

BIRTH CONTROL - PART 3

BY TROGDOR297

Skyler stood before her bed, eyes closed. Her breathing was calm and measured. She reached down and slithered a hand into her panties. Her pussy was moist and eager for her, her giant clit only just starting to become engorged. She gently began to stroke her wet pink flesh. She could feel the blood rush through her, all leading towards her clit. With a slow pulsing motion it arised, like a balloon being pumped with air. Within seconds it was fully engorged, standing erect straight out from her body.

Before her she heard the shuffling of movement upon her bed, and then felt contact of flesh on flesh. A gentle hand grasped her clit and held it steady.

"Well?" Skyler asked.

"Sorry, Sky. Still the same size" Joy said. Skyler opened her eyes with a huff. Joy lay on her back before her, fully naked, her legs wide and held in the air. She held Skyler's pink shaft of a clit against her lower abdomen. There just beneath her belly button she'd drawn a line with permanent marker, indicating where the tip reached. Or more accurately where the tip had reached when they'd first measured several days ago.

"Goddammit!" Skyler cursed. "Why hasn't it worked! I've been taking those damn pills for a week now!"

Joy shrugged, hands still gripping Skyler's clit. "Who knows? Why did the first pills work for you and not for Lily? Maybe it's got something to do with genetics?"

Skyler shook her head in frustration. "I guess... I just really wanted this to work. I was totally fine with my size until I saw Lily, and now there's nothing I want more than to grow again"

Joy nodded "I know, love. We'll...we'll figure something out"

Skyler sighed, moving to step away from the bed, but found her movement halted. Joy still kept a firm grip upon her. "Joy, not now..." She said tired.

Joy stared her down. "Yes, now. You and I both know you won't be able to focus with your clit like that, and there's only one way to satisfy it"

Skyler rolled her eyes, but she knew Joy was right. "Ok fine" She said, as she grabbed Joy's ankles and pulled them up onto her shoulders. Joy smiled "Don't be such a downer, like you aren't going to enjoy this every bit as I am...hnnngggg...ohhhhh yeah, that's the stuff"

With a grin Skyler had brought her tip to Joy's entrance and then slid herself in, going almost all the way up to the hilt. After the previous weekend when their friend group had taken part in a rather impromptu orgy, Skyler had been much more open to sexual acts within their circle. She'd spent the most time with Joy, as she was the only one who knew that Skyler was trying to grow once again. She'd been the one to give her the new birth control pills, though they'd failed to achieve any results thus far. Joy had eagerly offered to assist her in any way she could, including satisfying her after their daily measurement sessions.

Skyler had been shocked at how easily Joy had taken her the first time they'd fucked a few days earlier. Joy explained while they'd laid in bed afterwards that she'd always been a size queen of sorts, and had spent a lot of time stretching herself with large dildos. Comparatively Skyler's clit was hardly a challenge to Joy's pussy. Skyler herself had no issue with this as it gave her the freedom to really go to town without worrying about hurting her.

Today would be no difference, as she fervently pounded her clit into Joy. With Joy's legs resting on her shoulders, it made her shaft rub directly along the upper wall of Joy's pussy, stimulating her G-spot with every thrust. The Asians eyes had rolled back in her head, as she was awash in pleasure, though she still continued to talk to Skyler.

"Maybe...mmmph, oh fuuuck yeeeeeah...maybe.. we can figure out...maybe we can figure out what chemical is triggering it...hnnngg, oh right there, keep hitting right...there...c'mon...c'mon...goddamit, fuck, your clit is so...so fucking good!" Skyler could feel Joy's wet pussy clamp around her rigid flesh as an orgasm hit her. But Skyler was nowhere near done. If anything she intensified her motions, plunging in harder. She knew Joy could take it. She had discovered very quickly in their first session that Joy was a girl who could hit multiple orgasms in quick succession.

"C'mon Skyler, Fuck me! Fuck me with your big Clllll-ooooohhhh" Another orgasm turned Joy's legs to a trembling mess. She would've collapsed had Skyler not been holding her up. As Skyler continued to thrust into her, she felt her climax building, and so slowed her rhythm, so as to savour the moment a little bit longer. Now when she slid in, it took her a few seconds to push all the way in, and then a little bit longer to pull out.

"Ooo Skyler, you tease." Joy pouted, her face grimacing slightly each time Skyler touched bottom. "I know I've got one more in me, so please fuck it out of me"

Skyler smiled, shaking her head "Oh no, Joy, my clit, my rules, and I say you have to wait"

Joy frowned "Oh you bitch, hnnnggg, come on, I'm so close!" A tremble passed through her abdomen, as Skyler slid in once more, moving only an inch a second.

"What's the magic word?" Skyler whispered, holding her clit in, filling Joy's pussy, but not moving.

"Oh, fuck you!" Joy said through a gritted teeth smile.

Skyler flexed her pubic muscles, causing her clit to jump and swell inside Joy's cunt. "Oh fuck! Please! Please!" Joy cried. "Please make me cum!"

Skyler braced herself with her feet and then began to thrust wildly into Joy, hitting her G-spot with the full force of her thrust. "OHHHHHHHHH" Joy moaned as her third, and most powerful, orgasm raced through her. Skyler felt her climax imminent as well, and let herself release, letting out her own deep throated moan of delight.

Minutes later they lay in bed. "Do you think we could really isolate it?" Skyler asked Joy who was currently texting on her phone.

Joy rested her phone on her bare chest and looked at her "I mean, maybe? We do have access to a pretty well stocked chemistry lab."

Skyler nodded. "Alright, lets go" Without hesitation she hopped out of bed, grabbing her clothes from where she'd left them on the floor.

Joy sat up with a start. "What, you mean now?!"

"Yeah! Why wait. It's Saturday, the lab will be empty today" Skyler said excitedly as she slid her panties on.

Joy laughed as she watched her friend dress "Ok then, right now...I'll text the others"

Skyler pulled on a bra and her favourite tank top, before throwing Joy's clothes at her, the garments landing on her head "Good! Tell them to meet us there in 30 minutes."

Spluttering Joy pulled the clothes off of her, glaring at Skyler. "Rude! Remember you need our help!"

Skyler rolled her eyes "Remember who put this idea in my head? I believe the words you said were 'I want to see you bigger' and 'I want to help you'"

Joy huffed in frustration as she pulled on her underwear. "I know what I said, no need to throw it in my face"

Skyler nodded "Sorry, you're right. I'm just excited is all"

Joy finished dressing and stood pulling Skyler into a hug "It's ok. I understand. Let's go find the solution"

Twenty Eight minutes later they stood in the basement hall of the engineering building. Craig was on his knees picking the lock to the chemistry lab. While the rest stood around to keep watch.

"Y'all are lucky I know how to pick locks, or this plan of yours would be dead on arrival" Craig muttered while he fiddled with the lock.

"Yeah, yeah, you're a real hero, now hurry up!" Skyler hissed.

Craig sneered at her, mouthing what she'd said to him in a mocking manner. Moments later, a metallic click came from the door, and then Craig swung it open. "Your welcome" He said sarcastically. The group rushed in, locking the door behind them..

“Ok, we’re looking for the chemical synthesizer” Joy said to the group “It’s a grey machine with an blue LCD screen on the front”

After a brief search they located it, tucked in the back of the room. Joy flipped a switch on the front and the screen lit up as the machine booted. A small metal tray extended from the front of the machine. Joy held out a hand, into which Skyler deposited one of the new birth control pills. Joy reached into her pocket and pulled out another pill, then placed both into the tray, pushing it shut.

“Wait, what was that?” Skyler asked confused

Joy gave her a smile “One of the original birth control pills you took over the summer, I had Frankie get them for me”

“Yeah, it wasn’t easy! You didn’t really give us a great description of the box, but eventually I found the one with the warning about hypertrophy on the back” Francesca said from where she was watching the door.

The machine whirred to life, complex reports flooding the screen as the machine analyzed the chemical makeup of each pill. A number of chemical formulas were highlighted with green text, identifying similar items within each recipe.

“So here’s what I was thinking,” Joy said as she started to type on the machine. “The last pill made you grow, this new pill has the potential to make people grow as we saw with Lily, but it didn’t work on you. So perhaps what we need is a synthesised combination of the two”

Skyler nodded “Yeah, ok, that could work!”

Joy smiled, “Here’s hoping.”

Skyler looked around at her friends. “Thank you all for helping, you didn’t have to do this, but I appreciate that you did”

While the others nodded their acknowledgment, Alex spoke “Skyler, please. All of our lives have been enriched by your presence. Everyone always promises how college is where people go to party and have a wild fun time, but the truth is, especially for people in our programs, that most of the time is spent just studying. And if it weren’t for you, I’m sure that’s what we all would’ve done. Instead we had an Orgy last weekend, and now we’re going to help you grow some massive fucking tits. I think that’s a fair trade”

Skyler laughed “Yeah, ok, fair enough”

Skyler stared at him, face serious “Oh, don’t worry Steve. If they’re as sensitive as they were over the summer, I’m going to be begging you all to touch them”

A metallic ding rang out from the synthesizer as a second tray above the screen popped out. In its centre was a single large white pill. Skyler reached up and plucked it from the tray, before it retracted back into the machine. Craig handed her a water bottle and she raised the pill to her lips. Before it entered her mouth, Joy spoke.

“Wait! I just want you to be sure about this. We don’t know the potency of this synthesized combination. It could have unknown effects.”

Skyler popped it into her mouth and swallowed it with a swig of water. “Yes, I’m sure. Nothings going to stop me now”

They all gathered around watching her as she took another drink of water, eyes fixed upon her chest.

She tossed the water bottle back to Craig “Y’all need to chill” She laughed “It took days before the pills had any effect last time, I doubt I’m going to just burst out of-” She stopped talking as a strange feeling washed over her. She felt faint, and overly warm, like someone had turned up the temperature in the room by several degrees. Beads of sweat began to form all over her, as her breathing quickened.

“Skyler?” Joy said, stepping forward. “Are...are you ok?”

Skyler shook her head “Oh god, what’s happening. So hot...help...please! My clothes...” Her legs were beginning to tremble, as her balance started to go. She fell back, into the arms of Kevin who stood behind her.

“Quick, help her undress, she’s overheated!” Joy instructed them. Skyler could do nothing but stand there limply as her friends quickly disrobed her. The cool air of the basement on her skin was nice, but not enough to bring her temperature down. Her breathing had become erratic and shallow.

“Oh my god, Skyler, look!” Francesca said. Skyler looked down at her body. Along her torso bright red arteries were visible upon her skin, as they pumped blood throughout her body. To two locations specifically, her breasts and her groin. Both were bright red as blood rushed into them. This was why she had started to feel faint, as her body focused more and more blood into her sexual organs. The reason became obvious shortly. The blood was to feed her new tissue.

Skyler watched as in time with her heartbeat more and more flesh developed on her front. Each pulse caused her breasts to fill out wider and deeper. Within a few seconds they were as large as grapefruits, but they didn’t stop. She felt a similar heat emanating from within her legs, so she assumed a similar situation was occurring there.

Her friends all stood and stared at the onslaught of growth that she was undergoing. Soon her breasts were the size that Lily’s had been when she’d visited, like two fleshy cantaloupes. They felt heavy hanging off her chest, as they were firmer than the pair she’d grown over the summer. Her breathing quickened as she felt the warm wetness of her lips press against the inner side of her thighs; her pussy had filled that space once again.

After two minutes of this, the heat began to abate. Her skin tone returned to her normal pale complexion, the arteries retreating underneath the surface. Skyler's breathing was still laboured as she stared at her new form. Her tits had grown tremendously, two massive globes resting comfortably on her chest. They were like a combination of her previous tits and the ones Lily had sported last week. While they weren't perfectly round, projecting straight off her chest like Lily's they also didn't hang so low as her previous ones. Instead they were a pair of full teardrops, spreading outward in all directions from her collar bone down. Their bottoms reached just below her navel, the outer edge extending out almost a foot. They were magnificent.

Skyler lifted her hands to feel their weight. They were definitely heavier than before, the flesh firmer. As she lifted, her nipples came into view. They were bright pink and engorged, another new development. She shivered with delight. She was so big now.

Her friends were speechless. "Skyler? You...you good?" Joy asked.

Skyler nodded weakly. "Yeah...yeah, I'm ok. That was...unexpected. But hey, at least we got results!"

"I'll say!" Alex quipped. "You look amazing!"

"How do they feel?" Steve asked.

Skyler gently squeezed her titanic tits. "Good...very good."

"And...how does it feel?" Asked Joy.

"What?" Skyler replied, unsure of her meaning.

"You...you can't feel it?" Joy said. "Reach between your legs"

Releasing her breasts, Skyler reached down to feel her pussy. The lips were thick and glistening, just like she'd remembered. Touching them brought waves of pleasure emanating from her vagina. She followed the arc of the labia up to their crest where they joined her clit. "Oh my..." She said as her hands came across the spongy tube of flesh that protruded from the peak of her pubic mound. Her hands gripped it and ran along it until she reached the end. Her clit had done its fair share of growing as well. She had been 4.5" long soft before, now she could wrap both hands around it. The girth had increased as well, as thick around now as it used to be when hard. She let it go, as she felt a familiar feeling begin to stir inside her.

"We need to get back," She said quickly. The others nodded, eyes still staring at her impressive new body. Alex quickly pulled off his sweater and handed it to her, the tank she'd worn here wouldn't come close to fitting. Even still, his oversized hoodie was stretched to its limit trying to contain her bust. Down below she had a more pressing concern. It would be futile to try and fit both her engorged lips and her larger clit into her panties, so she'd have to walk home with them loose. She pulled on the skirt she'd worn there. Immediately it was obvious how very visible her clit was, as it lifted the fabric of the front of her skirt where it stuck out from her mound. A few of them looked at her and gave her a look. "It'll have to do, let's go!" She said assuredly.

The group left in a hurry, her seven friends forming a clump around her. It was only a short walk back to the dorm, but it felt like hours to Skyler. As she walked her heavy breasts bounced and jiggled underneath the sweater, making her swollen pink nipples rub against the inside of the sweater. The sensation would've been very distracting if not for the other stimulation occurring between her legs.

She didn't know how she hadn't felt it back in the chemistry lab, because now she could feel nothing but it. Every step, her thighs pushed against her swollen lips, each almost half a foot long and an inch thick, causing them to rub back and forth against each other. This rhythmic motion then caused the soft shaft of her now massive clit hanging off of her to swing back and forth underneath her skirt. Each time it changed direction it sent tingles running up the entire length. She walked with gritted teeth, eyes half lidded, mind completely focused on not becoming aroused. She was failing.

As the crew stood waiting at an intersection for the light to change, Craig leaned over to speak in the ear of Joy, who was leading them. "Uh...we've got a situation here"

Joy turned around in confusion to see Skyler hunched over between them all, drool hanging out of her mouth. Out of the bottom of her skirt, her clit was now visibly poking out, and every few seconds it moved, forward and upward. She was getting hard.

Joy raised a hand to her mouth "Oh shit, we've got to hurry, or else our dear friend is going to break a few indecency laws. Skyler, come on we've got to hustle"

Skyler responded with a dull moan, her pace a slow shuffle. She was too consumed by the sensations rocking her body to deal with anything else. Joy groaned. "Fuck, ok, um...Alex, do you think you can carry her?"

Alex nodded. "Hang tight Skyler" He said, as he stepped in front of her. In one smooth motion he crouched down then leaned into her waist before scooping her up over his shoulder. This manoeuvre, while effective in getting her into a mobile position, completely destroyed any remaining decency she'd had. With her torso hanging off of his back, her tits had slipped free of the sweater, now hanging away from her slim frame, nearly two feet in length. On the other side, her clit hung freely out from her skirt, like a third leg, but still it continued to swell.

"Well...that could've worked better" Joy commented. "Whatever, no time to stress about it. Let's move!" The group took off at a quick pace, Alex doing his best to be gentle with the woman over his shoulder. But it would be impossible for him to be careful enough. Each step caused her entire body to shudder. Her huge melons hanging off her chest wobbled and knocked into each other, her nipples having gone even harder now exposed to the cool air. Her clit swung into Alex's torso with each pace, sending waves of pleasure up and down the shaft. Skyler's mind was overwhelmed with the combination of stimulation. "Guhhhhhh" She groaned as they made their way into the dorm building.

A very tight elevator ride later and they emerged on their floor, quickly turning and entering Joy's dorm room. There Skyler was deposited upon the couch. They all stepped back to give her some space, as well as ogle her. Resting on the couch, her tits filled her lap, two vast expanses of cream flesh, topped with thimble sized nipples. Her legs were splayed apart, as she couldn't fully close them any more with her vast labia taking up space, like an enormous pink head of cabbage. And in the centre of it all was her clit. It had become fully engorged by the time they'd arrived. It was nearly two feet long and as wide around as a pop can. It throbbed constantly, signalling its need for release. She rested her head on the back of the couch, breathing heavily

"What do we do?" Asked Steve, looking at the others.

"Same thing we do every other time she's been like this" Said Joy, staring to undress. "We get her off"

Skyler was completely oblivious to the movements of her friends around her. Her entire being was focused upon the pleasure provided by her new body. She said nothing as Steve and Alex sat down beside her, though she moaned with pleasure as they each began to massage and grope her twin cannons. Each of them used both hands to grab as much flesh as they could, as there was so much more of her now to grab.

"Frankie, Kevin, give me a hand" Joy asked, as she stepped up onto the couch. Offering her their hands, her two friends stood before her helping her keep balance. Joy looked down at the full length of Skyler's clit pointing up at her. It was much bigger than it had been this morning, but Joy still felt confident she could handle it. With one hand she reached down and grabbed the tip, as she started to lower herself toward it. Skyler moaned heavily at the touch of her hand upon her flesh, the shaft bucking involuntarily. Joy held it still as she brought herself down upon it.

Joy paused as she felt Skyler's enormous tip pressing against her pussy. Her confidence started to wane. While it did look bigger, feeling it was something else entirely. She breathed deeply, preparing herself before she sat down upon it. There was pain at first, but after a few seconds her walls relaxed. Then she lowered herself further, taking inch after inch of Skyler's huge clit. "Oh...fu..fuck" Joy moaned. She'd never been this full before. It was incredibly intense, feeling herself stretched in this way. Below her on the couch Skyler's moaning intensified as her friend slid further and further down. At last Joy could go no further. She looked down and saw that over half of Skyler's clit still remained outside her. Joy shivered at the thought, before pushing up with her thighs. She began to rhythmically move up and down the end of Skyler's clit, while her friends held her hands so as to keep her balance.

Skyler's mind was miles away, as the stimulation from her breasts and clit drove her wild. Words were beyond her, instead she just let out guttural grunts of pleasure as her friends did their best to bring her to climax. But it wasn't enough.

"Fuck..." Joy said out of breath "I...I don't know...if I can do this...for as long as it'll take to get her off" Joys legs were wobbling, her pussy aching. While it felt incredible being this full, she needed more rapid stimulation to achieve climax herself. And so she was left tired and unsatisfied.

"What should we do?" Craig asked.

Joy groaned as she lowered herself onto Skyler's clit once more. "She needs...fuck...she needs more...stimulation"

Craig nodded with understanding. There was only one part of Skyler that wasn't getting attention right now, her pussy. Taking off his shirt, he kneeled down between Skyler's splayed legs. Her pussy filled the view in front of him, each lip glistening and huge. It was almost too much to handle, where should he start? He reached forward and ran his hands along the fleshy lips, his touch bringing a more intense moan from Skyler.

While he continued to massage her outer lips with his one hand, his other he plunged down the center. He passed inch after inch of warm wet flesh, his entire hand and wrist within her labia, until he found her entrance. Gently he pressed two fingers against it and slid them in. As he slid them in he hooked his fingers up, and began to caress Skyler's own G-spot.

Above him Skyler nearly choked from the additional stimulation. This was a whole new level of pleasure that she had never even considered before. To both be fucking someone, and to be fucked. Within moments her climax built inside her and then burst forth from her with a wail of delight.

All at once her friends backed off, as Skyler began to writhe, every muscle on her body tensing and contracting in rhythm. Through it all she switched between desperate wails, and silence as the sensations overcame her. After nearly a minute she came down, her clit slowly shrinking and flopping over on to her thigh. Skyler was asleep in an instant, her body drained of energy.

Her friends stood around her, still processing all that had just occurred. "So...what now?" Steve asked from where he sat on the couch beside Skyler's still form.

Joy got down off the couch, and sat down at her desk, legs still trembling. "...I really don't know. This was a lot more than I expected. I mean, look at her, she's huge!"

Alex nodded "Fuck yeah, she is! Have you ever seen tits this big!" He said, gesturing with a handful of Skyler's mammoth mammaries.

Joy shook her head "No, I have not. I guess she got what she wanted." A shudder ran through her emanating from her pussy. "Fuck, that was hot, but... I didn't get off. Anyone care to assist?"

Every single male hand in the room went up in the air.

Hours later Skyler awoke. The room was empty, save for Joy who was facing away from her, sitting at her desk typing on her laptop. Skyler sat up gingerly, body unaccustomed to her new proportions. Her tits slid against her legs as her shoulders moved forward. With a heave she pushed herself off the couch into a standing position. Joy heard her, and turned in her chair.

“Hey” Was all she said.

“H..Hey” Skyler said back, looking down at herself. “So...that stuff worked, eh?”

Joy nodded, face concerned. “I told you the potency may be different...”

Skyler laughed “Yeah, no kidding. Fast-acting!”

Joy smiled “Yeah...so how do you feel?”

Skyler placed a hand beneath each of her breasts that hung down almost to her waist. She hefted them up feeling their weight. She smiled. “I’m feeling...pretty good”

Joy chuckled. “Satisfied?”

Skyler looked up at her “Fuck yeah. They feel and look amazing. And my new clit...jesus.”

Joy nodded “Yeah, its...its something else. Going to have to get used to that...”

Skyler took a step forward. The motion caused the lips between her legs to rub together, sending tingles through her body. Carefully she widened her stance, and took another step. It was awkward, as she walked bowlegged, but it resulted with no contact upon her sensitive labia. “Alright! I can make this work!” She said excited.

Joy stood and walked over to her. “Oh yeah? And what are you going to do about this?” She reached forward and casually patted Skyler’s clit that hung off her front. The contact made Skylers legs tremble.

“Whoa, fuck...don’t...don’t do that” She said with a laugh.

Joy held up her hands “Sorry, sorry. But seriously...you’re packing some serious meat there”

Skyler sat back down, making her entire body jiggle. It felt good. Too good. She gritted her teeth, and was able to suppress her arousal. As the feeling passed she found herself at peace upon the couch. This experience was different then the last time she’d grown over the summer. That time it had seemed like no matter what she did she always felt aroused, constantly needing to get off. Now she was extremely sensitive, the slightest touch being able to set her off, but without that stimulation she was fine.

She looked around the couch, searching for her phone. Joy turned and grabbed it off the desk and handed it to her. “What are you thinking?” She asked, curious.

Skyler unlocked her phone and went straight to Amazon. She immediately began to add a number of items to her cart. Two things specifically. The first was extra large dresses, they were the only thing that could hide her incredible curves and colossal genitalia. The second was high-grade numbing gel.

"If I'm going to function as a normal person, I'm going to need to dial down my sensitivity. So we'll start with this" She said as she checked out her order.

That night she spent with Joy, just laying together and watching movies on Joy's laptop. They were careful with how they lay so as to not stimulate Skyler lest things get out of hand. She found sleep difficult, as she had always been a side sleeper, but doing so now would squeeze her engorged lips together between her legs. And so she laid on her back, legs wide. Eventually she drifted off to sleep, successfully avoiding arousal once again.

The next morning her package arrived. She had Joy go down and retrieve it as Skyler had no clothes fit to wear.

Joy returned and tossed the package to Skyler who tore it open with vigour. She pulled out the dresses on top, placing them to the side, until she finally retrieved the large bottles of numbing gel. She popped the cap and turned it over, before squeezing a huge line of it along the upper surface of her clit. "Quick, help me rub it in," Skyler asked Joy who sat beside her.

"You sure?" Joy replied.

Skyler nodded, as she squeezed out more of the gel into her hands, and began massaging it into her pussy lips. Joy gently took the thick pink shaft in her hands and began to rub up and down, spreading the numbing fluid. It was powerful stuff, as very quickly she felt her own hands begin to tingle. As she rubbed, Skyler's clit jerked a number of times, involuntary reactions to the stimulation, but the numbing gel seemed to be working as she remained unaroused.

Skyler sighed as they finished. She reached down and grabbed the end of her clit. It no longer sent maddening tingles through her bottom, now it was just a dull throb wherever she touched. "Perfect" She said, standing. The quick motion once again caused her distended flesh to shake, but now she felt almost nothing.

She grabbed a dress, and threw it on over her head. This one was navy blue with white polka dots; not exactly Skyler's style, but with her current situation she didn't have a lot of choices with the dresses she could order. All of the ones she'd got were size XXXL, and were designed for women who were large all over. Skyler was only large in a few specific places. The fabric of the neckline covered her bust well enough, though it still provided her with almost a foot of cleavage extending down from her collarbone, but below her bust line, the dress hung off of her, her waistline and hips non-existent.

"Here let me help you," Joy said, as she ran to her closet. She returned with a belt that she slung around Skyler's waist before cinching it up. The effect was immediate as the fabric of her dress was pulled in. Now her incredible figure was covered but fully on display. Her tiny waistline with her incredible bust projecting above. She placed her hands on her hips and turned, showing off the dress. She looked amazing, although there was still one problem.

As she swung her hips back and forth her protruding clit swung with it, very visible beneath the front of the dress. Though it no longer brought her mind-bending stimulation, it was still indecent.

“Oh dear...what are we going to do about that?” Joy said, eyes wide as she watched it move underneath the dress.

Skyler reached into the order and pulled out another package, a set of stretchy nylons. Carefully she stepped into them then pulled them up her legs, holding the dress out of the way as she did. As she reached the top she pushed her clit against one leg and tucked it in as she pulled the nylons up the rest of the way. The nylons didn't sit right, as she couldn't pull them up all the way with her huge lips taking up so much space, but they held her clit in place. She released the edge of the dress, and swung her hips again. This time no movement.

Joy laughed. “Well look at you! If I didn't know any better I would think that you're just a regular girl. Well, a regular girl with the biggest tits I've ever seen”

Skyler looked down at her cleavage. Yes, there was no hiding these things, they were just simply too large to ignore. At least having large breasts wasn't the most crazy thing to have, unlike her other affliction down below.

She shrugged “Works for me! C'mon, let's get the others, I think we should go out and celebrate!”

An hour later the group walked out of the dorm together, chatting excitedly. It was their first time going out as a group, having only hung out inside before now, and they were looking forward to a good night.

They made their way to the campus pub. The sound of a large number of people inside emerged from the entrance as they neared. “Busy for a Sunday night” Skyler commented.

The place was indeed busy. They entered with Skyler in the lead, walking arm in arm with both Joe and Craig. The crowd of students parted before them as they entered the bar, all eyes becoming fixed upon Skyler as soon as they saw her. All these people staring at her, it was starting to make her hot and bothered. Since she and her friends had partaken in an orgy together, it no longer felt like exhibitionism when she exposed herself to them. But these people, they were strangers, and they were all staring at her, at her body. She felt herself go flushed; she liked the attention.

The group approached the bar. Skyler hopped up on one of the stools. She found her breasts were in the way so she quickly hefted them from below before plopping them on top of the bar. The impact sent shudders through the wood, drawing the attention of the bartender who was facing away from them.

"Hey there, what can- holy shit!" He said as he turned. Skyler smiled sweetly, hands folded over her cleavage, resting her elbows on the bar beside her breasts whose ends reached all the way across the bar. The bartender's eyes were fixed upon her cleavage, not caring that he was rudely staring. The thought turned Skyler on. The fact that she was this sexy, that this professional was staring without abandon, unable to help himself. Two little nubs poked through the fabric at the far end of her breasts, her nipples wanting to join the party.

"Hey pal, you gonna take our order?" Craig joked from the stool beside her. The bartender lifted his eyes, his gaze darting back and forth between Craig who looked at him with mock annoyance, and Skyer who just smiled innocently, as if her breasts weren't covering the entire bartop.

"Y-yeah, what can I get you folks?" The bartender stuttered.

"Can we get a pitcher, please?" Skyler asked politely.

The bartender looked at her. "Do you have any ID?" His eyes shot downward again. He'd just noticed her nipples, each an inch in length, poking through the blue fabric.

"No, do I need some?" She asked, raising an eyebrow. "Do I...look underage?" She leaned forward, causing her breasts to shift toward the bartender by a few inches. The bartender gulped as he stared at them. Though her tits had flattened slightly as they lay on the table, each breast still peaked 8" off the bar top.

"No...no, you're good" He said. His hands fumbled as he attempted to grab and fill a glass pitcher without taking his eyes off of her cleavage. He pushed it across the bar to Craig who eagerly scooped it up.

"Thank you!" Skyler said with a wink, before slipping off the stool, her breasts sliding off the bar with her.

"Jesus christ..." The bartender said as he watched them saunter off across the room.

The group found an empty circular booth to sit, managing to squeeze all 8 of them in. Skyler sat at the very back of the circle, giving herself a full view of the rest of the bar. Once again she'd rested her breasts upon the table, as she wouldn't have fit in the booth otherwise. While Joe and Craig poured and handed out the booze, she gazed around the room. From every side of the pub there were eyes staring at her. Most tried to be subtle about it, only furtively glancing over every few seconds, but some outwardly leered, like the bartender had. A few of the men who stared were there with their girlfriends. Some of the girls aggressively elbowed their significant others, before giving them a dirty look. Many of the girlfriends just stared as well, more fascinated than jealous.

Either way Skyler loved it. All eyes on her and her huge tits. If only they knew about her other surprise. Currently it sat snugly within the nylons, the numbing cream having successfully put her beast to sleep for the time being. She thanked Craig as he handed her a glass of beer, then began to join in the conversation going on around the table; various complaining about their shared calculus class.

About an hour in, and the group was starting to get fairly drunk. They hadn't bought another pitcher since they'd arrived, instead people kept sending them drinks. Perhaps they thought if she got drunk enough she may show herself off. Skyler laughed internally, she didn't need booze to do that, but she was appreciative of their generosity.

It was then that one of the patrons of the bar finally built up the courage, or perhaps simply got drunk enough, to ask her to dance. She recognized him from her fluid dynamics class as he walked up to the table awkwardly. "Hey...uhh..." There were muffled chuckles around the table.

"Skyler," She offered graciously.

"Right, of course! Skyler. We have fluid dynamics together"

She nodded "Yup. How's it going?"

"Good!" He said too eagerly. He swallowed and adjusted himself "Sorry, yeah, it's good. So, I just wanted to ask...um...if you...wanted to dance?"

"Sure!" She said cheerfully.

"Hey don't worry about...wait, sure?! Awesome!" His face split open with a smile, as her friends shuffled out of the booth to let her leave. She took him by the hand and led him to the middle of the dance floor.

They started to dance, though it was obvious he didn't know what he was doing. Deciding to take the lead Skyler turned and stepped in close to him, resting her ass upon his crotch. "Whoa!" He said, surprised at her forwardness, but he didn't pull away. They started to move with the rhythm, as she leaned her head back into him, enjoying the music.

As the song went on, she could sense his hesitation. She looked down and saw his arms held awkwardly at his side. She reached up and pulled his head down and whispered in his ear. "You can touch them if you want..."

Immediately his arms shot up and placed a hand on the side of each of her breasts. She let out a quiet moan as his fingers gripped onto her taut flesh. She felt him loosen up and get more into the dance, which let her enjoy herself more as well. She closed her eyes and let out a soft moan as they danced together. Though she couldn't see, she knew that people were staring at them, and she loved it.

Soon the song was over, and almost immediately another boy stepped up to ask her to dance, to which she gleefully accepted. This went on for nearly an hour, as song after song passed, each one with a different dance partner. Each was a little bit different than the last, but each ended up with their hands groping her breasts, which was starting to have an effect on her state of mind.

As the night went on the dance floor became more and more crowded, the music shifting from rock to house music. Soon she wasn't dancing with just one person, but it seemed like everyone. Her friends, the boys she'd danced with, the people she hadn't, everyone in a mass of writhing bodies as they moved to the electronic beat. With all of their bodies pressing together, it didn't take long for hands to start touching her. She couldn't tell who or from where, just that at any one time she felt at least one or two groping and grabbing at each tit.

She didn't remember if she'd done it, or someone else, but eventually fabric of her dress had been pulled away, laying her tits bare. No one said anything, no one cared, everyone just continued to dance while she was continually felt up by the crowd of people around her. Skyler just closed her eyes and danced, arms flailing in the air, while twinges of delight ran through her with each touch and squeeze of her tits.

Then she felt something different. A pleasing warmth emanating from between her legs as she danced. The numbing gel was starting to wear off. I should probably do something... She thought as she danced. But why bother, everyone here loves me, they'll love this part of me too...

At first she just felt tingles from her lips, then she started to feel it in her clit. Now each of the caresses of her bare tits brought a pulse of pleasure from her pussy, causing more blood to rush to her loins. She smiled drunkenly as she felt the stitches of her nylons start to tear as her swollen meat pushed against them. "Oop...there it goes" She laughed, as she felt the fabric tear. Her clit sprang forth, tenting up the front of her dress. Giving up any sense of modesty, she pulled back her dress slightly, allowing her clit to be free. Her friends around her cheered, as she continued to dance, now with her enormous clit on display.

A few of the boys who had danced with her, saw it and looked at each other confused. They leaned toward her, yelling over the music. "WHAT IS THAT?"

Skyler smiled before she yelled back "IT'S MY CLIT!"

The boys, not sure if they'd heard her correctly, asked again. "WHAT?!"

She pulled back her dress all the way, showing where the enormous pink shaft of trembling flesh connected at the head of her pussy, as well as her enormous lips below. "IT'S MY CLIT!" She yelled again.

As one the group lost their minds. "CAN WE TOUCH IT?" One asked.

She nodded enthusiastically "FUCK YEAH!"

Each of them surrounded her, and placed a hand around her clit. She bit her lip to stifle the intense moan that welled within her. Seeing her seeming discomfort, they all let go, not wanting to hurt her. "DON'T STOP!" She yelled at them.

With a nod they returned their grip onto her swollen clit. She shuddered with pleasure as they all continued to dance together. The dance party continued, but now with people fondling her nethers instead of her breasts. Her legs were starting to go numb from the continued stimulation; it was too much for Skyler to handle. "I HAVE TO SIT DOWN" She yelled over the music. She made her way over to the table where they'd first been sitting, and the crowd followed her. Before she could slide into the booth, Alex and Steve grabbed her and lifted her up onto the table, facing outward. Looking out at the crowd she could see dozens of eyes fixed upon her, hungry for her and her body. She smiled sultrily. "Well, come on then, don't keep a girl waiting!"

Immediately the nearest group of boys dove at her. One faceplanted into her pussy lips, his entire head disappearing within her thick pink folds. Two others were licking and stroking her clit at two different spots. Steve had gotten on to the table behind her, allowing her to lean back on him so she didn't need to support herself. Of course he'd also helped himself to a handful of her breasts, reaching forward to grope her as she leaned into him, but she wasn't complaining. Skyler moaned loudly as her body was awash in orgasmic bliss. Whenever a boy got tired, another one gladly took his place. It was an endless buffet of pleasure and she was the main course.

Skyler lost track of time as her body was serviced by one after another of the bar's patrons. A few times she even heard female moans from those pleasuring her, the other girls in the bar giving in to her undeniable sensuality. It wasn't long before her first orgasm hit her, sending electricity throughout her body for a full two minutes. Her voice went raw from her screams of delight. But the crowd wasn't done, and so neither was she. Her clit only drooped momentarily before the continued stimulation from multiple fingers and tongues stroking it, brought it back to full mast.

And so it continued, this endless dance of sexual pleasure. Skyler's body being rocked by orgasm after orgasm, each one coming sooner than the last. By the end she was pleading, begging for relief, but it was only when the lights came on at 2am did the bar relent. She was left a quivering mess on the table, as the group of strangers, seemingly broken of the hypnotic hold she'd had on them, slowly milled out. Her friends helped her up and carried her home, her legs not currently incapable of supporting her weight.

She woke late the next morning, body exhausted. She'd overslept her alarm by several hours, her morning class having already finished at this point. Not that she'd had any intention of going. She pushed herself upright, her head pounding. How much had she drank last night? She groaned as she stood. The motion brought a shiver to her body, as her engorged sexual organs flopped into place. Wordlessly she grabbed the tube of gel from her night table and began to liberally apply it to her pussy. Then she pulled on another dress, this one red with flowers, before tucking her clit into a new pair of nylons and leaving.

As she walked the campus that day going from class to class, she recognized people everywhere she went. It was almost as if the entire campus had been at the pub last night. No one stopped to talk to her, perhaps too embarrassed about what had happened. She was fine with it, it was a fun night but no need to dwell on it any further.

That night, after applying another round of gel, and getting into pyjamas (now just an overly long shirt, she wouldn't fit into any pyjama bottoms) her mind turned to Lily. She hadn't spoken much with her best friend this past week, partially because she'd been discouraged when she hadn't had any luck with her growth. Then after Saturday everything had been a blur. She'd barely had a moment to process what had happened. She unlocked her phone and quickly typed out a text for Lily.

Hey you, free to chat?

A minute later her response came.

Anytime for you! Btw got a new phone, we can video chat now!

Skyler raised an eyebrow. How did Lily afford a new phone? Skyler had always bugged her how she should get an iPhone so they could facetime together, but Lily had always told her there was no way she could afford it. What had changed?

She pulled up Lily's contact and initiated the facetime. Seconds later the screen lit up with the beaming face of her best friend. "Sky! Oh my god, hey! Where have you been? Haven't heard from you all week!" Only her face was visible, the room around her dark.

Skyler smiled "Yeah, I know, I've been shitty. Just had stuff going on" Inside Skyler began to feel excited, she couldn't wait for Lily's reaction.

"Hey, don't worry about it! Everyone's got stuff." She said with a smile. For a moment her face winced, before returning to normal. "So what's up bestie?"

"Well, I actually had something I wanted to talk to you about, or I guess show you." Skyler said teasingly. She knew Lily was going to flip out.

Lily nodded, her eyes shutting for a moment as another grimace appeared momentarily on her face. "Yeah? What is it?"

"Well, you know that stuff I've been...wait a minute, Skyler?!" From out of the darkness behind Skyler a masculine hand had appeared grabbing a fistful of her hair at the base of her neck. Lily had bit her lip as the hand tugged on it, tilting her head slightly back.

"Skyler, are you having sex, right now!" Skyler accused.

Lily smirked. "Guilty! Sorry babe, I was just entertaining my guest here..." She turned her head to address the person behind her "what's your name?...right, Trevor." She turned back to smile at Skyler "I was just having fun with Trevor, when I saw your message. I would never leave my best friend hanging!" She said with an innocent smile. Her lips trembled slightly, as somewhere off screen Trevor hit the right spot.

Skyler was shocked, although not as shocked as she thought she would be. "I think it's okay to leave me hanging while you're in the middle of lovemaking"

"Pfft" Lily blew air through her lips "This? This isn't lovemaking, this is barely fucking. We can easily talk while I do this" Her head turned to the side to address the person offscreen again “What? No, no, keep going, I’m having a good time.” Her head turned back to face Lily. “Yeah, sorry. I’ve just been so insatiable these days, you know what I mean?”

Skyler nodded, she knew exactly what she meant.

“So! What did you want to show me?” Lily asked. Her head now visibly moved back and forth in the shot as Trevor attempted to impress her with more vigorous thrusts hitting her from behind.

Skyler smiled coyly. “Oh nothing much, just this...” She pulled up her shirt exposing her full tits laying on her torso, moving the phone camera to capture them. She made sure to tilt it down to also get her swollen pussy and clit in the picture.

Skyler whipped the phone back to her face. “Wait...you aren’t surprised? To see me so big??

Lily smiled sweetly, her head bobbing faster as Trevor sped up his pace “No, not surprised. I had a hunch that you’d do something after I left. I guess I’m surprised that you made it happen so quickly? It took me over a month to figure out my work around. But I guess your friends were able to help you out?”

Skyler nodded, mouth dry. She thought Lily would be completely flabbergasted.

“Still, you look amazing, Sky! And your clit! Jesus! Don’t think I’ll be able to take that monster anymore!” Behind her Skler heard a grunting sound, signifying Trevor having reached his climax. Lily rolled her eyes. “Sigh...No one hits my spot like you did, Sky”

Skyler nodded with a sad smile. She was being silly. It didn’t matter that Lily wasn’t surprised.

“Well, I’m glad you like it” Skyler said “Although I thought maybe you’d be jealous like I was, now that I’m bigger”

Lily laughed “Oh honey...no, I’m not jealous...mostly because you’re not bigger”

Skyler froze. “What did you say?”

Lily disappeared from the picture. Through the phone Skyler heard Lily say “Go stand over there and be useful” The video shook for a moment as Trevor carried the phone across the room, before it refocused on Lily, now with her full nude body in picture.

“Oh fuck...” Skyler swore.

Lily was much bigger than the last time she’d seen her. Her tits had grown to enormous proportions. They spread out from her body like two oversized balloons, their bottoms almost reaching her kneecaps. Each one had to be at least two feet in diameter. Her nipples rested at the outer edges, the size of shot glasses, in the middle of pink areola as large as dinner plates. Resting without support, each leant slightly away from her body, leaving her centre exposed. Visible at the top of her pussy was the smooth pink orb of her clit, now the size of a baseball.

Lily laughed “How do you think? I just never went off the birth control!” Her hands rubbed the smooth skin along the upper edges of her gigantic tits. “After the fun we had last weekend, I decided on the bus home that I would keep going. That was just the first of many decisions I made this week!”

Skyler raised an eyebrow. “What do you mean?”

“Well I quit school for one!” Lily said, stepping forward and retrieving the phone from her unsatisfying lover.

“I mean, is it so crazy?” Lily said with a smirk. “Can I really be a nurse like this?”

“But...but...” Skyler spluttered “Then what will you do?”

Lily nodded “That’s the second thing. I started an Onlyfans!”

Skyler shook her head “Oh my god, really?! You’re going to make money by showing off your body”

Lily frowned at her friend “As opposed to you who just does it for free? No need to shame me sister. Besides you don’t know how much I’m making”

Skyler gulped “How much?”

Lily smiled “Well, just this week alone I got a new phone, and moved into a new apartment”

Well that explained that...

“So yeah, this is my life now!” Lily said as she laid back down in bed. A heavy whoomp sound could be heard as her tits collided with the mattress.

“And trevor?” Skyler asked.

“Who?” Lily said. “Oh right, that guy. I just picked him up off Tinder. He was close by and I needed some release. Wasn’t exactly satisfying, but no ones fucks like you, Sky!”

Skyler smiled weakly back. This was not how this conversation was supposed to go. Lily blew a kiss at the camera “Alright, babe, I gotta go. I’ve got another guy coming, hopefully he can succeed where gallant Trevor failed. By the way, come visit any time now, I don’t have school so I've got lots of free time! I'd love to see you and your clit again. Mmmm, I'm getting wet just thinking about it!" Lily bit her lip for a moment, before giving a little wave "Ta ta!"

The facetime ended, leaving Skyler in silence. She sat up and looked down at her body. She'd been so thrilled with it, so satisfied mere minutes ago. Now the wind had been taken from her sails. She opened her phone and Googled her best friend's name. Sure enough one of the top results was a link to an onlyfans page. She clicked on it, curious. Lily already had over 5,000 subscribers.

Skyler threw her phone on the bed, not wanting to look at it. Emotions toiled through her. But the one that bubbled up to the surface, same as last weekend, was envy. She'd had fifty people fawning over her last night. Lily had thousands. But what could she do about it? She looked down at her body, her breasts that jutted from her chest out to where they rested on her lap, the huge swollen pink lips of her pussy, and the spongy pink shaft of her clit resting atop them. Her life was already complicated enough at this size...No, she would just have to get over it. Lily had won and that was that.

But as the week went on she found this fact difficult to accept. Every day she continued her new monotonous routine: applying the numbing gel, getting dressed and going to class, coming home, doing homework, going to bed, repeat. By Thursday she'd stopped wearing the nylons, instead just letting her clit swing free. She didn't care anymore if people saw. Enough of them had seen her at the pub, it was bound to be public knowledge by now, so why bother making herself uncomfortable. She didn't notice the stares as she walked from class to class, her fleshy tube swinging wildly underneath her clothes, her breasts bouncing aggressively from her quick pace. Wherever she went she just had one thing on her mind, Lily.

Several times a day she would return to Lily's only fan page. She wasn't a subscriber so she couldn't see what was being posted, but she could see that Lily was uploading new content several times a day. She could also see that her subscriber count continued to climb. Each time she'd close her phone in a huff, angry that she'd looked, knowing full well that in several hours time she'd be checking again.

Friday night rolled around, and she was alone in her bedroom, staring at Lily's onlyfans page, the content blurred out. The post title below was "Come see how much I've grown!" Skyler put her face in both hands and groaned. She both did and didn't want to see how much more mass Lily had added to her tits in the past week.

A knock on the door pulled her from her reverie. "What?" She yelled through the wood panel.

"Skyler, it's Joy. Can I come in?" Her friend's voice was concerned.

Skyler walked over and opened the door, before returning to her desk chair. "What is it?" She asked Joy as she entered.

Joy's face was worried "Skyler...What's going on? After Sunday night, we've barely seen you? You barely talk in class? You eat alone? Do...do you regret what happened at the bar?"

Skyler shook her head "No, no, I don't regret that. That was...a lot of fun." Skyler honestly didn't remember a lot of it, a combination of the copious alcohol, and the mind addling series of orgasms.

Joy's face looked relieved for a moment "Ok, good. But then why are you so upset?"

Skyler sighed "Because of Lily. I spoke with her on monday...she never stopped taking her pills and so she's still bigger than me. Much bigger"

Joy nodded "Ah...I see. Do you want...?"

Skyler crossed her arms over her chest, resting atop her full bosoms. "I don't know what I want! Part of me wants to be bigger, but part of me recognizes how difficult life would be"

"Then how's Lily doing it?" Joy asked.

Skyler laughed "Lily started an OnlyFans page and is raking in boatloads of cash. Now she can afford to be waited on hand and foot!"

"Ok...so why don't you do that?" Joy said.

Skyler rolled her eyes "C'mon, be serious"

Joy stepped toward her, leaning on the desk beside her "I am. I can tell that this is something you want to do, but you're holding yourself back because of your worries about money. Well Lily's shown us that there's a market there."

Skyler looked away. She hadn't thought of that.

"Plus" Joy continued "We'll have something that Lily won't. We can actually have video of you growing"

Skyler looked back at Joy "Oh shit, you're right..."

Joy nodded with a smile. "So, Skyler. Are you in or out. We'll support you either way, but I think I speak for the group when we say which option we'd prefer."

Skyler looked down at her breasts resting in her lap, then closed her eyes. In her mind she imagined them as big as Lily's, bigger, resting on the floor then spreading across the room away from her. The thought made her shiver.

She looked at Joy with a smile. "Ok, I'm In"

The next day was spent in preparation. Steve and Alex set up the Onlyfans page for Skyler, including advertising it on twitter. Craig and Joy broke into the chemistry lab once again, and synthesised more of the combination drug. This time however, they made almost a dozen pills worth. Joe and Kevin worked on the preparation of the room. Joy had the largest room in the group, and they would need all the space they could get. They spent a few hours moving all the furniture out of her room, so they'd have the entire space to work with. Lastly Francesca had gone out and rented a high quality video recorder. Skyler spent the day resting and eating, building up calories for the endeavour ahead.

24 hours after she'd made the decision to grow again, Skyler stood naked against the wall of Joy's dorm room. Joy stood with the camera at the other end of the room. The others stood behind her, ready to help when needed.

"Are you ready, Skyler?" Joy asked.

Skyler nodded once, face determined.

"Ok, I'm going to start recording in 5, 4, 3" The last two numbers she signed with her hand, before pointing at Skyler.

Skyler stood awkwardly, as the red light on the camera came on. They hadn't really discussed how the actual video would go.

"Uhh...Hello? My name is Skyler..." She said feeling weird.

Sensing her unsuredness, Joy began to speak "And what's special about you Skyler?"

Skyler smiled at her friend, thankful for her assistance "I have big tits..." She grabbed and lifted them, showing them off to the camera. "...And the biggest clit in the world" She swung her hips, causing her elongated clit to swing pendulously. She'd put on fresh numbing gel before they'd started so that she wouldn't degenerate into a quivering mess almost immediately.

"Do you have the biggest tits in the world?" Joy asked.

Skyler shook her head "No, I don't"

"Do you want to?"

Skyler nodded "Very much so"

Joy nodded to Craig who walked forward with his open palm extended. On it rested several of the concentrated hormone pills. Skyler, grabbed one, hesitated, then grabbed a second one. She popped both in her mouth and swallowed.

"How do you feel Skyler?" Joy asked.

Skyler closed her eyes and started to breathe deeply. It had taken less than a minute for the first pill to kick in a week ago. Sure enough, very shortly she felt the heat rise within her once more, though its intensity had doubled, as to be expected after taking two pills. Her breathing became shallow, as sweat began to pour from her skin. "I feel...I feel very hot...which means...I'm going to grow soon"

She could feel her heart pounding in her chest, as blood rushed throughout her body. Her vision started to fade as the blood rushed from her head. She leaned back against the wall for support, as she began to feel herself grow once more. Like a balloon being inflated, each second another pump of blood caused her breasts to fill out, growing deeper and heavier. Within seconds they grew past her hips, and still they continued to fill. Her whole body was on fire but she endured through it. "Mmm...fuck..." She moaned under her breath.

Within a minute they were the same size as Lily's had been when she'd seen her, two enormous blimps of flesh, reaching her knees, but she was not done yet. Her breathing quickened as the pace of the growth accelerated. Each pulse caused them to grow an inch in each direction, but as they hung lower and grew wider and fatter, that meant more mass being added each time. Her friends watched in silent awe as her breasts slowly crept toward them. After the second minute they finally touched ground, bringing Skyler some relief as she no longer had to bear the weight of them. They nearly filled the room from wall to wall at the bottom, their round ends rising three feet high, like two bean bag chairs, before sloping back up to Skyler's collar bone. A few seconds later she felt a third point of new contact touching the floor. She gasped with delight. Reaching down she spread her cleavage to look at her genitals.

As expected they too had been growing, though she hadn't felt it because of the numbing gel. Her lips were enormous, having grown down to her knees, each pink frond thick and soaking wet. Her clit hung off her front down to where it touched the floor, her spongy flesh as thick around as a coffee mug. And this was it when it was soft.

At last her growth ended. She filled one half of the room in its entirety. Joy had had to step back to keep her entire form in frame.

"How do you feel now Skyler?" Joy asked once more.

"Absolutely incredible!" She cried out with pleasure. Almost the entire front of her was dominated by her breasts. She spread her arms out caressing them lovingly as far as she could reach.

"Can we see your clit?" Joy continued to narrate.

Skyler nodded "Of course, I'll just need some help"

Four of the boys stepped forward. Two of them went to each breast and heaved, lifting and pulling them towards the walls, leaving a valley of cleavage that led back to Skyler. There in the centre, her pussy and Clit became visible.

"I'm so fucking big!" Skyler cheered.

The others nodded in awe. Every part of her was huge. Her breasts which now took two men to lift. Her nipples, the size of pop cans. And of course her pussy and clit, now monstrous in size, even while soft.

Joy stopped the recording, connecting the camera to a computer to upload the video. She stepped over to talk to Skyler, who was focused entirely on feeling up her new body.

“Skyler?” Joy asked, tentatively.

Skyler looked up at her, smiling drunkenly “Oh Joy, thank you for convincing me. This...this is better than I could’ve imagined. I can feel it all, every inch. Mmm so fucking huge...Let’s make another video!”

Joy raised an eyebrow “Ok? What of?”

Skyler reached down between her breasts and grabbed the base of her clit. “I want to get hard”

Joy nodded wordlessly. This was going to be intense. She checked the computer to be sure the video had finished transmitting, before disconnecting the camera once more. She pointed it at Skyler. “I’m ready!” The goth said from across the room.

The red light turned on once again. “Hello again! My name is Skyler, and I have the biggest tits in the world!” She raised her arms over her head proudly. She tried to shimmy her shoulders back and forth, but that resulted in just some slight jiggling in the upper half of each breast. The bottoms were firmly planted on the floor. She giggled “Guess, I can’t do that anymore...”

“Anyway!” She continued. “I don’t only have the biggest tits in the world, I also have the biggest clit, and today I’m going to show it off for you” She looked at the boys assembled behind Joy. “If I may have some assistance?”

Four of them stepped forward approaching the edge of her tits, which sat five feet ahead of her. “What would you like us to do?” Steve asked.

She leaned back against the wall, closing her eyes with a smile. “Mmm, how about you play with my nipples...”

Kneeling down before her, they split into two pairs. Each pair placed their hands around her enormous nipples, now large enough that it took 4 hands to fully cover them. Together they began to squeeze and massage them. Skyler began to moan as she revelled in their stimulation. Then from within the valley of her cleavage, her beast awoke.

Her clit slowly swelled and hardened, no longer hanging limply to the floor, instead beginning to rise up and off the floor. “Ahhh, yes...” She whispered “Keep...keep going” The boys continued to wring and squeeze her stiff pink nubs, as they watched her clit grow and grow.

It didn't take long for it to reach its full length, its tip just past the outer edge of where her breasts lay.

"Well..." Skyler said breathless "There you have it...the biggest...clit in the world. Fucking hell... someone make me cum... right... fucking now!" Her voice was desperate, eyes wild as she locked eyes with Joy. Her clit was constantly in motion, jerking up and down as her pelvic muscles flexed involuntarily.

Joy set down the camera, leaving it recording and pointing at Skyler. She stepped forward until her face was only a foot away from the tip of Skyler's rigid clit. She reached out and grabbed it with both hands, the contact drawing throaty moans from Skyler. Yes, Skyler had coated her clit in the numbing gel, but this was all brand new flesh, and Skyler felt every delicate touch. Holding her clit steady, Joy pulled it toward her face until she could stick her tongue out and gently flick it on the tip. Skyler screamed out, begging for more, but this is all Joy would give her, just tiny licks on the very end of her enormous clit.

It was unbearable for Skyler. She was so huge now, her actual body only a small fraction of her total mass, the rest her gigantic sexual organs, all of which demanded stimulation. And yet all she was getting was hands on her nipples, and just one tongue upon her clit. It wasn't fair.

"Pleaaaaase! Pleaaaassee!" She begged. "I need more! I need release!"

Joy ignored her, instead slowing the pace of her tongue. "Oh gaaawwwwd" Skyler moaned in response to the teasing. She wouldn't come for nearly an hour at this rate, an hour of ecstasy and agony all in one.

Joy knew what she was doing. It wasn't that she wanted to torture Skyler, far from it. Instead she wanted to put on a good show. They would have to make a lot of money off of these videos to support Skyler's new life, and so they had to make them count.

After ten minutes, Skyler's legs had given up on her, her body having slid down the wall so she was seated on the floor. Only her head was barely visible over the mountainous mounds of her breasts laying on the floor. She'd stopped using words about 5 minutes or so ago, as Joy's teasing had brought her to the brink of madness.

Joy pulled her head back, her tongue retreating back in her mouth. "Ok, I think that's enough teasing. Let's finish her off"

As one the group gathered around the pillar of flesh that was her clit, and began to stroke it, their hands moving in rhythm up and down the immense shaft. Skyler's voice could be heard once again from behind her breasts "Yes...oh yes, thank you...keep going...don't stop...I'm...I'm so close"

The group sped up their hands, holding tight to the bucking spear that was her enormous clit. Every second it surged and flexed, her body pushing towards her climax. Finally it tensed and this time it did not release, as Skyler roared with orgasmic release from where she was sprawled on the floor. The group continued to stroke it pushing her through her climax, into realms of pleasure unknown to mortals.

Skyler's cries subsided after five minutes, her body collapsing as she lost consciousness. The group got as close as they could, to see if she was ok. Her gentle snores a few moments later brought them all relief. Her head rested upon the upward slope of her breasts, her face one of utter contentment.

Joy turned and walked back to the camera, turning off the recording. She handed it to Steve and Alex. "Get that online ASAP" They nodded, hurrying out of the room.

"Holy shit. I can't believe she did that" Craig said, leaning against the wall.

Joy smiled "You make it sound like she's done. Remember we made 10 more growth pills"

Craig shook his head "No...there's no way she'll take another. Look at her! How will she live!?"

Joy shrugged "With our help, of course. Now, grab your phones, we've got work to do."

EPILOGUE

Within 24 hours, Skyler's Only Fans page had racked up a ludicrous number of subscribers, her growth video and subsequent orgasm video becoming the number one and number two videos on the site. It was a good thing too, as she was about to incur a lot of expenses. For the first few days she just stayed in Joy's room, as she was no longer able to move around of her own free will. Despite this fact she was quite happy, and had zero regrets about what she'd done. Once enough money had been amassed, they purchased a large space to be her new home. While the boys were able to drag her out of the room, they had to hire a company to knock out a wall to have her leave the building. She was then loaded into the back of a van and delivered to her new home, an old warehouse that had been cleaned up, and turned into a living space. It wasn't exactly the nicest place, but most importantly it was large; large enough for several more growth spurts, should she so choose. Her friends all moved in with her, including Lily. And this time when Lily saw her, she was very shocked, and very jealous, which pleased Skyler to no end.
