after having soaked in the water for another 30 or so minutes.

Daniel did some quick house redecoration, relocating the large sofa to where the two-seat sofa used to stand, directly in front of the TV, where Aika and Naomi snuggled up against Daniel under several fleece blankets, while watching a new movie from Prime TV.

* * * Sunday - 18:20 * * *

When the movie's end credits started scrolling by Naomi leaned in to Daniel as much as her tremendously large breasts and her round pregnant looking belly would allow her to do so, while pulling in Daniel closer for a very long passionate kissing session. Aika only smiled, as she could hear them exchanging saliva with one another right next to her hear.

When Daniel and Naomi finally pulled part and ended the kissing session, Daniel turned to face Aika, who pulled him in for only a quick firm kiss on his lips. They snuggled a few minutes longer on the sofa, "What's for dinner" Naomi asked, where to Aika quickly responded with "A big fat creamy cock", countered by Naomi "No that's dessert", while giving Daniel a two quick squeeze in the hand that she had been holding under the fleece blankets. The trio laughed about it, until Daniel pulled out his phone and opened up a takeout ordering app, not feeling like doing any cooking for tonight.

Mexican food was ordered that was delivered a little later and was quickly consumed by the three in the living room along with some conversation as the ate it. A moment of silence fallen, Aika and Naomi cuddled up against Daniel, who sat trapped in the middle. His lap was overflowing with Aika's right and Naomi's left and their tremendously large breasts that pressed against one another in the middle.

They were silently digesting there Mexican meal when Aika said, "I'm gonna call in sick tomorrow"

Naomi nodded in silence for a little while processing the thought. "I'm going to quit my job, no way I'll be serving tables with these" she said while patting one of her tremendously large breasts. "Not even sure if I can go home anymore, I'm having trouble getting through doors" Naomi was quick to add.

Another moment of silence passed, before Aika turned to face Daniel "What about you Daniel" while snuggled a bit more against Daniel's arm "Will you call in sick for us?"

Daniel thought about it and as much as he wanted to, he also really wanted to get the relic back in it's storage container at work, figuring he could have some camera's go offline accidentally and get away with it. After all the upgraded security systems still had some issues to be workout anyhow. "I'm not sure yet, but I might probably call in sick as well"

The three set in silence for a little while longer, deep in thought, considering how there lives will continue with their new grown tremendously large assets along with all the new challenges and difficulties they would have to overcome.

"So, ... Who wants some watermelon as desert" Daniel said while turning his head back and forth between the two ladies left and right from him.

The the nodded in agreement. Daniel unburied himself, pushing Aika and Naomi's breasts apart and from his lap, squeezing out from between there breasts.

He quickly cleaned up the two side tables they had joined together, that held there empty plates along with empty containers that the Mexican food came in. Shortly after cleaning the table Daniel returned with a watermelon in one hand, a cutting board and a knife held by the other. He placed it on the one of the side tables and started working on the watermelon with his back turned to the ladies, he made a few glances over his shoulder back to each of the ladies beaming a wide smile, before resuming cutting the watermelon. When he finished and managed squeeze his way back between the ladies there tremendously large breasts again, he presented a green bowl full of small cut pieces of watermelon.

While gradually emptying the green bowl, Aika tilted her head looking at the green bowl Daniel was holding. "That a watermelon made bowl?" She asked, that caused Naomi to now look at it also.

"It sure is!" Daniel smiling back at Aika "It also happens to be about the size of your freaking ridiculously large puffy areolas" giving Aika a pat on her breast that was overflowing on to Daniel lap.

"Oh really?" Aika said, while stuffing her mouth full with an other chunk of watermelon

The remainder of the pieces, got consumed a lot more quickly and when Naomi took the last piece out of it, Aika was already pulling back her dress exposing her left breast that was overflowing on to Daniel's lap. With a bit of help from Daniel they positioned her breast so that her puffy areola was facing upwards.

Daniel drank the remaining fruit juices from his watermelon made bowl, before turning it upside down and placing it over on top of Aika's areola. It didn't match up, but came close enough as a good inch of puffy areola could still be seen around the watermelon made bowl.

"Close" Aika commented while nodding with approval.

"I think you will need the larger watermelon for mine" Naomi said, while she started pulling back her own dress to expose her right breast and puff areola for a size up.

Daniel took the watermelon made bowl off from Aika her puffy areola and handed her the bowl, while he continued to help Naomi with her breast to also put her areola on display, what took a bit more effort.

Aika placed the watermelon made bowl over Naomi her larger areola, "See" Naomi said while the three observed several more inches of puffy areola sticking out around it. "Told you, I would need the larger watermelon" while giving Daniel a playful bump.

"You know, ..." Daniel said, while pausing briefly and looking at the remaining watermelon on the cutting board. "I would need to cut open my nephew's birthday present in order to find a matching size for you and I'm not entirely sure I want to go through with that".

A brief silence fell, before two head turned to face the cut watermelon on the side table and jaws dropping open with awe when Aika and Naomi finally realized that the watermelon laying cut open on the cutting board and the cut of piece they just used to size up their puffy areolas with has been the larger watermelon all along.

"Your such a tease" Naomi said while leaning in for a kiss, that Daniel happily offered.

"Things just keep on getting better and better" Aika spoke while removing the watermelon made bowl off of Naomi puffy areola and noticed a stream of milky white dribbling out and down of Naomi's huge nipple and further down along her areola. A large grinned formed on her face before pushing and leaning while saying "I'm thirsty" latching on to Naomi's teat.

Daniel and Naomi responded with some surprise but neither of them protested to her action.

Aika drank slowly this time, much more controlled while she and Daniel felt her already extremely curvy hips and booty expand even further, taking up even more space on an already overfull loaded sofa. When she released Naomi her big teat and sat back up straight again, she was sitting a few inches higher then did before smiling back at Daniel and Naomi's amazed expressions.

"I can't stay behind" Naomi said while leaning in to latch on to her own teat, but stopped just before taking it in her own mouth.

"On second thought, let's not drink from my own breasts" looking up at Aika, "We don't quite know yet if we will actually shrink our pregnant bellies yet, with you being tipsy and all"

"Good call" Daniel nodded, while reaching for Aika's still naked breasts making ready offer it to Naomi.

Naomi latched on to Aika her teat and also drank slowly, but continued to drink on a bit longer as Daniel become even more compressed between the two ladies there now overflowing hips pressing in to his side. When she released the teat with a popping sound she sunk back in to the sofa, with a satisfying moan of pleasure. Daniel trapped in the middle who was literally being buried under overflowing curves of womanly flesh, glowing with happiness.

The party of three continued there evening by watching two more movies along with some conversation as well as desperately needed milking session.

A toilet break was also needed what caused for quite some entertainment. Now not only Naomi's tremendously breasts were touching the door frame but also her even more ridiculously larger and wider hips were touching the door frame, she literally needed help to be pushed through the door opening.

The toilet in the hallway was too cramped leaving them only with bathroom toilet to go to. Package number one was doable, but package number two became a bit messy requiring even more assistance from each other. Even though somewhat embarrassing, all of them only laughed about the whole situation.

While the three were nearing the end of the second movie that was playing, Aika suddenly shook up, raising of from Daniel to an upright position and looking down between her breasts and down on her now shrinking pregnant looking belly.

"Look, my belly is shrinking back to normal size" Aika explained, still locked on to her belly that gradually continued to shrink.

"Good, than we can safely say, you wished for it correctly" Naomi put in, while Daniel was leaning over to also look at Aika's shrinking belly show that took place between her breasts.

When the show was over and Daniel had a bit less of Aika's breast overflowing on to his lap, now that she had more free space between them. Daniel turned to face the still playing movie to see Naomi latched on to her own nipple next to him.

She released her teat smiling "I didn't want to give up on this yet" while she patted her still remaining and twice as large then normal pregnant looking belly "Besides, we have one more added component from Aika's wish to test and to confirm"

All three ended up laughing and eventually continued watching the movie until the end.

When it ended, Aika needed to go to the toilet again and Daniel went with her to assist, leaving Naomi alone in the living room.

When they returned a little while later, Naomi stood in front of the open balcony door looking outside starting up in to the night's sky.

"Fresh air?" Aika asked while placing her hand blowing booty down on to the sofa again.

"Yeah I needed some fresh air" Naomi said and stood there for a little while longer.

"Mind if I leave the door open a bit" Naomi asked while she slid the sliding door to a close, leaving a smaller opening for fresh air to pass through.

Daniel had retreated to the kitchen and was working to open up their first bottle of wine for the evening, "Sure it's a bit warm in here"
Followed by Aika responding with "indeed"

Naomi turned around walking back over to the large sofa where she also carefully positioned her self in front of the sofa, this time next to Aika.
While looking over her shoulder, "Aika dear, can you remove that pillow for me" referring to the pillow she would be planting one of her tremendously large ass cheeks on and cause her to sit uneven. "Sure" Aika responded leaning in to grab it.

While Aika reached for the pillow behind Naomi, Naomi bend down and placed back the relic on top of the pillow that now lay underneath the side table, every since they had placed it there for more space when they ate their Mexican food.

Daniel returned with the now open bottle of wine and three glasses, this time not joining the ladies on that sofa, who already taking up most of the space anyway.

Where they continued in more conversations with one another

* * * Sunday - 23:15 * * *

While Daniel and Aika were laughing loud about some silly experience they had shared during high school, Naomi looked at Daniel and boldly said "Daniel, make love to me!" what had both of them abruptly halting their laughter and turning to face Naomi who had a yearning expression on her face while rubbing her twice as large then normal pregnant looking belly

The trio quickly retreated or at least as fast both Aika and Naomi could be helped through the to small door opening, in to the bedroom.
They undressed and skipped out on all the foreplay, Daniel again position in the center, along with additional layer of wet patch zone protection he was sitting on. When Naomi climbed on to the bed towards him, dragging her tremendously large breasts and mind blowing wide hips and booty on to his XL king sized bed, he was all to glad went for a XL king sized bed in stead of a queen sized one for his own towering height.

With Naomi's tremendously breast laying next to Daniel's chest and her twice as large then normal pregnant looking belly and Aika this time helping out getting his slightly enhanced member in to her wet and eagerly awaiting pussy.

Once Daniel's cock pushed inside of Naomi, Aika return to Daniel side and offered him her teat, where he eagerly latched on to.

Gears were set in motion, Naomi rising up and down along Daniels growing member that quickly reached it's maximum size, while balls continued to expand growing fuller and fuller. Daniel forced himself to continue to drink on, even when he felt like he had reaching it's limits and felt he was growing a pregnant milk filled belly of his own. Naomi's own pregnant looking belly pressing down hard Daniel full and bloated belly, didn't make things any easier, but he soldiered on to only release as they both started to near there climax and erupt in a screaming orgasm. Think streams of bodily fluid's, mostly Daniel own, blasted from Naomi's pussy while he pumped load after load in to her.

Aika now with Daniel no longer attached to her teat, crawled down the bed to have a sneak peak around the corner of Naomi's mind blowing wide hips sticking out.

"Oh Wauw!" she said once she saw Daniel's over-sized bloated balls, trapped between his own legs and Naomi's mind blowing large booty resting on top. Even though they were pressed in to the mattress along with an overflowing booty resting on top of it she was certain they we larger then a pair of honeydew melon, while thick stream for bodily fluids could be heard and continued to gush out of Naomi.

Aika crawled back and setup to watch the next show unfold.

Daniel lay completely spend breathing heavily staring out in front of him, while Naomi rested on top.

As minutes ticked away, her already twice as big pregnant looking belly started to grow, bigger and bigger, extending out even further out as it grew.

Soon she was completely taken away by the her next a lot more intense orgasm, extended on, what felt like forever.

Naomi's tremendously large breasts were pushed out even further apart, Aika and Daniel looked with open mouths how Naomi's pregnant looking belly expanded beyond there wildest dreams.

By the time Naomi recovered from her extremely intense and long orgasm Daniel was no were to be seen, completely hidden and pinned down under her tremendously large pregnant looking belly, it look like she had swallowed an even larger picnic watermelon.

Naomi remained speechless for a little while before she sad "We might have over done it a little bit", while beaming a feeble smile to Aika, who only quickly nodded in return with wide open eye's of amazement and shock.

"Daniel you still a life down there?" Naomi asked next, what followed by an arm being raised showing a hand symbolizing a thumb up or down, it was pointing side ways.

"Would you mind getting off me, please" Daniel's voice sounded a bit muffled, while Naomi's eye opened wide as she felt Daniel's moving and pressing in to her belly while he spoke.

Aika was quick to spring to action helping Naomi from Daniel, what required all three of them in order to succeed.

They went to wash up, but knew Naomi would fit through any more doors at the moment when the finally managed to stand up, with now her breast point sides way's instead of outwards in front of her.

A bucket of water two damp washing cloth's were used as a work around.

Even through really spend and tired Daniel, pleased Aika by fingering and eating out her pussy until she came as well, before the they crawled up against one another and went to sleep.

* * * 10:13 * * *

Daniel phone rang, beeping loudly screaming for attention. Daniel sleeping in the middle of his XL king sized bed was the first to be awaken by it along with a sudden fear he might have overslept, as he maneuvered himself out from between the ladies. He could hear both Aika and Naomi starting wake in protest from the phone as well, but mostly from loosing a heat source that they had been pressing against.

As Daniel stumbled out of bed, he answered his phone "Daniel here", still sounding sleepy.

"Yes" ... "Yes" ... "Retired CEO?" ... "Sorry?", "With 8 uncut jewels?" ... "Loan it out to a museum yo say" ... "Would you mind if I think about it, I only just awoken, not fully awake yet" ... "And I can reach you on this number" glancing at this phone briefly, "ending with 669, correct? OK, thanks have a good day"

Daniel hung up the phone again, staring at his phone for a little while.

"What's wrong dear?" Akia spoke with muffled voice, her face still half buried in a pillow

Daniel didn't answer, still lost in his own thoughts.

"Daniel?" Asked Aika again, while she worked hard to raise her self out from underneath her ridiculous large breasts to an up right sitting position, she was looking at Daniel a bit worried.

"Naomi" Asked Daniel, while turning to face Aika worried look with a gradually growing smile

Naomi only responding with a sleepy "Yes?" still buried underneath the blankets.

"What do you know about me be being a filthy rich and retired CEO, that used to work for the company I work or worked for?"

This promptly caused Naomi to raise up from underneath the blankets with some serious difficulties and face Daniel with wide open eye's and mouth.

"I just got a call, if I would be willing enough to loan out a thick dinner plate sized stone with 8 uncut jewels in it, from my personal collection to a museum, known as the wish granting relic."

Naomi shocked expression changed it to happiness as she burst out "It worked!"

"What did you wish for?" Aika was quick to ask turning to face Naomi who had fallen back on to the bed arms held out high towards the ceiling celebrating.

"Well" she said, turning to face Aika "Let's just say we don't have to worry about our any of our old lives any more, for I'm most certain Daniel will take care of us. won't you dear"

Daniel didn't respond and instead stuck his head underneath the blankets and crawled his way the back to the front from under them, to pop his head out above's Naomi's face, who apparently had lost her ridiculously large pregnant belly about an hour ago. While laying on top of Naomi and in between her breasts Daniel kissed Naomi passionately for a good long time, before releasing and coming up for air.

A few more quick kisses were exchanged, "Seriously now, what did you wish for"

Aika leaning in as far as her sore and bloated breasts allowed her to.

"You summed up most of it already" Naomi started "The simplified version would be your retired as a filthy rich CEO of the archaeology your worked for, while retaining or altering who you are and how you lived not risking altering the time line before that and undoing our previous wishes and encounters."

"You clever girl" Daniel said leaning in for another long kiss.

"Oh that was so smart" Aika grabbing Naomi by the shoulder and giving it a little squeeze.

They lay there a little longer enjoying the moment for a little while before, Aika announced "I don't know about you, but breasts feel like they are about burst" referring to her sore and bloated breasts full of milk that needed to be milked.

"Also I need to pee like crazy" Aika sad while pulling away the blankets from her breasts and struggling again to get out of bed.

Daniel and Naomi only smiled and laughed.

Naomi also had sore and bloated breasts full of milk, screaming for attention, she didn't care and continued to enjoy the moment with her arms wrapped around Daniels neck who was resting on top of her.

"Ahmm, Naomi?" Aika asked, while sitting up right on the edge of the bed, with her tremendously large breasts resting on top of her lap.

"Yes, dear?" Naomi responded, while receiving another kiss to the cheek from Daniel.

"What more did you wish for?" Naomi her eye's went wide open again, at first looking at the back of Aika, sitting on the edge of the bed who was looking down in front of her. Then she looked back at Daniel, who looked back at her with open eye's and raised eye brows wondering what Aika mend by that.

"Nothing" Naomi said first, "But I might have suggested while wishing for Daniel to mistakenly have wished for us end up with 30% bigger breasts and twice as much milk, then what we initially had wished for as well as growing bigger over a 48 hours period instead of one full day".

Daniel quickly pushed himself off of Naomi and in to an upright position while throwing back the blankets and in the process exposing Naomi naked breasts. He looked down on them and could see they were a lot bigger then the night before.

"Oh my god" Daniel said as he lowered himself sitting down on top of Naomi, staring down at two breasts only from his wildest dreams with a blank expression on his face.

Naomi however knew quite certain that things were gonna be alright with Daniel, for she could feel Daniel's growing an exaction as his cock was pressed against her skin, gradually becoming thicker and thicker with every heart beat.

No love was made with one another, they all eagerly wanted to, but their sore and crazy full bloated breasts needed to be milked badly and Aika still needed to use the bathroom.

The ladies could amazingly still walk in an up straight position, defying the laws of gravity that would other wise would have caused them to tip over.

Both Aika and Naomi their breasts where hanging half way her upper legs casting a large shadow out in front of them.

The measuring tape Daniel had could not support there new size to be measured accurately, but they had a solid base line starting with 20 and 26 inches they only hand to grab a calculator to add 30% extra twice get some idea of how large they had grown.

Aika pretty much now matched the breasts size Naomi had the night before, but on her small frame those ridiculously large breasts, looked outrageously large, measuring a 26inch in diameter at there roundest point that would expand by and additional 8 inches when full of milk. Naomi had gone from ridiculously large breasts to outrageously huge breasts, measuring almost a whopping 34 inch in diameter at their roundest point, expanding by another 10 inches when bloated up full of milk.

Naomi sat alone on the large sofa with on each side of her resting one of her outrageously huge breasts while browsing on her phone "Ohhh, this one looks nice and roomy. I just shared it" she said.

Two phones and a notebook prompting notification sounds

Aika occupying the two-seat sofa, was also resting her outrageously large breasts one each side of her while looking at her phone.

"Oh yeah that one looks nice in deed, Daniel what do you think, is 6million to expensive?"

Daniel smiled as he looked up the large mansion Naomi shared with them on his computer. "Only 6 million?" Daniel repeated, while glancing over to his phone and the opened bank app displaying his current balance. "I think we can do better than that and go a bit more more expensive" he responded back to Naomi and, while switching off his phone while grinning madly...
