

Grower Not a Shower

By TROGDOR297

June sat back in her booth with frustration. She tossed her phone on to the table not wanting to look at it. She couldn't believe another date had stood her up at the last minute. This was the 3rd time this month. What was wrong with the men in this city? She thought, downing her drink.

She was a woman of Korean descent, with long black hair, bangs in the front, and a slim beautiful face framed by her elegant cheek bones. Her actual name was Seo-Jun, but having grown up in America she'd always just gone by June.

She looked around the bar, it was fairly empty, which had been on purpose. She'd scheduled her date for a Wednesday night, so the place would be quiet. This was her favourite place to go on dates, she loved their cocktails here. But now looking around the room, the place seemed depressing. She just wanted someone to talk to, to try and salvage this evening, but what few other people were already here were all sitting in groups or in pairs. But as her eyes scanned the room, she spotted a man with his back to her at the end of the bar. She exited her booth and set off across the room towards him. Any port in a storm, so they say.

She slid onto the stool beside him. "Hello" She said, getting his attention.

He looked over at her, and gave her a quick smile. "Hi" He replied, before returning his attention to his drink. He was a man in his late twenties, short dark hair, just starting to grey. He wore glasses, and his face bore a well trimmed beard. He was handsome in a rugged sort of way. He wore a black suit, with a white shirt with the collar undone, a loose green tie sat around his neck.

She prodded him further. "Are you...waiting for someone?"

He shook his head. "No, no, I'm here alone. I just really love..."

"...The cocktails" She finished his sentence. He looked back at her and smiled. "Yeah! Best in the city, right?"

She nodded "Absolutely" She waved to the bartender and ordered herself another.

"So, what about you?" He asked as he sipped his drink.

"Oh, I got stood up by my date" She said, frowning.

"What! That's crazy, who wouldn't want to go on a date with you?" He said, looking flabbergasted.

She shrugged. "A lot of guys I guess"

"A lot of idiots, sounds like" He said, finishing his drink, and then ordering a second. He gave her a warm smile.

She smiled back, brushing her hair behind her ear. "So, what's your name?" She asked.

"Jeff. Jeff Thomson" he said extending a hand.

"June" She said, taking it in her own and shaking.

And so, the night continued, the two of them talking and flirting, as they consumed several more of the city's best cocktails. June was utterly charmed by the man, he was handsome, funny, flirty in a non-aggressive sort of way. After a few hours she had completely forgotten that she'd been stood up in the first place.

The clock on the wall chimed, 11pm. "Oh man, it's getting late" Jeff said as he handed his credit card to the bartender to pay both his and June's tab.

June slapped his arm. "Hey, you didn't have to do that. I can pay for my own drinks!"

He gave her a smile. "Well, I figured with the night you've had, I'd do you a solid. Maybe next time you can buy"

June nodded "Ok, next time then"

Jeff stood and made for the door. "It was really nice to meet you June" He said, walking backwards towards the exit.

She followed him. "Wait! We...we don't have to say goodbye just yet. My place is just around the corner?" She cocked her head and gave him a coy smile.

A look of panic crossed his face.

"What?" She asked. "What is it?"

He tried to hide it with a smile, but he still looked stressed. "Nothing, it's nothing. I just haven't gone home with anyone...in awhile"

June smiled and grabbed his hand. His nervousness was cute. "Don't worry Jeff. I won't bite" She said with a wink.

A few minutes later she pulled him through the door of her apartment. "Come here you" She said, dragging him by his collar over to her couch. With a push, she sat him down and then got on top, straddling his lap.

She felt his hands grasp her around her back, and pull her in. She gently grabbed his face and began to kiss him passionately. His hands ran up and down, exploring her body. He ran one through her hair, while the other grabbed her ass. She smiled as she kissed him. He was a good kisser, and she liked the way his beard tickled her face.

But June hadn't brought him back to her apartment, just to make out. With an impish grin, she reached down in front of her to undo his belt. But as she tugged on it, his hand grabbed her around the wrist, stopping her.

"What?" She asked, a bit annoyed. "Do you not want to?" She then blushed feeling a bit embarrassed at her assumption.

"No...it's not that I don't want to...its just" The panicked look had returned to his face.

"Just what!" She asked, sitting back on his thighs, and crossing her arms.

"It's just that...I'm a virgin." He said sheepishly.

She tried, and failed, to stop herself from laughing. "Jeff! Who cares?! That's not that big a deal, I'm serious! You just never found the right person." She gave him a smile. "But I can be that person, if you'd like?"

He shook his head. "No you don't understand...I'm not a virgin because no one wanted to have sex with me...it's because...well I think you'll only believe me if I show you" He motioned for her to get off, which she did, confused but also curious.

He stood and undid his pants, dropping them along with his boxers to his ankles. There he stood with his cock exposed. It hung from him soft, decently thick, about 5" in length. Her eyes went wide, he was already decently sized while soft, she was excited to see him erect.

"I'll...I'll need some assistance in getting hard." He asked.

She licked her lips, and nodded. "With pleasure"

She stepped forward, and stood beside him. With one hand she gripped his cock and began to slowly stroke it. He turned his head towards her, and they began to make out once more. In her hand she could feel his cock thrum as it started to stiffen and expand. It was nice and thick now she thought, but as her hand ran along it, it still continued to grow. Wait, what? She thought.

She stopped making out with him, to look down and witness what was happening before her. His cock had grown to an incredible size. It was two feet long and as thick as a man's wrist, but still with each beat of his heart, it swelled further. Her eyes continued to bulge as his thick veiny sausage grew and grew before her eyes.

After a minute it had stopped. She gaped at the incredible cock that now stretched before her. It was at least 4 ft long, and 6" in diameter. Thick veins pulsed along its surface. The head of his cock was enormous, the skin shiny and red. She reached out and touched the top of his shaft, and the entire thing jumped. "Ah" He hissed. "It's sensitive..."

"Oh my god Jeff..." She whispered. "It's..."

"Freakish, I know..." He said ashamed. "This is why I'm a virgin, there's no way I could ever have sex with anyone with this thing."

"No..." She said, then she turned his face to look at her. "No, it's amazing! This is the most beautiful cock I've ever seen!" She said, fully serious.

"Wait...you're kidding, right?" He questioned.

"No!" She said, her gaze returning to his enormous cock. She walked forward, running her hand along it. "No...I'm not kidding" She walked off into her bedroom. She returned a few moments later with a foot long thick black dildo. She held it up to reinforce her point. "Look! I'm...a bit of a size queen. I've always loved big cocks, the bigger the better. But nothing's come close to fulfilling my fantasies until..." Her eyes returned to his turgid meat still quivering at attention. She licked her lips, feeling her mouth start to salivate at the sight of it.

A smile bloomed on Jeff's face. "Oh my god...You're serious! You actually...like it!"

She smiled back "Yes, I do"

His smile faltered. "But...even still....there's no way you could have sex with it"

She nodded. "No...no not yet...but we can still have fun regardless" She walked forward and took his hand, leading him to the bedroom. Jeff didn't know what she meant by 'not yet' but he really didn't care at the moment, for the first time ever someone besides himself was going to get him off.

"Here" She said, leading him in. "Lay on the bed"

He did so obediently, laying down onto his back. His cock straight up in the air, like a fleshy parking bollard. June quickly stripped down naked, and then approached the bed. Jeff stared at her, taking in her naked beauty. She was slim, but with a slight hourglass figure, her hips slightly wider than her shoulders. On her chest rested two perky c-cup breasts.

She rested one knee on the bed beside him, then swung her other leg over. She now sat straddling his. "Are you comfortable?" She asked him, turning around to face him. He nodded with a grin, "I'm perfect." She smiled and turned back around to face the enormous pillar of cock that rose before her.

She reached out and gripped its sides with both of her hands. As she did it jumped once more, but she held it steady. Then she began to rub her hands up and down its length. She marvelled at its size and girth up close, as she continued to slide her hands up and down his shaft. Behind her Jeff began to moan with pleasure as she massaged his enormous meat.

As she continued, she herself felt her pussy begin to burn with arousal. It was the largest cock she'd ever seen by a large factor, and she got to touch it and play with it. That fact alone turned her on immensely.

After a minute, his breathing became shallower, and she could feel his abs tensing underneath her. She slid herself forward, leaving a trail of her juices along his stomach and wrapped her arms around his cock, hugging it to her flesh. Her breasts pressed into his warm flesh, as she began to rub her entire body up and down his length. From her new position she could see his balls below. She hadn't noticed them before. Each was the size of a baseball; huge for a normal man, but they looked tiny compared to the shaft attached to them.

"Oh god...I'm close!" He gritted out. Hearing this, she squeezed his giant cock tighter, and pulled herself up to its head. She stuck out her tongue, and ran it around the edge of his glans, which stuck out a full inch from his shaft, while she violently rubbed her arms up and down the underside of his member.

His entire cock shook and tensed. June wasn't expecting it and fell back from the force of the violent tremor. Like a geyser, cum shot forth out of his cock, with such force that it splattered on her ceiling. All she could do was sit back and watch as rope after rope of cum jetted out of his cock. Her pussy trembled at the sight.

Before she could react, she felt her legs pulled out from under her, flipping her body forward. Her face was now at his groin, her pussy now up near his head. She gasped as she felt a tongue trace its way along her lips, exploring her wetness. She was already so aroused from playing with his cock, that she came within a minute of him eating her out.

She watched in wonder, still reeling after her orgasm, as the titanic cock before her slowly shrank back down to the average sized looking cock it had first been. "That..." She heard Jeff say. "That was incredible, I never thought I'd feel something like that"

June rotated herself and rested her head on his shoulder. "I never thought I'd get touch a cock like that, so I guess this is a first for both of us" She said, kissing him on the cheek. He kissed her back on the forehead. Still wrapped in each others arms, they drifted off to sleep.

The next morning, they awoke together, and Jeff left, although not before getting her number and giving her a kiss. They would certainly be seeing each other again.

June sat at her computer, and pulled up a search engine. She typed in "Inflatable Dildo" and then perused through the results. It was true that there was no way she could take his cock inside her as she was right now. But...if she practiced, and built up to it...maybe there was a chance. And if there was a chance for her to experience her ultimate fantasy, then she would take it.

Over the next few weeks, June and Jeff saw each other multiple times. Each time followed the same pattern. Meet at their favourite bar for drinks, then go back to her apartment where she would worship his cock with all of her body, and then he would eat her out to finish her off.

All through this time, June began to practice stretching herself. After a few weeks she could comfortably inflate the dildo inside her pussy up to 3" in diameter. An incredible achievement for certain, but still a long way from taking Jeff's gigantic meat.

As they lay in bed after another session, Jeff's cock retracting down to its manageable size, June got up on her elbows and looked Jeff in the face. "Jeff baby...tell me...what are your fantasies?" She asked innocently.

He looked at her with surprise. "What?"

She slapped his chest playfully. "Don't you what, me! You know what I mean...what are your fantasies, what do you truly desire!"

Jeff looked off. "Nothing! You're perfect, these past few weeks with you have been the happiest I've ever been, I couldn't ask for anything else"

June smiled "That's very sweet of you to say...but I don't believe you! I doubt that me, a skinny south Korean girl, is your be all and end all for sexual desire"

He reached down and slapped her behind. "A skinny south Korean girl, with a nice ass!" He corrected her.

She frowned at him. "Jeff, I'm serious. I want to know. You already know what my ultimate fantasy is, it's only fair that I know yours!"

He said nothing for a few seconds, then sighed. "Alright, fine...I've always been turned on by... really curvy girls. Like...enormous tits and ass. But I mean that's just a fantasy, I like you just the way you are!" He said enthusiastically.

June smiled and rested her head on the pillow. "Thank you for telling me, Jeff."

Jeff sighed. He didn't want to mess up things with June by scaring her off, making her think that he wasn't attracted to her. The truth is he was, he thought she was one of the most beautiful girls he'd ever met. But that didn't change the fact that in terms of sexual desire, he wouldn't say no to her being curvier.

Two weeks had gone by, and Jeff hadn't heard from June since their last meetup. He'd texted her a few times throughout the week, but got no responses. I guess I did scare her off. Jeff thought as he sat alone in their bar, having one of their trademark drinks.

From his pocket his phone buzzed. A text from June! He opened it. "Come ;)" was all it said.

Jeff didn't hesitate a second. He slapped a few bills on the counter to pay for his drink, and then set off for her apartment. As he approached her building, he got a second text. "The doors open <3" As he rode the elevator up, he was anxious with excitement. He'd really missed June these past two weeks and was very happy that she'd messaged him.

He opened the door and walked into her apartment. She was nowhere in sight. "June?" He called out. "In here..." She sang from the bedroom. In his pants he felt his cock begin to stir. 'Not yet!' he said to it, as he ran down the hall. He burst into her room, and his jaw dropped at what he saw.

June was sitting on the edge of the bed wearing nothing but a thong, and a lace bra. But that's not what drew his attention. What drew his attention was what filled the thong and bra. Out of her lacy top burst a pair of impossibly round tits, each jutting out from her chest, ignorant of gravity. Down below, he'd always liked her hips, but had found them to be a little flat. Now each cheek rounded out away from her body, a proper bubble butt.

"June...holy shit" He breathed.

She stood and strutted over towards him, shaking her ass back and forth as she walked. "You like it, big boy" She asked. He nodded silently. His cock was starting to swell in his pant leg.

"Mmm good" She said, grabbing him by the tie and pulling him in for a deep kiss. His hands reached forward, and found her tits. They each filled his hand, firm yet soft. As he groped her, he heard the sound of his belt being removed and his pants falling away. His cock sprung up from its prison, and she caught it, holding it against the side of her waist. He pulled back from her kiss. "What! How!" Was all he could say.

She gently caressed the side of his monster cock as she spoke. "Well baby, I thought it was only fair, since you're already my ultimate fantasy, that I become yours" She gave him a smile. "Am I big enough yet?" She asked, gently teasing.

He looked her up and down. Her curves were incredible. Her round fake tits, sitting high on her chest. Her round ass, sticking out from her backside. As she saw him looking at it, she shook her hips, causing her ass to jiggle like a bowl of jelly. He was mesmerized, but even still, she wasn't yet his ultimate fantasy...

"I mean..." he said, not wanting to be rude.

She smiled. "Don't worry Jeff baby, I know I'm not. I'm far from done getting bigger for you." She leaned forward and kissed him again. She rubbed her hand up and down his cock once more and he shuddered at her touch. She pulled back and walked over to the bed. "Oh there's one more thing...I've been practicing" She said mischievously.

Jeff looked over to her shelf. There sat a number of increasingly larger and larger dildos, the last one capable of inflating larger. "You don't mean..." He said, his cock jumping and twitching with excitement.

She winked at him. "Maybe...only way to know is to try" She got up on the bed, and got on her knees, raising her ass towards him. She shook her lower body, her behind jiggling enticingly. "Come on baby" She teased. "Let's see what I can do"

He gulped and walked over holding his cock up, and aiming it towards her. "Don't be shy now" She said, leaning forward resting her torso on her firm tits. She reached her arms back and spread herself. There was her pussy, moist and inviting, but still it looked so small...

He approached and touched his tip to her entrance. "Oh my god...I can feel it" She moaned. "So big! Come on, I'm ready!"

He gulped, and gently pushed forward, applying pressure to her entrance. As he did, he could see the lips begin to spread wider. He could feel her wetness on his tip, and so he pushed in a little more. "Ohh Fuck!" She cried, as just his tip had already spread her cunt an enormous amount.

He slid a bit further, but then stopped. As he leaned forward, he felt resistance. Her pussy would open no wider. "June baby" he said. "I think that's as far as it can go"

She moaned. "Ohhhh, don't pull it out just yet, it feels so good to be stretched this much" She reached back under her and began to finger her clit aggressively, as the tip of his cock spread her pussy lips open 4" wide. She pushed back on his tip, trying to slide it further into her, but it wouldn't budge. After several seconds of trying to force it in, she gave a heavy groan as she came hard.

He then pulled out of her; the tip of his cock soaked with her fluids. She laid face down panting for a few seconds, but then flipped over onto her back. "Come here baby, time for a tit-fuck" She put a hand on each tit and squeezed them together invitingly.

Jeff lifted his cock and stepped forward, before dropping it onto her awaiting form. It slapped down hard on her body, its head resting just under her chin. "Oof" She cried out at the impact. Jeff started to apologize, but she didn't seem at all upset, as she wrapped her legs around his base, and began to rub her tits up and down his shaft. "You like that baby?" She asked as she continued to massage his column of meat with her spherical jugs. He grunted and nodded. She continued "You like my new big tits?" He moaned. "Oh, fuck yeah, baby, I love your tits"

She pouted. "Except...they're not big enough! Look how small they look next to your cock! This just won't do! I guess I'm going to have to make...them... Bigger!" At this last word he came harder than he ever had before. June braced herself as his entire load sprayed onto her face.

Jeff opened his eyes after orgasming, his cock retreating from June's grasp. He looked with shock to see her entire face coated, with a thick layer of his spoooge. "Oh my god! June! Are you ok!"

"Never better, baby! just...help me get to the shower" She held out a hand blindly. Jeff rushed over and took it, leading her into the shower. There they both washed themselves off, Jeff taking special care to help her get all of the spunk out of her hair. As they washed together Jeff couldn't believe his girlfriend's curves. Her huge tits and ass kept bumping into him whenever she turned around to grab whatever product she needed next. Each time she'd apologize and give him a coy smile, but he knew she was loving it, as was he.

The next morning, they sat at her table eating breakfast. She was still wearing just a thong down below, none of her pants able to fit her new ass, but she had managed to squeeze her bust into a t-shirt. The white fabric strained to contain them, turning almost see through at the edge of her curves.

Jeff couldn't keep his eyes off them, as he munched on the French toast she'd kindly prepared for them. She looked at him and smirked.

"Hey Mr. it's rude to stare!" She teased.

Jeff blushed. "Sorry, sorry. You're right" He looked back at his plate.

She patted him on the shoulder. "Jeff I'm kidding, I'm your girlfriend, you can stare as much as you want." She stood from the table and walked her plate over to the sink. As she went her big round ass swayed hypnotically with her walk. She looked over her shoulder after placing her plate in the sink. "So, you do like them?" She said giving her ass another jiggle.

Jeff swore under his breath..."Yeah...yeah I really do. I can't believe you did this!"

She shrugged as she walked back towards him. "It's not that big a deal, babe. Plastic surgery is extremely common in my culture. Although in south Korea it's usually just the face, and not so much 'this'" She said gesturing to her exaggerated form.

He looked her in the face. "I thought...I thought I'd scared you away. I thought I'd lost you"

"Oh, I'm sorry baby" She apologised cupping his face with her hands. "As you can tell I was away getting surgery, and I wanted it to be a surprise. I hope you're not mad at me"

He shook his head. "No, of course not, I'm just glad that you're still here"

She smiled her eyes bright. "Of course, Baby, I'm not going anywhere. And I wasn't kidding last night by the way. I do plan on getting bigger."

Jeff's mouth went dry. "...Really?"

She nodded "Oh yes, my dear Jeff. I saw how you reacted when I told you I had to be bigger. The cock doesn't lie" She smiled devilishly.

Jeff blushed again. "Wow...how did I get so lucky"

She leaned over and kissed him on the forehead. Doing so gave him a look down her shirt, her round tits pressed together into a line of deep cleavage. "I ask myself the same thing" She said as she pulled away. "Now come on, you've got to get to work, and I've got to go to the doctor."

Jeff was shocked. "The doctor?! So soon!"

She nodded. "I told you; I am going to be bigger. Now go, you're going to be late!"

A few hours later, June sat in the surgeon's office, as he discussed her options with going bigger. Her mind raced, thinking back to when she'd first sat in this chair, just over two weeks ago. She'd booked her appointment the very next day after finding out what kind of woman Jeff truly desired.

She'd always considered going down the road of plastic surgery to enhance her figure, but had never felt the right push, the right reason to take the plunge. And then Jeff had waltzed into her life, and laid his enormous fat cock in the middle of her plans.

God her mouth watered just thinking about it, its thick veins, its incredible girth and weight. She'd been working so hard with her dildos, and she thought she'd achieved so much, and then last night Jeff could barely get the tip in. Even still, that little bit had felt just sooooo good.

"So, June" The doctor droned on. "A young woman like yourself, with healthy elastic skin, could easily upgrade your assets relatively quickly. We put 1500cc's in each breast during the first procedure, but we could easily get that up to 3000cc's within a few weeks."

"And my ass?" She asked excitedly.

The doctor smiled. "Yes, we'll be able to increase those as well. Although before that I'd recommend perhaps building some muscle or putting on weight, to help support them"

June nodded agreeing, a big fat ass needs some big meaty thighs to support it.

"Excellent." The doctor said rubbing his hands together. "Then we're all set for your next appointment, in one week"

"One week!" She pouted. "We can't do it any sooner?" She crossed her arms over her chest impatiently. She knew Jeff wanted her to be bigger, and she wanted it too.

The doctor shook his head. "Sorry my dear, but we have to consider your health"

"Ugh Fine" She stood, and left the room. The yellow spandex shorts that she had squeezed over her huge ass, rubbed together as she walked out the door.

Over the next week, she and Jeff met up again several more times, both for casual dates, and for sexual escapades. They hadn't tried to fit Jeff's cock in her again, for as enjoyable the first time had been, it had left her quite sore. Regardless they had zero issues finding ways to enjoy themselves.

June had continued her endeavour to increase her pussy's flexibility. Now with the inflatable dildo she'd been able to stretch it to 5" in diameter. In doing so she felt incredibly full, as if her entire lower torso was being filled. She could only maintain it shortly before the sensation sent her over the edge of orgasm. It was incredibly impressive, but she knew she could go further; she had to go further. Jeff's cock would fit in her, that was a promise.

The night before her next appointment came, and she'd invited Jeff over for dinner. After a quick meal, they scampered off to the bedroom to enjoy themselves, one last time before she became further enhanced.

"Wait here" She said, before running into her closet to put something on. Jeff sat on the edge of the bed, eagerly anticipating the arrival of his incredibly sexy girlfriend. "Are you ready, big boy" She sang from inside her walk in closet.

"Oh fuck yes" He called back, as he rushed to remove his clothes. Within seconds he sat naked, his cock already beginning to stir.

Out from the closet kicked a leg, slanting down to where her foot braced against the floor. It wore 4" black heels, and was draped in fishnet stockings. "Ohhhh fuck" Jeff said, already feeling his cock swell.

She stepped out of the closet and his dick shot the rest of the way up at the sight of her. Above her fish net stockings she wore a black corset, strung tight around her waist. On top was a black silk bra, that just barely contained her twin melons, in all their glory.

She sashayed toward him, exaggerating the swing of her hips with each step. She stopped and spun in front of him, cocking her hips to the side, showing off her ass. Across her round tight cheeks, the fish net stockings strained to contain her. "How....do I look" She purred, spinning once more, and squeezing her tits in front of his face.

"Like a goddess" He breathed.

"Mmm, maybe" She said as she stepped back, she spun once more and leaned over. "Have you noticed I've put on weight?"

He had noticed actually, that in their dates this week she'd been eating more than he expected. He hadn't said anything, because who was he to judge this queen among woman. Now he could see the fruits of her labour.

All of the weight that she'd packed on had gone to her thighs, providing the perfect base for her full round ass. In fact you could barely tell that she'd been enhanced there, it almost looked natural. Or at least it would until tomorrow...

"Oh god June...you're amazing. You're perfect!" He moaned, his cock twitching as she teased him. She stood up straight, and turned at the waist to look at him. "No, not perfect, not yet. I have to get bigger, you know? That's why I've done this" She said slapping her thighs "So I can get bigger for you"

Jeff could no longer restrain himself, he walked towards her. "Bend over" He commanded. With a sultry smile, she leaned forward, grabbing on to her dresser for support. She gave her hips a flick, causing her big round ass to jiggle, enticing him in. Jeff stepped forward and rested his cock between her two fat cheeks, and began to thrust between them. "Mmm" She moaned, encouraging him. "Soon my dear, we can do that for real" At the thought of him actually fucking her, he sped up his thrusts, the idea driving him wild. She began to lightly shake her hips causing her ass to jiggle around his meat as he continued to grind against it. He groaned and his cock began to twitch. As he did, she turned around, and pulled down her bra exposing her two round breasts. As she squeezed her tits together in front of him, she purred. "Come for me"

Jeff snarled as his orgasm shook through him, and jizz shot from his cock, painting June's cannons that she eagerly presented for him. With a single finger, she dragged some of his cum off her tits and licked it. "Mmm, thank you baby"

Jeff collapsed on the bed, his whole body numb. He could barely move as June walked toward him and climbed atop him. She crawled forward, straddling his face, and then pulling her panties to the size, lowered herself onto him. Jeff did his best to work his tongue across the glistening wetness of the huge woman atop him, but it seemed June was happy to take care of herself as she began to grind against his face. Below he felt his cock begin to harden once more, and as it rose up, he felt her hands grip it and pull it towards her. Two firm sensations pressed against his shaft, and he knew that she was squeezing it between her tits. He began to thrust, pushing his dick up between her twin mounds, as her arms held them in place. They both continued to writhe in pleasure, her grinding upon his bearded face, pushing herself to orgasm, him thrusting wildly between her huge round tits.

Between her tits June felt his cock tense once more, and feeling her own release coming, she began to grind harder against his face. As his cock once more began to spurt jizz like a volcano, he moaned below her, the vibrations from his mouth against her clit pushing her to join him in release.

Moments later they lay together in bed, June draping herself across Jeff's body. Jeff's arm wrapped around her, rested on her fat bubble butt. "You...are so fucking sexy" He said, kissing her on the top of her head.

"Mmm, thank you baby" She said, kissing his chest. "Now just imagine...how much sexier I'm going to be after tomorrow"

He tried to picture it in his mind, but couldn't. Images of their lovemaking within the past hour, were all he could focus on. "I can't wait" He said, closing his eyes and drifting off to sleep.

24 Hours later, Jeff was sitting at home, waiting to hear from June after she was out of surgery. It was nerve-wracking the waiting. He wanted to know she was ok, but even more he wanted to see her new body. She had already been the sexiest creature on earth, and now she'd gone even further. Just for him, and his cock.

His phone chimed, June's face appearing on his home screen. He unlocked his phone, heart pounding. The message brought both despair and relief.

"Hey Baby <3 All clear from surgery, I look fantastic! But you can't see yet ;) Doctor says I need to take a few days to rest, meaning no sexy time, and I know if I see you, I won't be able to resist! See you in a week!"

He flopped back on the couch. A week without her would be truly hell. But afterwards heaven would await him. He could do it for her.

The week passed slowly for Jeff. While they continued to text and talk on the phone everyday, it wasn't the same as seeing her in person. At least the phone sex did help take off the edge.

June would describe how sexy she was over the phone, never giving any particular details about size of course, but enough to get Jeff going. She would coax him and encourage him to stroke his massive cock, which the thought of would then get her excited. "Come on baby, stroke your big hard cock for me" She would cry through the phone, and Jeff would obey, both hands bringing himself to cum, with thoughts of June and her expanded figure on his mind.

At last, a week had passed and Jeff eagerly waited for a message from June. He had considered just going to her apartment and kicking down her door, but thought that may be a bit extreme. Thankfully he didn't have to wait too long. June sent him a picture of herself from the shoulders up blowing him a kiss. The caption said "Meet me at our spot"

Jeff jumped and ran for the door, booking it to the bar as fast as he could. When he arrived, the place was empty, like literally. No staff, no customers, no one. He walked in and took a seat at the bar, feeling very confused. He took out his phone and started to write a text to June, asking her what the fuck was going on.

"What can I get you stranger?"

Jeff looked up from his phone and took in an eyeful. Resting on the bar in front of him were two breasts, like a pair of basketballs, stuffed into a black tube top. The skin was shiny and smooth, stretched around the new implants she'd had installed. His eyes continued up past her delicate shoulders and neck, to see her beautiful face, which gave him a wink as he met her gaze.

"June...wow" He managed to get out, his mouth going dry.

"I know right?" She said with a grin. She leaned forward pushing her boobs across the bar towards him, the stretchy fabric of the tube top straining against her enormous tits. "The doctor had said they'd only be able to get to 3000cc, but I convinced him to push to 4000!"

Jeff could say nothing as he stared at her incredible new tits, his cock already beginning to swell in his pants.

"So? You think they're big enough?" She asked coyly, as she stretched her arms up above her head, causing her globes to jut forward. Jeff nodded silently, his eyes wide with lust.

"Are you sure?" She cocked her head to the side and gave him a pout. "You don't think they should be bigger?" As she continued to stretch, the sound of fabric starting to tear could be heard. Jeff looked up at her, she gave him a mischievous grin. "I may not be big enough yet, but I think I'm too big for this top..."

She began to roll her shoulders back and forth, thrusting out her chest each time her shoulders rolled back. Her tits jumped forward with each thrust, the fabric tearing a little bit more each time. After her 6th thrust, the fabric let go completely, the top falling to the bar in pieces. There her breasts lay before him, completely exposed. So big and heavy, so impossible round, the way they stuck straight out from her small rib cage. Her nipples which were originally a decent size on her c-cup breasts, now looked tiny stuck to the front of her fleshy globes.

Jeff could feel his cock filling his pant leg, as he drooled over her enormous tits resting on the bar. He reached forward to grab them, but she pulled back. "Ah ah! Not yet, baby. You haven't seen the other half yet!" She teased, as she began to walk away from him along the bar. She was right, while standing behind the bar he'd only been able to see her from the waist up. He watched as she walked down and around the end, striding fully into view. His cock twitched against his pant leg as he saw her full figure.

She was wearing her heels again, and a pair of black leggings, the stretchy fabric necessary to accommodate her exaggerated figure. She'd clearly been keeping up with her increased diet, as her thighs had increased even more, as had her hips. She had to be two feet wide at her hips now, but it was entirely necessary, he thought, to carry that ass. She stopped with her hands on her miraculously trim waist, and she turned giving him a side profile. Her legs from the side looked like a letter P. Her ass jutted out from just below her waist, going horizontal for several inches, before curving around to form her two enormous round cheeks. He had thought her boobs were big, but her ass was gigantic.

She turned back towards him "So baby? Do you like it?" She asked.

Jeff was sweating. He quickly undid his pants and dropped them, finally releasing his titanic shaft from its prison. It swung up sticking straight ahead, and slightly up. June was standing close enough that as it swung up it struck the bottom of her basketball sized tits that sat on her chest. She smiled. "I'll take that as a yes"

She stepped forward, pulling his cock up in between her jugs. As she squeezed around it, she could almost fully envelop his mammoth meat in her cleavage. "Hmm...still not big enough I guess" She teased, as she began to rub her tits up and down its length. As she did she ran her tongue along the underside of its head, tickling and teasing the sensitive skin there. Jeff moaned, and reflexively started to thrust into her. June smiled and stood still, just squeezing her tits tight around his meat as he thrust away into her. The veins on his cock pulsed, as he neared release. "Show me how much you love my body" She purred, and with a yell Jeff roared, and came, his semen spurting over her head across the room. "Good boy" She said as she gave his cock a kiss.

Jeff stepped back, legs shaking. "I hope you're not done?" June said with a pout as she walked toward him. He shook his head. His cock had remained hard despite cumming, still a pillar of erect flesh jutting from his crotch. "Excellent" She said as she leaned in and gave him a kiss. She took his hand and led him across the room, explaining as she went.

"I've been practicing more this week, and I think I've finally got there. I was able to get my pussy to gape a full 6"!" She said excitedly, resting her head on his shoulder as they walked. Behind them Jeff could hear the sound of flesh slapping as her enormous ass cheeks clapped with each step she took. They made their way to a low table, where June began to strip off her pants. She walked forward, and got on top of the low table, lying on her back. Jeff understood why she'd picked this specific spot. Her expanded ass cheeks raised her lower torso a good foot off of the surface of the table, bringing it level with his waist. She spread her legs holding them up in the air, exposing herself to him.

Before him lay her pussy, and he could tell that she had indeed been working on it. What had once been a cute tight little cunt, was now a ragged gaping hole. He knew that if he wanted he could walk up and stick his entire fist in her with little resistance. But that wasn't what he wanted to do.

"Come on, give it to me!" She begged. He nodded, and stepped forward, pressing the tip of his cock up to her hole. He slid in an inch, her newly expanded pussy able to take his tip easily enough. "Oh god...it feels so good" She moaned as he edged in deeper. They'd gotten half of the head of his cock in, when once again there was unrelenting resistance.

"Oh come on..." She whined. "It's so close...Fuckkkk. God damn it Jeff, your cock is just so fucking big!!" She cried with pleasure. She began to finger herself as Jeff pushed himself against her pussy, but there was no denying that it would go no further. June quickly brought herself to release, as she felt her pussy stretching to try and contain the head of Jeff's dick.

Jeff pulled out and began to stroke himself, still wanting to cum once more. June looked at him and smiled, then pushed herself up and got on her knees in front of him. She began to twerk in front of him, her enormous ass cheeks jiggling with motion. "Come on baby. Come on my ass" She pleaded. Jeff was hypnotized by the sight of her two cheeks gyrating in front of him. He gritted his teeth and felt his balls clench, as once more he came, spraying a huge load of cum, all over her wide jiggling ass.

She stood and took him by the arm. "Come on baby, let's go home" Jeff followed her in a trance, completely mesmerized by this goddess of a woman.

Over the next week, the two of them didn't leave June's apartment; spending most of the time taking turns getting each other off. In between rounds they relaxed, watched TV, and just hung out. One of their favourite things to do was for June to put on her old clothes, or at least try.

"What do you think Jeff? Do I look decent?" She said as she walked out of the closet. Each and every time Jeff saw her, he was blown away at how sexy she looked, and this time was no different. She was wearing what looked like a catholic school girl outfit, her old school uniform she had explained. The white buttoned shirt, she'd only been able to do up a single button, the rest of them strained too far apart, pushed out by her full round tits, to be done up. Her nipples could be seen poking through the white cotton top. She'd long since given up on wearing any kind of bra.

Down below she wore the plaid pleated skirt, customary amongst such getups, but it covered almost nothing. Done up around her waist, it extended down only just low enough to cover her pussy. Around the sides and back, it never made it past where her hips and ass extended horizontally from her body. When she turned around to show him the back, her entire ass was in view, each round cheek jiggling from the motion.

Just like every time she did one of these fashion shows, she got the response she was looking for: from where Jeff laid on the bed, the sheets began to tent up, before being pulled free of him entirely, draped entirely over his gigantic shaft standing 4ft in the air. She skipped over, her jugs and ass bouncing with each step. With a lick of her lips, she pulled the covers off, exposing his meat quivering in the air. She reached forward and gave it a hug and a kiss, before beginning to pleasure it properly. She got on the bed straddling his thighs, backing up until her ass cheeks hugged the base of his shaft. She began to twerk, causing her cheeks to jiggle and shake against his cock. Within a minute of this stimulation, he came hard, spraying jizz all over her back.

"Come here baby" He said, and she eagerly scampered up to him. He gestured for her to straddle his face, which she did so with joy. As she ground her pussy into him, he reached up and around and hugged her enormous ass. It was so large, that his arms could barely make it around to squeeze them. His tongue raced up and down her engorged gaping slit, teasing her clit with each pass. Soon she shuddered as an orgasm raced through her, the motion causing her entire ass to jiggle violently.

She got off from where she was straddling and laid down beside him. She gave him a quick peck on the cheek, to show her affection, which he returned. She smiled, but then sighed with frustration. "This has been the best time of my life Jeff."

Jeff nodded enthusiastically. "I'd have to agree with you June, you're the absolute woman of my dreams!"

She smiled. "And you're the man of mine...but I just...I just wish we could have sex"

He nodded. "I know baby...no luck with stretching any further?"

She shook her head sadly. "No...it would appear I've reached my limit. I just don't understand. I measured and it said I stretched to 6" which should fit your cock...but when we tried to do it, it just seems so much bigger!"

He kissed her on the forehead. "It's ok babe, long ago, I resigned myself to the fact that I would never have sex, so the fact that we've been able to do what we have is just amazing." He closed his eyes and rested, still holding June and her incredible hourglass figure to his body.

June laid her head on his shoulder, pouting. She appreciated that Jeff was so understanding and overall fine with the situation. But she wasn't. She wanted that cock inside her, she wanted to feel him thrust into her, filling her. She just hadn't figured out how yet.

The next day they woke up and had breakfast together. Today she was going back to the Doctor's for another enhancement. Jeff could hardly believe it when she told him as they ate cereal together. June sat with her tits resting on the table, as she continued to eat her breakfast.

"I told you Jeff, I'm going to be your dream girl, and I've long suspected that that involves me being bigger than this." She said simply, as she scooped up another spoonful of cereal.

A heavy thud shook the table, spilling milk from both their bowls. Jeff's cock had sprung up from out of his robe and struck the table aggressively. She smirked. "See? He wants me to be bigger" She stood and walked over to him, pulling his face to hers and giving him a deep kiss. "I'll see you in a week, my love" She headed for the door, hips swaying wildly, ass cheeks clapping loudly with each step.

Jeff finished his breakfast and went home. Another week without June would be torture...but he would have to manage.

A week later June messaged him. "I'm ready for you baby, come over, and bring a black tie" He thought the request was odd, but had no second thought over it. He rushed over, excitement overwhelming him. He got to her door and tried the knob but it was locked. After a few seconds he received a text. "Put the tie over your eyes, like a blindfold" He shrugged, it was strange but he would do anything for this woman. He texted back. "Done." In front of him he heard the door unlock and open.

"Come in Baby" She beckoned.

He stepped forward carefully, not wanting to bump into anything. He felt the soft touch of her hand on his wrist, and obediently followed as she guided him on.

"I can't wait to show you how big I am, my love, but I can't just yet" She said as she led him in to her apartment.

"Why not?" He asked curious.

"Because I had a revelation this week" She said. Ahead, he heard the sound of her bedroom door opening as they walked through the threshold. "I was practicing stretching myself with my inflatable dildo, and then it hit me. I knew then how we were going to have sex."

"How?" He asked, still not understanding.

She giggled. "By using you like an inflatable dildo!" She said excitedly. "I can obviously fit your cock while it's soft, so all we need to do is have you inside me first, and then get hard! That's why you're wearing the blindfold...because if you saw me I'm pretty sure you'd get hard instantly" She chuckled.

Jeff swallowed audibly. Was this really going to happen?

She dropped his hand, and he could hear her getting on the bed. In front of him he heard the sound of fingers rubbing something slick with moisture. "Do you hear that baby? Do you hear how wet I am for you?" He nodded, in his pants he could feel his cock begin to stir. He quickly took off his trousers, and blindly made his way to the bed.

"That's it baby, a little closer" Then he felt a hand touch the tip of his slowly swelling cock, and pull forward. He stepped closer, letting her guide his tip into her. Soon he felt her warm wetness envelop his still small cock, up to its base. "Ok, now take off your blindfold" She commanded. Without hesitation he ripped it off, finally getting to see June in her new form.

She laid on the bed before him, looking up at him, or at least he thought she was. He couldn't see her face past her tits. They sat on her chest sticking straight out from her body, incredibly large and round. "Oh my god" He whispered. She reached forward and pulled her tits apart, allowing him to see her smiling face below. "10,000cc in each, my love. All for you" He felt himself begin to salivate as he took them in. They jutted out a full 18" from her ribcage, and were each at least that wide, sticking far out past the edges of her frame.

His gaze traced down her body. Her waist was still remarkably trim, her lucky genetics pushing all the extra calories she had consumed into her thighs. Then just below her waist her hips billowed out, extending at least a foot out on both sides. Her legs had thickened to support the base of her tremendous hourglass, and were each almost a foot thick. Her ass remained a mystery, as it sunk deep into the mattress below her.

As he gaped at her form, he could feel his cock begin to swell within her wetness below. "Mmm...here we go" she moaned. His shaft began to thicken and lengthen, Jeff having to step back to accommodate the growth. After a few moments it had stretched to 4" in diameter, filling her pussy to its current comfortable state, but he was not done. Blood coursed into his shaft as lust for his newly enhanced woman filled him. "Oh God!" She cried. "Its amazing...feeling it stretching me out...Fuck! Fu..." She went silent as his cock finished expanding within her. The pressure on the head of his dick was intense. He could feel the top and bottom of her hip bones pressing against him. He was inside her, his cock fitting within her, but he didn't make a move, she still hadn't made a sound. Had he hurt her?

"Baby? Are you ok?" He asked from where he stood three feet away from her. The entire head of his cock was inside her, and he could feel her pussy contracting around it, resisting against the incredible girth of him.

She propped herself on her elbows, sweat on her brow. "Is...is it in?" She asked. He nodded. "Yeah..it's in"

She flopped back down on the bed. "Holy shit...I did it. We did it!" Jeff still didn't move, not wanting to cause any damage. "How does it feel?" He asked.

Her entire body shuddered as an orgasm rocked through her. "Does that answer your question?" She asked after recovering from the sudden release.

His cock quivered, as he stood still, its head still plunged within her. "Do you want me to..."

"To fuck me? Yes Jeff, yes I do" She commanded.

Slowly he began to push his cock deeper into her. Her pussy was incredibly tight, but unlike before he felt no unyielding resistance. He pressed further slowly, until he'd gone in 6" more and hit bottom. He could see the bulge in her lower abdomen, where his cock was pressing into her body, pushing her organs out of the way to make way for his tremendous shaft.

June moaned and screamed with pleasure, as he pushed himself in to the end. He slowly began to pull out to repeat the process. As he did so June pulled her tits apart once more to address. "Jeff..."

He froze "Yes baby! Are you ok?"

Her face was serious. "I asked you to fuck me. So please, fuck me"

Without hesitation he thrust hard back inside her. "Ohhhhhh" Was all she could say as his shaft filled her once more. He began to pound into her rhythmically, each time watching the bulge in her abdomen push out as his cock stretched her to her absolute limit. Her tits flopped about wildly, slapping into her ribcage in time with each thrust. He grabbed each of her legs and rested them on his shoulders, as he continued to fuck her.

Jeffs mind had left his body. He was doing something he'd never done before; he was actually having sex with a woman. An impossibly curvy woman, with the biggest tits he'd ever seen. He felt his orgasm surge forward as he continued to pound deep within her, and with a primal grunt he thrust forward, and held it there deep within her as he released his seed into her waiting womb.

"Jeff..." She said weakly. "We did it...that was...wow...soo big...wait...what are you...Jeff!" Jeff wasn't listening as he grabbed her around the waist and flipped her over, still impaled on the head of his cock. His eyes widened as she settled on her knees in front of him, her upper body resting on top of her firm tits. Her ass was gigantic, spreading up and out from her waist like a pair of beach balls. He reached forward and slapped her hard across one cheek, the impact setting the entire mass jiggling uncontrollably. June cried out in pleasure as he did the same to the other cheek.

Then, with his cock still rock hard, he grabbed onto each enormous cheek and began to thrust into her once more. June's screams of pleasure echoed in the room as his unrelenting pounding stretched her to her breaking point. Jeff was driven wild with desire, at the sight of the humongous ass spread out before him. Each cheek had to be two feet wide, and shook uncontrollably with each thrust he pumped into her gaping cunt.

“Jeff...Jeff!..Please! It's..it's soo much!” She cried, but Jeff couldn't hear her. A decade of pent-up libido, the want and need to fuck, having gone unsated for so long, was being unleashed on June in one intense session.

June moaned with both pain and pleasure. She couldn't believe he was still going. She looked at the clock beside her. It had been 10 minutes since he'd flipped her over and still, he pounded hard into her. It was a weird sensation, having her entire internal body shift as his cock forced its way into her, but one that she found extremely pleasurable. She'd never been stretched like this, never had felt this full. She groaned again as yet another orgasm hit her. She'd lost count of how many she'd had. She'd lost count of how many he'd had as well. He grunted as once again she felt his warm spoooge fill her up deep inside, and then be pushed out of her as his unyielding cock continued to fuck her.

Her arms and legs had given out on her, she was just laying on her tits, with her lower half being supported by his cock which continued to slam into her. As another orgasm hit her, and she felt her body creep towards unconsciousness she felt him pull out. As he did, she heard a loud slop as several loads of cum slid out of her onto the floor. She meekly pushed herself up and stood, legs feeling like jelly. She reached down to feel herself. Her entire cunt was swollen and red, still stretched beyond belief. She'd done it, she'd had sex with his incredible cock.

Jeff was across the room leaning on her dresser, breathing heavily. His cock was still hard, but exhaustion gripped his body, his eyes half closed as he gulped in air.

She walked over to him, still dripping cum on to the floor out of her torn up pussy. Her gigantic bubble butt forced her to swing her hips as she walked, each step sending the mountains of flesh jiggling, her cheeks clapping loudly into each other. Her tits sat perfectly atop her chest spreading out from her body in all directions. Each tiny nipple, at the outer edges of her bust, sat stiff and at attention.

As she neared him, she took his cock in between her tits. Finally, she was able to fully surround his enormous shaft with her twin globes of tit flesh. She squeezed tight, feeling his cock twitch in response.

“So Jeff, am I big enough now?” She purred.

Jeff couldn't speak, his entire mind was still a blank. But in between her tits his cock jumped, expressing its excitement. June smiled hungrily. “That's what I thought”
