

Human Growth Hormone

By TROGDOR297

Jackie stepped out of the bedroom dressed for the gym. Her spandex sports bra holding her firm C-cups close to her chest, and her gym shorts curving her toned ass perfectly. "Dave!" She called out. "Are you ready to go?"

"Just a minute, babe!" A male voice rang out from the hall bathroom. Jackie rolled her eyes. She could never rely on Dave to be on time for anything. This was his routine that she was partaking in, and yet he was the one who was running late.

They had met a year ago in a bar. She had been immediately struck by his impressive physique. He had told her at the time that he was training to become a professional bodybuilder. She could believe it, looking at him. He was 6'2 and 240lb of pure muscle. They had gone home together that night, and been a couple ever since. Now she lived with him at his apartment, and started to join him a couple times a week at the gym.

Not that she was out of shape. As she waited for him in the hall, she checked herself out in the large mirror on the wall. She stood 5'8" and had always possessed a slim build. Her skin, bronze from a recent tanning salon session, her blonde hair tied back in a ponytail. Since starting to regularly go to the gym, she was now showing tone on her arms and legs. Her favourite improvement was her butt, which had developed into a pair of tight round cheeks.

Five minutes had passed with her standing in the hall, waiting. "Ugh...what is that boy doing!" She huffed to herself. She stomped over to the bathroom and flung open the door. "What is the hold up!" She demanded.

Dave was standing with his back to the mirror, his pants around his knees. In his hand was a syringe filled with clear fluid, which as she opened the door he plunged into his muscular buttocks. She sighed as she watched him press the plunger, injecting the clear fluid into his body. "Really dave? More steroids? Didn't we learn our lesson last fall!" She asked, arms crossed over her chest.

Two months after they had met, Dave, in an effort to improve his training, had done a round of anabolic steroids. While they had augmented his ability to put on muscle mass, they also shrank his testicles and penis, something that both Jackie and Dave agreed was unacceptable.

Dave pulled the syringe out of his ass and pulled up his shorts. "Relax, babe. These aren't steroids! Well, they're sort of not steroids..." Jackie raised a single eyebrow.

"They're some kind of growth hormone. I have a buddy that works in pharmaceuticals, and he said he was going to be the next big thing. He owed me one, so I called in the favour and he snagged me a sample of the prototype. It's supposed to provide the same muscle enhancing benefits, without any of those pesky downsides!"

Jackie was still doubtful, but she shrugged. "It's your body, if you want to mess with it, that's up to you. But if it starts messing with my plaything" she said eyes dropping to the bulge in his shorts. "Then we're gonna have a problem"

Dave gently grabbed her by the shoulders and kissed her on the forehead. "Don't worry babe. If I see any sign of shrinkage down there, I'll cut the stuff immediately"

"Mmm, fine," She grumbled. "Let's get going then! We're already late!"

Two hours later they returned to their apartment, both drenched in sweat. It had been an intense session, with both of them pushing each other on. Jackie smiled at Dave as he walked to the sink and splashed water on his face. He was a good gym partner, and a good boyfriend. And he wasn't bad to look at either, she thought, admiring the ridges of muscle visible through his t-shirt.

"Ready for our post-workout?" She asked coyly.

He turned with a devilish grin on his face. "Oh you know I am! Come here you!" With a scream of delight, she ran to the bedroom, Dave chasing her with arms outstretched, reaching to grab her.

Not long after they had started going to the gym together, this had become part of their workout tradition. With both of their bodies heightened and full of endorphins, they would passionately fuck before finally showering off.

She leapt onto the bed face up, and spread her legs. With a single finger she gave her man a beckoning motion. He crawled onto the bed and forcefully pulled off her shorts, revealing her cute little shaved pussy. With a grin on his face, he dove in face first, his tongue dancing over her exposed flesh. She shuddered and moaned with pleasure. "Ohhh fuck, that's good Dave" He hummed into her crotch, the vibration tickling her. His tongue circled her clit, in a pulsing rhythm, driving her towards release. After a minute of this intense stimulation, finally her orgasm flowed through her body, her hips bucking underneath the pressure from Dave's mouth.

"Come on and fuck me" She said breathily. Dave nodded and pulled down his shorts. His cock already hard. He got on top of her and slowly slid the 6" member into her glistening crevice. "Mmmm" She moaned as he began to slowly thrust within her. It wasn't the biggest cock she had ever taken, but that didn't bother Jackie, Dave made up for it in other ways. She was just happy that it had mostly grown back to its original size before the steroid driven shrinkage.

"Give it to me baby" She demanded, and instantly Dave increased his tempo and power. He grabbed each of her legs and folded them up, resting them on his shoulders. This allowed him to press deeper into her, and her gasp of pleasure signalled her approval. The light sound of flesh hitting flesh could be heard, as his balls repeatedly slapped into her with each thrust.

"Oh fuck...I'm gonna cum" He groaned. She licked her lips. "Then come here baby" She said huskily. Dave pulled out and scrambled up her torso. This was their typical method; Dave didn't like the feel of condoms, and Jackie didn't like the effects of the pill. Their compromise was that when they had sex, Dave would always pull out well before he was going to finish, and Jackie would finish him off with her mouth. She had always enjoyed sucking dick, so she found the terms of the deal more than acceptable.

She eyed his quivering cock as he brought it up to her mouth. It looked just like it always had, a drop of precum sitting at the tip. Although...his balls. They looked slightly swollen, compared to normal?

She ran a hand up and down his shaft, before taking him into her mouth. She began to enthusiastically bob back and forth on his cock, easily taking it into her throat. One of the benefits of having an average size cock. She thought as she continued to deepthroat him, one hand gently cupping his balls. "Ohhh man, that's so good" He moaned. "Ohh...OHHH..." She felt his balls flex in his hand, so she readied herself for his load. With a grunt he thrust, and sprayed his warm jizz into her mouth. She felt it fill her mouth, but unlike normal this time he just kept coming, more and more semen filling her oral cavity. Her cheeks puffed out trying to contain it all. Finally, he finished, pulling back out of her mouth. With a heavy gulp, she swallowed his load. "Jesus, Dave!" She said in shock. "When was the last time you jerked off?"

Dave sat back on the bed, resting on his arms laid out behind him. "Yesterday? Why?"

She wiped off her mouth with one hand. "That was the biggest load you've ever given me! It was like a month's worth of cum in one go!"

Dave laid back. "Huh, weird...You ok?"

She nodded, resting her head on the pillow "Yeah, I'm fine, it was just a surprise, you know? Would've appreciated some heads up"

Dave chuckled "Hey, if I knew I was going to do that, I definitely would've told you"

Her fingers still had a few drops of cum on them so she licked them off with a smile. As she did, she noticed something she hadn't before. His jizz had a slightly different taste to it, a sour tang, not entirely unpleasant. She had been in too much shock from nearly drowning it before to have noticed.

"Hey, have you been eating Pineapple?" She asked as she swallowed the last few droplets.

"No, why?" Dave said as he rose from the bed, heading to the washroom to shower.

"Hmm, no reason," She said, savouring the taste in her mouth. "Hey wait for me!" She bounded off the bed and followed Dave into the shower.

The next morning she woke and got dressed for work. She grabbed one of her black bras from her closet and put it on. Her breasts, which usually sat comfortably with the fabric now pushed into it, straining against its confines. "That's weird? Maybe I'm getting my period soon" She said to herself as she pulled her dress over her head.

All throughout the day she found it hard to focus. Her breasts continued to ache as they rubbed against her bra. Now she began to feel discomfort in her lower abdomen, and on top of that her pussy was on fire. It called for her to give it attention. "What the fuck is going on" she muttered as she squirmed at her desk.

The next day saw no improvement. Her breasts pushing forward and almost spilling over the cups of her small lace bra. The discomfort between her hips had ceased, but her pussy was even more demanding today. She had decided to wear a tight pair of jeans, and regretted it immensely; the denim rubbing against her throughout the day, teasing her constantly.

“Thank god it’s gym day again” She said as she drove straight there from work. She quickly changed into her gym gear, and while her sports bra wasn’t quite as confining, it still was straining against her tits. As she passed by the mirror in the change room she stopped to look at herself. “I do look good...” She thought, striking a few poses. As she turned to face the mirror head on, she gasped. “Oh my god, how embarrassing!” She thought as she tugged at her shorts. A visible camel-toe was visible through her spandex, her cunt greedily sucking in the fabric. She pulled her shorts down slightly, removing the imprint on her crotch, and hurried out into the gym.

As she entered, she spotted Dave across the room, at the squat rack. She walked over and watched him complete his set. “Hey babe! How are you feeling today?” He said, as he backed away from the weights.

“Weird...” She said, “My tits have felt swollen all day, and my downstairs has felt weird”

“Hmm...” He rubbed his chin. “Well, maybe a good workout will make you feel better?”

There’s something I know will make me feel better. She thought her eyes flicked towards Dave’s crotch. Quickly she snapped out of it. She was acting like a horny teenager. Dave was right, she needed some physical exertion to take her mind off things.

But an hour later, now glistening with sweat her mood had not improved. Watching Dave grunt as he pumped iron in front of her, had just made her pussy even more demanding. When they got home, she didn’t even speak to Dave, she just grabbed him by the front of his shirt and dragged him to the bedroom. Within seconds they were both naked, her laying on the bed, legs splayed open.

As she lay back, her newly ample bosom bounced on her chest. Dave’s eyes widened as he took her in “Babe...you look amazing”

She barked at him “Yes, I know! Now hurry up!”

His eyes traced down her body, and stopped at her crotch. “Whoa...” He said. This caught Jackie’s attention. “What is it?” She said, propping herself up on her elbows. He pointed at her vagina. It had always been a cute little thing, with tiny trim lips, what some would describe as innie. Now her lips were swollen and pink, her clit visibly poking out at the top, the entire thing dripping with fluid. “It looks...” She started. “...Delicious” Dave finished as he dove in.

Jackie flopped back onto the bed as incredible pleasure emanated from where Dave’s tongue ran laps around her engorged lips. He sucked hard on her clit and she saw stars. Her pussy cried out with joy as his tongue traced every inch of her moist flesh. One orgasm hit her and she cried out, then moments later another. Dave pulled away then and crawled atop her.

Her head was still spinning when she felt him enter her. Her pussy almost seemed to pull him deeper into her as he began to pound away. New worlds of pleasure rocked her body as he slammed into her repeatedly. He was going so deep, and yet it felt so good. He braced himself up with his elbows, and then with each hand grabbed one of her tits and began to squeeze in time with his thrusts. She cried out with joy, as a third orgasm caused her whole body to shiver.

"Goddamn, babe, you're so fucking tight, it's like your pussy is trying to milk me" Dave said as he pulled out of her. "I wasn't going to last much longer"

"Mmm, that's because it loves you" She purred as he straddled her and brought his cock to her lips. His cock tensed as she gently took hold of it. He was as hard as he'd ever been, his skin soaked in her juices. Ok those are definitely bigger. She thought as she cupped his balls. In his sack each teste felt like it was the size of a golf ball. She moaned as he pushed his cock into her mouth. As it neared the back of her throat, she found herself struggling. This is definitely bigger too. She focused and relaxed her throat and Dave inched further down her throat. There we go. She slowly moved up and down his thick shaft. It only took a handful of pumps before his enlarged testes flexed up into him. As he began to shudder, she pressed down onto his cock, pushing its head deep into her throat. For a full 20 seconds his cock pulsed in her mouth as above her he grunted, sounding like a bull in heat. She could feel the thick ropes of jizz cascade down her throat. It left a tingling sensation on her insides. Finally, he pulled out, and she took a deep breath.

"Holy shit..." He said resting on his haunches. His cock still twitched, as a single drop of cum leaked out and fell to the sheets.

Jackie sat up and reached forward, taking his cock in her hand. "Do you still want to play, my little friend?" His cock hardened once more, answering her demand. She began to stroke it up and down, her hand sliding smoothly across his skin, still slick with her saliva. He moaned as she quickened her pace, her eyes fixated on the head of cock. The shaft began to tense and bounce with excitement, fighting against her grip. She held firm and continued to stroke. Dave's six pack abs tensed, and she knew it was time. She leaned forward and wrapped her lips around the tip and greedily sucked the jizz that burst forward as he came hard once more. The sour tang she had tasted yesterday was still there, but now it was amplified. "Mmm, that's good" She moaned as she swallowed his second load. Her stomach felt full, as if she had just eaten an entire bowl of soup.

Dave collapsed on the bed, his dick finally going soft. "That...that was the best sex we've ever had"

Jackie laid down beside him, a warm feeling spreading from her stomach to her tits and nethers. "Fuck yeah, it was..." Her breasts tingled as the warmth spread throughout them. Something strange is going on.... She gave her tits a squeeze, they were now each a solid handful, full double D's. She smiled excitedly. ...But I think I really like it!

The next morning Jackie woke to find Dave already gone. He worked in construction, and so it was typical that he was gone before she woke. An unfamiliar weight rested on her chest. She sat up and felt that weight shift and pull forward, she looked down and gasped. Her tits had grown overnight, swollen into full firm F-cups. She cupped them with her hands, pulling them up then dropping them. They bounced once before settling. Despite their size they were incredibly perky, sitting high on her rib cage. "Well, I definitely won't fit into any of my bras now" She said as she rose from the bed. She grabbed a stretchy t-shirt and tossed it on. Her tits filled it out wonderfully, stretching the fabric. Two points on the front poked through the fabric, her nipples now free. "Mmm...maybe a jacket as well"

She walked over to her closet to grab something to cover up, and then froze when she saw herself in the mirror. Her breasts weren't the only thing that had swollen that night. Between her legs her pussy lips visibly stuck out an inch, swollen and bright pink. Her clit sat proudly at the apex, now the size of a pea. The entire thing glistened with moisture, like a ripe peach.

She ran her fingers along her lips and up to her clit. She shivered with the intense pleasure that came from the single motion. "Wow...that...Wow" It was a struggle not to fall back on the bed and continue to pleasure herself, but she knew she had a lot of things to do today and so she hurried into the closet to get dressed.

But there she found an additional obstacle. The pair of jeans that she attempted to put on wouldn't fit. She looked back at her ass. It was just as round and taut as the day before. "Ok what is going on!" She muttered. She walked over and grabbed the measuring tape that Dave used to measure his biceps, and slung it around her waist. "Ok, 24", that's normal." She then pulled it tight around her hips. "38"! How?!" She walked back over to the mirror and looked at herself again, and she realised that the tape wasn't lying. Her hips had widened considerably. Where before her toned muscular thighs had just touched, there was now a two-inch gap. Between her legs her pussy still shone invitingly, a single drip of fluid fell from those engorged lips and landed on the floor.

"I don't know what the fuck is going on, but this is crazy!" She yelled. She definitely wasn't going to work today, none of her clothes fit. She needed a new wardrobe ASAP. She put on a pair of Dave's sweatpants, and headed out the door.

Four hours later she returned, and promptly collapsed on the bed. She had been successful in purchasing a new wardrobe, but it had been the hardest thing she'd ever done. Everywhere she walked her panties rubbed against her, sending flares of sensitivity up her spine. The pad that she put in to help absorb some of the liquid she was giving off had been completely full within 30 minutes. At each store as she entered the changing room, she stripped off her panties and leaned against the wall doing deep breathing exercises until she calmed down. She didn't even put on any of the clothes, as she knew if she did, she would soak them with her juices. Her breasts were not much better. Throughout the day they had swelled further, now up to H-cups, her nipples poking clearly through the t-shirt and constantly rubbing against the inside of the denim jacket she wore overtop to hide them.

She walked into the bedroom and tossed the bags of clothes on the floor, and immediately stripped down to nudity. She looked at herself in the mirror. She was incredible. Her firm round H-cups, still refused to sag. On top of her bronze skin she could see the light blue of veins against the surface. Her nipples were each half an inch long and constantly erect.

Her pussy had taken the widening of her hips as an invitation. It had grown to fill the gap between her legs. Each lip was thick and pink, like a piece of meat, sticking out an inch and a half from her. Her clit had expanded as well, now the size of a blueberry, and sticking out prominently.

“Fuckkkk...” She said to herself as she looked in the mirror. She reached down and lightly touched her lips. It quivered with pleasure at the contact. As she pulled her hand away a string of fluid followed.

She heard a noise from the bathroom. Dave wasn't supposed to be home yet? “Dave?” She called out, poking her head into the hall.

The bathroom door opened. Dave exited, with a towel around his waist. “Babe! I didn't expect you home! Why aren't you at work?”

“I didn't go in today...I've had some personal issues” She said.

He walked into the bedroom. His jaw dropped as he looked her up and down. “Holy shit Jackie...You look...”

She smiled, squeezing her melon sized tits together. “Amazing right?”

He nodded dumbly “Yeah...” He then noticed her throbbing swollen pussy. The only noise he made was a grunt in the back of his throat.

“Easy tiger,” She laughed. “But what about you? Why are you home?”

Dave looked back up at Jackie. “I've also been dealing with some personal issues...”

He pulled the towel from around his waist. There hung his cock, but it was not as Jackie remembered it. Though soft it hung down between his thighs, at least 8” long. It was an inch and a half thick, with veins visible along its length. Below its impressive length hung his sack, now filled with what looked like a pair of lemons.

Jackie felt her mouth drool as she took in his incredible new member. Dave noticed her drooling and his cock responded in kind. With each pulse of his heartbeat more blood entered the shaft and slowly raised until it stuck straight out from his body. He walked forward until the tip touched her stomach. She looked down, he was standing a full foot away from her, and yet his cock easily bridged the gap. She reached down and rested a hand on it. It twitched at her touch.

She smiled drunkenly “Someone's excited to see me...ohhh” Dave had reached forward and ran his fingers between her pink wet lips. “Someone's excited to see me too.” He replied. “Ohh fuck...” Jackie moaned as he ran his fingers up and down her wet slit. “She's been waiting for you all day...” She grabbed him round the shoulders and pulled him back on top of her.

Dave caught himself on the bed and laughed. “Don't you want me to go down on you first like we always do”

She kissed him hard then shook her head. “I just need you inside me now, or as much of you as can fit.”

He nodded hungrily; his mouth dry. He raised his hips, bringing his tip to rest against the softness of her entrance. “Do it,” She commanded. “I'm ready”

With one smooth motion he ploughed into her up to the hilt. "Howwwww" Jackie moaned as her entire body shuddered. She felt impossibly full; how could he have fit entirely inside her? His dick was almost the size of a baseball bat and she had taken it fully. He pulled out of her and then slowly pushed back in, she raised her head up to watch. Eyes wide with wonder she watched as he entered her, the skin on her abdomen bulging out to make way as his cock pushed further and further into her. By the time he was fully immersed his head was pressing against the inside of her belly button. The pleasure was too much, her head hit the pillow and her eyes rolled back in her head. She no longer cared what or wasn't possible, just that Dave kept fucking her.

At the sound of her moans of pleasure, Dave stopped holding back. He had been worried that at his new found size he would hurt Jackie. But as he slid in effortlessly, he felt her swollen lips grip on to him, pulling him in deeper. Now that he knew she had enjoyed it, he unleashed. With long powerful strokes he repeatedly pulled almost all the way out before ramming back in. Each impact, made her entire body shift in the bed, and brought a moan of pleasure from her mouth, which now lay open, tongue hanging out the side.

Dave began to grunt himself, as he did his best to hold himself back. He wanted this to go on as long as possible, but with each thrust into her, he could feel the entire length of her vagina squeeze along his shaft. Her pussy had a mind of its own, and it wanted his seed, badly. He looked up at Jackie. She was beyond consciousness, her mind adrift in an ocean of ecstasy. He could feel his balls tense, he was going to cum soon, but he didn't know what to do.

Then, as if she was reading his mind, Jackie reached out a single hand and waved him toward her mouth. He pulled out his cock shuddering, eager to explode, and scrambled towards her, not having to go far considering the length of his shaft. Her eyes were half lidded, and her breathing shallow, but as the enormous tip of his cock approached her, she leaned forward, opened her jaw as wide as she could, and took the entire head of his cock into her mouth. As her lips sealed tight around his glans, Dave swore from the intense pleasure and then started to cum.

Jackie didn't know where she was, where she worked, what day it was. At this moment Jackie didn't even know her name was Jackie. She was just solely focused on pleasure, hers and her partners. And her partner's pleasure was dependent on her swallowing every ounce of cum he gave her. No small task, as his citrus fruit sized balls unloaded all of their cum into her mouth. It was like drinking from a firehose. The deluge of cum filled her mouth and throat, but she did not release his cock for a second. Instead she greedily swallowed, opening her throat and just letting the liquid flow down into her stomach. She placed her hands on either side of her round firm tits and squeezed them around Dave's cock, rubbing up and down. She could hear him cry out at the sensation, his cock thrumming and sending even more jizz down her throat. Yes...all for me

After 30 seconds he pulled away, his cock still spurting sticky white fluid. Jackie pushed herself up on shaky arms, as his cock continued to twitch, painting her enormous tits with cum. Below her tits, she could see her stomach. Gone was her slim frame, her belly rounded out like she was 5 months pregnant. "So much cum..." She said rubbing her swollen gut.

Dave stood and nearly fell over; his legs having lost all sensation. "I...don't understand."

Jackie lay back idly tracing her hands over her cum filled belly. "What's there to understand, my love? Does it matter why this is happening?"

Dave watched his girlfriend as her hands cradled her cum inflated middle. "Fuck that's hot..." He said to himself. He looked down at his own cock, now shrunken back to its original 8". As hot as it all was, he needed answers, whatever was happening was definitely not normal. "I'm...I'm going to see a doctor" He said.

"Okay honey." Jackie said, closing her eyes. After a few moments Dave could hear the soft sound of her snoring, her arms still wrapped around her swollen gut. Dave turned and left the room, grabbing fresh clothes from the laundry on his way out.

The last thing Jackie felt as she fell asleep was that tingling warming sensation once again begin to spread throughout her body.

Several hours later, Dave was sitting in a hospital waiting room. He'd been there quite a while, the nurses not taking his demands to "see a doctor because of his monster dick" seriously. They put him in the general waiting room and told him to sit tight. He checked his watch. 11:00pm. He'd left Jackie at 4:00. He hoped she was ok. He reached into his pocket for his phone. Shit...he'd left it at home. He'd just have to pray that everything was fine.

At last, a nurse waved him in with an exasperated look on her face. "Alright there monster dick, let's go" She said, her voice dripping with sarcasm. He jumped up and followed her down the hall into an exam room. Shortly after a doctor entered.

"Good evening! What seems to be the problem today?"

The nurse was still standing there, with her arms crossed. "He says he has a 'Monster Dick'" her fingers making quotation marks in the air.

The doctor turned to look at the nurse with an expression of "Are you Serious?" Before he turned back to Dave. "Alright then, let's take a look" Dave stood, and pulled down his sweatpants, and nearly swore. "Oh my...." The doctor said, removing his glasses. "What the fuck!" Yelled the nurse.

His dick was much bigger than it had been when he'd left the house. While soft it hung down past his knees, and was as thick around as a man's wrist. The veins that had previously run along it under the surface, now were imprinted on the skin. His balls were the size of coconuts, resting in his enormous sack down between his thighs.

"Do you believe me now!" Dave said, vindicated.

The doctor turned to the nurse and with an urgent tone gave her orders. "Call Dr. Tibbits, and then get a sample kit, we need to do some blood work immediately"

A few hours later Dave was still sitting in the exam room, his dick still just as large. Since he'd first entered, he'd been examined by several doctors, and the nurse had taken several blood samples from his arm. They'd told him to sit tight, until they had some news. He looked at his watch again. 3:00am. God he was exhausted. He just wanted to know he was ok, and then to go home and sleep.

At last, the original doctor returned. "Well, it seems after doing some tests we've found the culprit"

Dave sat up excited. "What is it?"

The doctor continued on. "We found traces of an unknown hormone in your blood. We were able to isolate and analyse it. Funnily enough it is a hormone produced by the human body. Well...sort of. It's very similar to the hormones produced by the pituitary gland in humans during puberty, except it seems to be an extremely concentrated version"

"So...my body is going through puberty, again?" Dave asked, anxiously.

"Well not quite. With the concentration that we detected, it's more likely that your body is going through a hundred puberties at once, hence the remarkable growth you've endured." The doctor motioned to Dave's cock, which had only continued to grow during his stay.

"Oh wow" Dave replied.

"We're not sure where it originated from, but the good news is we can remove it. Your body isn't producing it itself, so once it's gone from your system, you should cease to see any more growth. A full blood dialysis should take care of it"

Dave thought back to earlier this week. The growth hormone that his friend had given him. He never did say what kind of hormone it was...

The doctor continued on. "And we should begin right away, if possible. We noticed that the hormone has the ability to transfer itself through body fluids. So we should get rid of it before anyone else is exposed! Any contact with your blood, spit, semen..."

Dave jumped up in alarm, and ran out of the room. "Sir! Wait!" The doctor yelled after him. Dave ignored him as he ran as fast as he could "Oh Shit...Jackie..." He said as he ran back to his car. She'd been more than exposed to his fluids, she'd nearly drowned in them. The image of her caressing her swollen gut filled with his jizz, swam in his mind. He turned on the car and floored it.

He sped back to his apartment as fast as he could. Luckily it was almost 4 in the morning, so the streets were almost empty. He got out and tried to run to the elevator. His testicles had swollen to the size of two watermelons, so he had to run with his legs spread in awkward loping strides.

He slammed his key in the door and ran in. "Jackie!" He yelled. "Jackie, where are you!"

"In here my love" Her voice sang from the bedroom. He jogged back and threw open the door. Jackie stood in front of him on the bed.

She was womanhood personified. Her blonde hair had grown and thickened, running down to her waist. A coy smile rested on her beautiful face, her lips having plumped up ever so slightly. His eyes continued down her body to her chest. Her arms were wrapped down underneath each breast, supporting them. They had each grown substantially; she was far beyond the realm of bra-sizes. Each breast blossomed out from her chest, flowing out and forward, the size of large pumpkins, the flesh taut and supple. Blue veins covered the surface. Her nipples had swollen further, and were a deep shade of pink.

Beneath her breasts he could see her waist. Her stomach was back to completely flat, her body having absorbed the hormone laden jizz. Then continuing down from her 24" waist, her hips flared out dramatically. They continued to spread out from her body past her hip bones, reaching 2 ft wide at their widest, forming the base of her incredible hourglass figure. She was wearing a black silk skirt, fastened around her waist just below her belly button, it draped over her incredible hips hanging to her knees. She looked like a Victorian woman wearing a hoop skirt, but Dave knew that those curves were all her.

"Hello my love" She purred. "I've been waiting for you. I need you...she needs you" She said resting her hand on the front of her skirt.

"Babe....I...wow...You look...wow" Then he remembered why he had rushed over. "The Doctor! The hormones I took earlier this week, they're the reason for all of this"

"Oh, I know." Jackie said with a knowing smile. "While you were gone, I received a call from your friend. You left your phone here" She pointed to his phone sitting on the nightstand. "He asked if you'd taken the hormone, and I told him yes. He warned me that it was highly contagious, spreading through fluids, that it causes unchecked growth...and then I hung up on him." She stepped forward to the edge of the bed, placing her hands on her hips.

"At the time my stomach was still almost full of your delicious warm cum, and I had a choice to make. Listen to reason, make myself throw up, rid myself of your lovely jizz and end this...or...." She cocked her head to the smile with a grin. "Well, I think you know what I chose"

Dave stood in shock, not knowing what to do. Jackie was incredibly sexy, her body oozing sensuality and femininity. He looked down, his cock was straining hard against the sweatpants he wore. He swallowed, his mouth going dry.

"Oh" Jackie continued on casually. "I haven't even shown you the best part yet" With a devilish smile, she lifted the front of her skirt.

As her hips had grown, her legs had grown as well to support her incredible width, but they hadn't grown the entire distance. There was now a 5" gap between her thighs. And there at the apex of her legs, in the very center of her whole being, was her pussy. It completely filled the space between her thighs, its lips spreading out like an enormous tropical flower. They trembled at the very touch of the air, each fold of flesh swollen to an impossible size. The largest ones must've been at least six inches long. Her crevice had also grown in size, now splitting her open from her taint almost up to her lower abdomen. The entire nest of flesh was soaking wet, as she constantly emanated fluid. And there at the very peak was her clit, like a tiny crown. It was the size of a large grape and pulsed with sensitivity.

Without a single thought of resistance Dave threw himself at her burying his face in her enormous cunt. She immediately began to shriek with pleasure as they both fell back onto the bed. He didn't even use his tongue, he simply ran his face over as much of her moist folds as he could, and from Jackie's fervent cries he could tell that it was more than satisfactory. He got himself up on his knees, her chasm opening before him. He leaned forward, and smoothly fit one hand and then the other within her pussy. She moaned as he pushed his hands in further, now up to his wrists. He looked down, and there right before him lay her swollen throbbing clit.

Jackie saw what had crossed his mind and tried to stop him "Wait...wait...no...don't...it's too sens..." Dave ignored her pleas and sucked her clit into his mouth. When he did, she went silent, her face frozen, her entire body beginning to shudder. He continued to suck on the nub, as her trembling became more aggressive. Her hips bucked violently under him, but with his hands still inside her, he was able to hold her still, stop her from pushing him away. At last, she let out a single long scream, her back arching up off the bed. Only then did Dave release her clit from his mouth, satisfied with his efforts.

He stood up and looked her over. She appeared to be catatonic, her body only twitching slightly every other second. Her eyes remained open, staring up at the ceiling. Her pussy had swollen larger, and was now throbbing aggressively, as if it were reaching out to him. "St...sti..." She whispered, face unmoving.

Dave leaned over her still body. "What was that babe?" He asked gently.

She turned her head to look at him, her eyes still seemed to be staring off in the distance, but her mouth gave him a weak smile. "Stick it in me" She whispered.

Dave nodded, then stepped back looking down at his junk. His erection was now two and a half feet long and 4" thick in diameter. It quivered in the air, sticking straight out from him, the head now a deep shade of red. His sack reached down to his knees, his balls feeling full and ready.

He walked down to the edge of the bed, and aimed his enormous shaft at her awaiting pussy. Then he slowly walked forward, easing it into her. As the tip made contact with her lips, he felt them begin to swell and squeeze rhythmically, each pulse pulling him into her. He began to approach faster as her pussy pulled him in quicker than he was walking. The entire head of his cock was in her now, and still he plunged further. Dave tried to stop himself from going deeper, but her vagina had other ideas. Deep inside her abdomen the contractions continued, and his penis was pulled even further inside. Through her skin he could see the outline of his cock bulging against her as it pushed up through her torso. Finally, he hit bottom, the tip of his cock was just underneath her sternum, where her two enormous tits met her body. The entire time as his cock had been drawn into her Jackie had been making primal animalistic grunts, her entire brain on standby.

Dave shuddered as he beheld the sight before him. He was almost completely inside her. 18 inches was inside her torso, stretching from breastbone to abdomen. Then the next 8 inches was within her engorged pussy lips, which still pulsed around him. This left only 4" of him sitting outside her body. It was an impossibility, but somehow, she had taken almost all of him.

"Jackie? Are you ok? He asked. He had no idea how he had fit this much inside her, but he certainly didn't want to be putting his girlfriend through any sort of pain. She meekly lifted her head, and her eyes widened at the column of flesh that bulged out through her abdomen. Then she laid her head back, closed her eyes and smiled. "Jackie?" Dave asked again. Around his cock her vagina still contracted rhythmically.

"Fuck me" She said without opening her eyes.

"...Babe?" Dave asked, unsure if he had indeed heard her say that.

She opened her eyes and met his gaze, her eyes sharp and full of desire. "I..said. FUCK ME!!" At these last two words her entire vagina shuddered, squeezing tight around his cock.

At this point Dave's lust kicked in and he began to thrust wildly, fervently, primally. It would be foolish to try and pull himself all the way out, so instead he focused on intense short thrusts. Of course, those short thrusts were an entire foot in length, but compared to his mammoth meat, they were short. Repeatedly he pounded his cock into her, her stomach bulging and retreating with each thrust. Around the base of his cock, her pussy lips were like tongues caressing him with each stroke. The only sound Jackie made were grunts emanating from deep in her chest, perhaps from where his cock was striking her diaphragm. Her eyes were rolled back in her head, and her tongue lolled out down her chin, flopping about aimlessly with each monumental thrust of Dave's cock.

After a minute of slamming into her, he felt his balls begin to churn. It wouldn't be long before he came. He immediately pulled out of her, and stepped back from the bed, his entire length slick with Jackie's fluids. He looked around wildly for something to come into, a garbage can, or a suitcase. Anything to contain the gallons of cum he knew were about to erupt from his dick. Suddenly he was pulled forward as he felt something warm wrap itself around his cock. He looked down in surprise; Jackie had shimmied down the bed and wrapped herself around his cock. Her legs were in place around its base, and her tits squeezed around just under the glans held in tight by her arms. Dave shook his head "Don't do this Jackie..." He implored.

Her face was located right at the end. She looked up at him as she ran her tongue up through the slit at his tip. "Come for me." She commanded.

Dave shut his eyes with a grunt as his body betrayed him. It listened only to her now. The orgasm surged through him as his balls clenched underneath him. He could feel the cum enter the base of his cock and surge up through his shaft.

Still wrapped around his cock, Jackie must have felt it too as she whispered to herself "All for me" before sealing her lips around his slit.

Jizz pumped into Jackie at an astounding rate. Her cheeks immediately puffed out trying to contain it, and as it filled her oral cavity, some of it leaked out and burst out of her nose. But still she held her lips tight on his cock and chugged his cum, like it was water and she was in the desert. Dave moaned as his cock continued to pump out more and more cum. Then he felt a third point of contact along the underside of his cock. He opened his eyes and looked down at Jackie. Her tits and legs still held his cock tight, but now between them, her stomach, rapidly expanding with jizz, was now pressing into him as well. What have I done? Thought Dave, but his cock couldn't hear him and continued to give Jackie what she wanted.

Her legs let go of his cock and then her arms, as her stomach pushed her body away from him. Nimbly, without breaking the seal on the tip of his cock, she got up on to her knees and sat there guzzling every drop of cum that Dave's cock would give her. Finally with one last shudder, his cock drooped soft, falling away from Jackie. She caught it with one hand, and brought the tip back up to her face. She gently gave it a kiss. "Thank you" She whispered, before kissing it again and releasing it. She then looked down at herself and sighed with contentment. Her stomach had bloated out to the size of a woman 9 months pregnant with twins. She lifted it up off the bed an inch and dropped it. An audible sloshing sound could be heard, as the cum inside her gut churned within her. She looked up at Dave. "I wonder how much I'm going to grow now?" She said with a soft smile.

Dave stumbled back against the wall; his face aghast. They had gone too far; this was too much. But even still, though his mind logically knew that they shouldn't have done this, the sight of his immensely swollen girlfriend, one hand rubbing her distended stomach, the other gently squeezing the nipple on the end of one mountainous tit, began to make his cock harden once more.

"Mmm" She moaned, getting excited at the sight. "Come here and give me another load of your delicious cum. I've got room for more" She said, grabbing her belly with both hands and giving it a shake, the cum inside sloshing loudly.

His cock flexed straight out from him now, fully erect, reaching out towards her. What should he do? What could he do against such an undeniable force of femininity and sexuality? She beckoned a hand at him to come to her.

Then suddenly the sound of liquid gently spraying, could be heard. Jackie looked down and smiled. "Look Dave, milk." She said matter-of-factly. Each tit had begun to spray streams of milk out of each swollen nipple.

Dave turned and ran from the room, closing the door behind him. If he didn't leave now, he never would, and they'd never be able to reverse this.

"Dave!" She called after him. "Dave, come back! Please!"

He put his hands over his ears and ran out into the kitchen. This was for the best he thought. This was for the best.

6 hours later, Dave heard a knock on the door. He opened it to find the doctor. "Sir!" The doctor exclaimed. "We must return you to the hospital at once to complete the dialysis. There's no telling what will happen to you if the hormone is not removed from your system" Then for the first time the doctor looked down. "Oh my god..." Was all he could say.

Dave's cock hung soft from his groin. It trailed on the floor, nearly 4ft in length. It was as thick as a full-grown boa constrictor. His balls were like two basketballs in a bag, dangling between his legs.

"Please help us, Doc" Was all Dave said.

"Us?" The doctor asked. "Was...was someone else exposed?"

Dave pointed down the hall. "She's in there...I...can't go in. Can't risk it"

The doctor walked down the closed door. He could hear a voice calling out from inside. Unsure of what to expect, he pushed open the door.

"Finally!" A feminine voice rang out "You came to...oh.... you're not Dave! Where's Dave?"

The doctor was frozen. He couldn't fathom what he saw before him. There, sitting against the headboard of the bed, was a woman unlike any he'd seen before.

Her thick blonde locks flowed down around her, all the way to the end of the bed. Her face was astonishingly beautiful, with plump lips that were now pursed in a scowl. Then below that...laying on the bed were two breasts the size of large bean bag chairs. They flowed out from her body and spread to cover almost the entire bed. Her nipples were dark purple, the size of small traffic cones; a steady stream of milk flowed from their tips. The fountains of milk had already thoroughly soaked the sheets, and begun to pool on the floor. Because of these enormous breasts, he could not see much else of her, only her feet sticking out the end from the ankle down.

The doctor composed himself. "My dear...you've been exposed to an untested artificial hormone and we need to get you to a hospital to extract it from your system!"

She crossed her arms and rested them on top of her enormous tits. "No, thank you. I'm quite happy as I am"

"Ma'am please! I must insist it is for the sake of your own health!" The doctor implored.

Jackie paused to think for a moment, and then smiled. "Ok...I'll go. But I'll need help, I don't think I can walk"

The doctor nodded. "Very good, we'll get you out of here"

The doctor looked her over and realised this was beyond his capabilities as well. He returned to the main room, where Dave sat at the edge of an armchair, his balls resting on the floor, his cock laying beside them.

"Sir, she has agreed to come with us to the hospital, I'll just need your assistance to move her"

Dave stood and peered down the empty hall. "She said she'll go?" He questioned.

"Yes sir" The doctor nodded.

"Alright...I'll help" he said standing and following the doctor down the hall.

"Now, she is quite large, so I think we'll need to both carry one of her breasts, and then she should be able to walk" The doctor suggested as they walked down the hall.

"Sure" Dave said. He pushed open the door and entered the room.

"Hello Dave." Jackie purred. She had pushed her breasts off the bed and onto the floor on each side of her, exposing her lower body. Her hips had widened to almost the width of the bed, her muscular legs posed with her knees up, each foot braced upon a corner of the mattress. And there between her legs was her cunt, a veritable bouquet of flesh. Her pussy was unspeakably large. Each lip had swollen and reached down to where her knees would be. The doctor saw now that the soaked sheets were not a result of the milk, but instead the constant flow of juices that leaked from her engorged vulva. The top of her pussy reached ever further up her abdomen, now stopping just short of her belly button. Both of her hands lay on her stomach, placed gently around what had become her clit. The nub of flesh had grown to the size of a clementine, and sat pink and smooth just below her navel. It too visibly trembled with the promise of pleasure.

"I'm ready for more, Dave" She demanded.

The doctor did his best to maintain decorum. "Sir if you please, please go around the side of the bed so we can...sir?...Sir?!" But the doctor's cries fell on deaf ears.

Dave's face was in a hypnotic trance, fixated on the overgrown woman before him. His cock had begun to harden of its own accord, and slowly expanded toward Jackie. "Yesss..." She moaned, her hands reaching out towards his growing member. "Come to me!" The slowly hardening cock crept up over the edge of the bed and rested on top of the mattress. As it continued to harden it edged closer and closer to her immense pussy lips. As it made contact, her swollen flesh latched on and began to pull him in. Dave, still under her spell, was slowly dragged across the room as her pussy pulled his cock into her. "All of it for me!" Jackie cried as her stomach expanded to fit Dave's cock, now as wide as a telephone pole.

The doctor couldn't watch. He turned and ran back into the hall, and then from the building. As he ran down the street, he could hear the primal screams of Jackie and Dave's lovemaking for another mile.
