

Madam Materia's Writings

Oh hi there!

I see you've discovered this new little document bundled with my zip downloads. Well due to certain avenues not having places for profiles, interactive descriptions, or hyperlinks, and not wanting to make double copies of my stories for those that do, this here is just a little one pager with a few important Madam Materia links. And maybe some FAQ at a later date.

Anywhere, if you wanna keep up to date with my works, see about supporting my craft with a sub or commission, or just in general chat, then the following links are your best friend.
