Nadia and her two goons were roaming the city. Her black hair and black silk blouse, combined with tits down to her knees, made her appear as a black hole with two little boob satellites orbiting her. Nadia enjoyed just being in public, letting word of worth do its work and spreading the word that she was the biggest in Tiniba. She was getting stares of lust from men and loathing from women, and Nadia relished in the attention. To her, as long as she had the biggest boobs, she could basically bribe or seduce her way in any situation. The title of biggest titties in all of Tiniba, nay, all of the Surian Empire was hers! Nadia was living the good life...till a little rumor reached her ears.

"Yer not the biggest!" Piped an old man sitting outside a clothing shop. "I hear that Carrlie FairFox is the biggest girl there is. Seen it myself!"

"Ha! WRONG! I've heard of Carrlie and I know how big she is. Your eyes are going blind old man, because if you have seen her then, you'd know mine are bigger." Nadia said in a fury.

"Nope, she's still bigger. The nice girl went and got bigger again somehow! I'll say, women wish they knew her secret. She ain't even wearing any engorgement charms!"

"LIAR!" Nadia screamed, her two friends cringing back, knowing how angry she can get.

"Let's see here... yer's about to yer knees? Well Carrlie's got them 'bout half way down her shins now! To her ankles if ye count her nipples. Her friend Bridget's bigger too, little less than you now I'd say. I'd watch out if I were you, or you'll be third!" The old man smirked.

"WHAT?! No you're lying, that can't be true! I'm the biggest, right? Right!?" Nadia screamed the question to her friends who nodded furiously, trying to quell her temper.

"Well if you'd stop yellin' and hollerin' so much and try to be nice for one sec, I bet Carrlie'd be kind enough to let you in on her secret. She's down by Perkin's fountain right now."

Nadia didn't waste a second, jogging off in the direction of the fountain, blood in her eyes and boobs bobbing up and down, her two friends trailing right behind. Soon they were close to Perkin's fountain, but not before they saw two boulder-like silhouettes in the distance. Their jogging slowed down as the three began to realize just what they were. Tits, the biggest they'd ever seen! Each was big enough to sit on, and that's just what two ladies were doing. Laying on top of one of the enormous tits was a slender redhead with freckles, wearing nothing but a nice pair of pants and a smirk on her face. The red head's right hand was stroking the head of the pretty brunette from before, the one Nadia had mocked for having only melon sized boobs, only now she had grown them to just above her knees! The brunette was sitting on top of the enormous right boob of her friend as if it were a chair, its thick dick sized nipple nestled between her legs. Nadia gulped as she slowly walked forward. She couldn't believe their size, she didn't want to, but she knew she had been beat. Nadia however couldn't handle this.

"So you're Carrlie... How?.... Who the hell do you think you... What kind of monster are you?!" Nadia screamed, stumbling through her sentences, for the first time unable to think of a meaningful insult.

"The kind of monster with the biggest tits in town! The kind of monster that doesn't go around crushing other people's feelings. The kind of sexy monster with raw, genuine boobs. No engorgement charms!"

Nadia went wide eyed. She didn't see a charm anywhere on her, She didn't believe it before but now it was undeniable. This only infuriated her more. "BAH! It doesn't matter if you use charms or not, just as long as they're the biggest." Though Nadia knew in the back of her mind it mattered to her.

"Okay, even if that's true, I'm still bigger Ms. Nadia Bellow." Carrie said, her grin getting ever wider.

"Gurrr" Nadia was finally breaking down. She tried to keep a smug look, tried to stay angry, but she couldn't, deep down she knew she was beat, everything was falling apart. She needed more engorgement charms! "Girls!" Nadia twirled to face her two frightened companions. "I need your charms quickly! NOW!" The girls looked at each other, holding their charms close to them. "I'll get you new ones once I've beaten this bitch! Now come on!" Nadia shrieked.

Nadia's 'friends' hesitated a moment longer, then regretfully gave up their charms, two each. Their boobs slowly shrink down from to their waists, to only C cups. This gave Bridget a smirk as she watched on with Carrie. Nadia quickly fumbled with the charms before putting all four on, making nine total charms in all around her neck. Suddenly Carrie and Bridget weren't smirking so much. Nadia laughed maniacally!

"Now you'll see what the biggest tits look like!" Suddenly there was a rumble in Nadia's boobs and small waves could be seen rippling from her nipples. Her breasts started to grow wildly. Surpassing her knees and starting to match Carrie. Nadia intentionally moaned loudly as her boobs swelled in power, knowing that she was about to win. Her small nipples touched the ground and kept going. Her boobs started to pile upon themselves as they struggled to find an area to expand, reaching further and further away from Nadia's body. Every one who wasn't Nadia had a nervous look on their faces. The boobs were so big that they had pinned Nadia to the ground while standing! Finally the growth finished and her boobs now were about four feet bigger in diameter than Carrie's.

"HAHAHAHA YES! SEE, SEE! I BEAT YOU! Look at me, I'm beautiful!" Nadia said, obsessed with the judgment of those around her. It seemed her sanity had been lost along with her ability to walk.

Carrie frowned, this wasn't good. She couldn't just go drink more boobs juice and keep this contest going forever. Nadia would no doubt find more charms, Carrie had to find a way to stop this. Carrie could feel a sense of panic coming from Bridget, who was realizing the same thing Carrie had. It was then that an idea struck Carrie right in the boobs. If you can't beat em'... make them join you...

"You're right Nadia. You won. You're the biggest in Tiniba." Carrie said as she got up off her boobs to stand on the ground. Bridget also got up, first worried but then a smile crept upon her face. The girls behind Nadia looked relieved and Nadia herself had regained her smug composure.

“HA! I knew it. Now bow down!” Nadia commanded smugly.

“I would, but as you can see my boobs prevent me from doing so. Would you not rather like to hear my secret to how I have such big boobs without any engorgement charms?” Carrie asked, Bridget now grabbing hold of both of Carrie's nipples and tugging them over her shoulders as she kneeled down in front of Carrie.

“OF COURSE! What took you so long to bring that up? Quick! Tell me now.” Nadia said, her mouth gapping open with anticipation.

“It's my milk... FIRE!” Carrie screamed as Bridget had aimed Carrie's nipples straight toward Nadia's head. Bridget squeezed hard and two jets of milk shot off, hitting Nadia straight in the face, getting in her mouth and drenching her whole body in the deliciously magical milk.

At first Nadia protested, but as soon as she got the taste of Carrie's milk in her mouth, she couldn't help but start gulping down as much as she could. The spray lasted about 15 seconds before the pressure waned and diminished to only small dribbles leaking from Carrie's nipples. Nadia stood there in quite bliss, drenched in milk, enjoying the taste. Carrie and Bridget watch Nadia expectantly, but after a few moments of nothing happening, the two exchange a worried glance.

“Ah... that was delicious. I don't know how that was related to your lack of charms but... mmm... I could see a possibility of making you my personal milk maid, you are second biggest and I suppose that makes you worthy. Aha! AHHAHAHAHAaaaaaaguurck!” Nadia choked. Her face contorted as something inside her started to churn. Nadia looked between herself and the rest of them as the charms around her neck started to glow.

“Oh god I forgot! Lyla said that you should never mix different magics! I was wearing one engorgement charm and this happened to me, now she's wearing 9!” Carrie yelled.

The two girls behind Nadia looked scared and confused while Carrie and Bridget just looked scared. Nadia began to writhe and cringe as some power was stirring around inside her.

Nadia was able to blurt out, “What did you do to me!” before her a wave of unimaginable pleasure struck her. Her boobs started to shake and rumble as they grew slowly. Nadia's friends stood frightened as they saw Nadia's breasts not just expand, but absorb Nadia's back and butt! They slowly became less detailed till they just looked like the rest of the boob around them. Soon Nadia's legs started to be pulled in too, becoming part of the boobs! Nadia couldn't help but moan in pleasure until she realized that her arms and head was all that was left of her separate from her boobs. “AHHhh! WHAT THE FUCK?! HELP!” Soon her arms started to melt into the sides of her cleavage, her boobs increasing in size with every limb absorbed.

Carrlie and Bridget stared in horror at what was happening, wanting to help but with no idea what to do. Nadia looked at Carrlie in rage, wanting to kill her, but suddenly an overpowering sense of admiration and devotion consumed her thoughts as their minds began to link together. Nadia struggled to stay focused on hating Carrlie and maintain her sense of self, but all she could do was moan in pleasure as her boobs pulsed from the magic of Carrlie's milk and her engorgement charms mixing. Nadia felt her neck start to sink into her colossal boobs and knew she would be in complete bliss soon, beyond anything she had ever dreamed... and it was all thanks to Carrlie. As her lower jaw melted into her two human sized boobs, Bridget's moan was cut short and her eyes began to tear up. With only the top half of her head remaining, Nadia stared daggers at Carrlie, but then her expression suddenly changed to ecstasy and surprisingly, she gave Carrlie a wink. Carrlie was confused, thinking that there must have been some mistake, but then their psychic link fully kicked in at the last moment, and Carrlie knew that Nadia was in a heaven all her own, satisfied with what was happening, regardless of whether she had wanted it to happen or not. Then the last of Nadia's head sank into her boobs!

The 4 of them stood gaping, not sure what to say, each awe struck as they looked upon two 7 foot boobs with 9 engorgement charms hanging out from the cleavage. The boobs just sat there quietly for a few moments before the next change started to occur. The charms were still glowing and suddenly it became evident that there were 9 nipples on each boob, unclear when they had appeared. Slowly the girls watched as the massive living bust started to segment itself, separating into 9 pairs of breasts, each individual boob was as big as a beer keg. Suddenly Carrlie felt her connection with Naida begin to break, as each pair of boobs started to shrink away, magically flowing into the different engorgement charms! A strange slurping and sucking could be heard as each tit was stuffed into a crystal that was about 3000 times smaller than the boob itself. Soon what was once Nadia Bellow, the woman with the biggest tits in Tiniba, was now a pile of necklaces on the ground.

Again, everyone was quiet, completely flabbergasted by what they just saw. Some folks in the crowd started to whisper and talk of witchcraft. Finally Bridget walked forward and scooped up the charms, looking to Carrlie for more psychic instructions. Carrlie looked at the two frightened women that had been Nadia's entourage, now holding onto each other for dear life, afraid that Carrlie would somehow do the same to them.

"It's okay, we're not going to harm you. We didn't even mean for that to happen to Nadia... I'm sorry that things... escalated like that... As a sign of good will, please have your charms back." Carrlie said as she sent a mental message to Bridget. Bridget walked over to the two women, holding out the two pairs of engorgement charms that Nadia had taken from them. Both the girls looked questionably at each other before accepting the necklaces. They slowly put the charms back on, but soon realized that their magic was not quite the same as before!

The two friends moaned in shock and arousal as they started to change. Their breasts grew out rapidly to as large as beer kegs, but then a second pair of nipples grew below their first tits and another set of enormous boobs sprouted from the girls chests, the lower pair just a bit smaller than the original. Their physique and facial structures shifted too, molding their features to look more similar to each other... No, more similar to Nadia!. Soon the two girls, who had already looked quite similar to each other, now appeared as if they were twins! Their biggest difference being one had blond hair and the other had black. As the wave of pleasure subsided, the twins looked at each other briefly before quickly mashing themselves together in a passionate make-out session, groping each other's new boobs with abandon. Carrlie could feel new mental connections form between herself and these strange amalgamations, recognizing the touch of Nadia's mind now mingled with her former minions.

Bridget became turned on as she watched the four-breasted beauties fuck each other, and then a sudden urge join in on their orgy grew within her, feeling the weight of Carrlie's command upon her. Bridget smiled as she pranced forward with her boobs flopping up and down from the buck of her knees, knowing this was exactly what she had wanted to do anyways. Carrlie watched her new cohort of lovers with satisfaction, leaning forward till her boobs rested on the ground so that she could lay her upper body on them and watch the show in comfort.

As the orgy continued in the midst of the fountain plaza with everyone watching, Carrlie thought to herself about all that had been done. Nadia's charms each held enough magic to increase a person's bust size to nearly kegs, but instead of their growth power combining when more than one is worn together, the subject gains an extra pair of boobs instead. The wearer also receives several features reminiscent of Nadia, including a bit of her personality. Carrlie would bet that if any one person put on all 9 charms, they would become a new Nadia, thought what that would look like, who knows. Whoever wore one of these 'N-charms' would also become linked to Carrlie. The connection strength felt similar to how it was at first with Bridget at first, not total dominance but enough to force actions and read minds. Carrlie could feel how her boobs were connected to each of the N-charms, which provided an interesting new tool for her. Carrlie now had a means to temporarily force people to her will as long as they wore one of the Nadia charms. This meant she wouldn't have to worry about permanently making people her slaves, at least not all the time. Carrlie didn't really want to make a habit of slavery, even if they were forced to love her unconditionally, she wasn't super fond of having groupies like Nadia had, but she was willing to use the Nadia charms to her advantage if the need arose. One thing is for sure though, it's imperative that neither Carrlie nor Bridget put on the N-charms, else risk mixing magics even more and maybe facing something similar to what happened to Nadia.

Carrlie paused her pondering to watch the twins and Bridget continue to lust over each other, the feelings of pleasure being transferred to Carrlie finally becoming unable to ignore. Carrlie decided to keep the twins with her, since they were already used to being the supporting cast to the woman with the biggest boobs in Tiniba. She would call them Yin (blond hair) and Yang (black hair). As Carrlie carefully got to her feet and walked towards her minions, she became excited about the possibilities that awaited them here in Tiniba, or perhaps elsewhere in the Surian Empire. With that, Carrlie issued a new mental command, finally ready to join in on the fun!
