

Chapter 6: Changes, Inside and Out

As the pleasure took over, Celina's knees also went weak, causing her to slide down to the ground alongside Venus. While both were experiencing an immense amount of pleasure, the two girls were having entirely different experiences.

For Venus, she was relishing in the moment. Even though she had only grown a few times, Venus saw herself easily becoming accustomed, addicted rather, to this sensation of feeling her bosom expand larger and larger before her very own eyes. Venus never expected to enjoy it so much, but the combination of knowing how much her Master liked her with bigger boobs, the mind-numbing pleasure of millions of nerves firing off as she grew, and her selfish desires being satisfied made the feeling irresistible. Reaching her arms out, she squeezed as much of her growing melons as she could, treasuring the feeling of her arms slowly being spread further and further apart. As her arms pressed into her throbbing nipples, fireworks went off in her brain in an explosion of pleasure, causing her eyes to roll back into her head. Through her arms, she could feel the nanobots hard at work, filling her up with more and more boob flesh with each heartbeat. Inch after inch, her chest continued to grow until she could she couldn't reach her hands together anymore. This realization of breaking this milestone instantly caused Venus to have one of the most intense orgasms of her entire life, nearly as intense as her first time growing. Her whole body jerked in complete utter bliss, causing her marshmallow-like mounds to ripple and bounce every which way. The ground below her became completely drenched from her vagina leaking through her scrubs like a steady stream since the beginning of her growth. Finally recovering from her nearly mind-shattering orgasm, Venus was startled in the best way possible as she heard a loud rip. Her poor shirt finally began to give up its pointless struggle. Feeling the seams slowly being pulled apart, Venus smiled and bit her lip as she caressed her boobs, urging them to continue their expansion even further. However, just as her shirt was about to give, Venus' growth came to a sudden halt. Noticing this sudden halt, Venus was confused. Previously when she grew, her growth slowly ramped down as the nanobots ran out of materials to use. This time, however, it stopped instantly. After a moment, Venus realized that sadly the nanobots had finished their task. Venus had finally reached the size she set herself to grow to a few days ago. Realizing this, Venus pouted in disappointment as she didn't want her growth to ever end. Nevertheless, while she was disappointed, she couldn't help but look down in admiration at the magnificent sight before her. Her new boobs completely filled her lap as she sat down on the slick metal floor. Her breast now stuck out just over a foot and a half from her body and dominated her torso entirely. On top of that, her rock-hard, thumb-sized nipples desperately pressed against the strained fabric and sent continuous pulses of pleasure to Venus' hardware. Despite the growth having finished, Venus couldn't help but drown herself in the pleasure of feeling her ginormous breasts being pressed from all sides.

Slowly coming back to reality, Venus looked to see she wasn't the only one enjoying the show. The entire time Jason stood there entranced by Venus, his erection pleading to be set free from its confines. Venus couldn't help but smile as she saw a drool drip down the side of his mouth. If this is how he reacted when she was this big, Venus couldn't wait to see how her master reacted when she grew even bigger.

Meanwhile, Celina was beginning her growth adventure. As she felt the rumbling in her stomach, she became giddy with excitement as her dreams were coming true before her very own eyes. Nevertheless, despite expecting it, she was still caught off guard by the suddenness and immense pleasure of her growth. In the beginning, Celina felt the cold nanobots course through her veins into her chest. Then as she felt the pressure begin to build, instinctively she brought her hands to her chest. As she did so, she grazed over her nipples, which sent a lightning bolt of pleasure down her spine. The immense blast of pleasure instantly forced Celina into the most mind-rattling orgasm of her entire life, causing her to throw her head back and moan as loud as she could. But before she could recover from the shock to her nervous system, her growing chest rose her nipples to meet her hands. As expected, another shot of pleasure shot down her spine as she made contact with her extremely sensitive nipples. Again, another mind-shattering orgasm reverberated through her body. Despite nearly blacking out from the back-to-back pleasure tsunamis, Celina's body, against its own best interest, still craved more. So, getting caught up in the moment, Celina brought her hands to her nipples, latched down with a vice grip, and tugged them as hard as she could. This time, the pleasure lightning bolt turned into a monstrous, never-ending thunderstorm. Instantly her mind turned white and her convulsing body collapsed on the pussy juice-soaked floor.

When Celina finally awoke from her slumber, she winced in pain from a terrible headache. As her eyes slowly opened, she realized she wasn't in the kitchen anymore. Instead, she was back in the lab, surrounded by medical equipment.

Seeing her begin to show some signs of life, Jason's restless eyes shot open. Instantly, he got up from his chair and rushed to Celina's side, taking her hand in his.

"Oh my god! You're awake! Thank god!" Jason said as he was nearly brought to tears.

"Ahh! My head hurts," Celina said as she winced in pain.

"Here - uhh - take this," Jason said as he frantically brought a pain pill up to her mouth which Celina happily took.

"What happened? I don't remember anything," Celina groggily responded, worried about Jason, who was tearing up.

"She's awake!?" Venus shouted from across the lab as she had just come back from the kitchen.

"Yes! She's awake! Oh, thank god you are ok! I thought I lost you," Jason said as he desperately kissed her hand repeatedly.

“What’s going on?” Celina asked, confused and concerned.

“She’s back!” Venus shouted as she finally reached the bedside and embraced Celina as best as she could.

Celina suffocated as she was engulfed by a sea of boob flesh. Lucky for Celina, Venus released her shortly after from her embrace, giving her a chance to breathe. As Venus leaned back to the edge of the bed, Celina’s eyes nearly popped out of her head. Venus was massive! Her breasts were almost twice the size she saw them last (Celina never noticed Venus grow previously, so Venus is roughly the same size as last described). And those mountains of breasts sat atop one of the biggest bellies Celina had ever seen. Venus looked full-term with at least triplets! Celina could tell that Venus made bigger scrubs to wear, but clearly, they couldn’t keep up with her growth as her belly was almost entirely exposed to the air. To state it simply, Celina was baffled by the goddess of fertility before her.

“Venus! What happened to you? You’re massive!” Celina exclaimed in shock.

“Oh right, you haven’t seen me in a while. My babies are in their third trimester.” Venus answered with an embarrassed smile as she rubbed her rotund belly.

Wow, that’s amazing! Wait... how long have I been out for?” Celina asked, concerned as she realized she was out much longer than she expected.

“It’s been a whole week,” Jason answered.

“A week? Are you kidding me? How-” Celina interrupted herself as she looked back at Jason.

As she moved her head, she felt something different about her head. Curious, Celina reached up her free hand and felt a large bandage patch on the back of her head.

“What happened to my head?” Celina asked.

“Your brain got fried,” Jason answered.

“What do you mean? How did it get fried?” Celina asked again.

“The pleasure from growing was too much for your brain to handle. So your brain became overloaded which caused you to black out,” Jason answered again.

“Growing what?” Celina cluelessly asked.

“Dang, you don’t remember much do you? Look down. That will answer your question,” Jason responded.

Looking down, Celina instantly remembered. She got her tits!

"Oh my god! That's right! My boobs!" Celina shouted for joy as she shot up and cupped her new, beautiful DD breasts, only to be harshly reminded of her splitting headache.

"Ouch!" Celina said as she winced in pain, causing her to slowly lay back down.

"Woah! Slow down, take it easy," Jason said as he comforted Celina.

"Sorry, just got a little excited," Celina said, smiling through the pain towards Jason.

"Bit of an understatement," Jason joked, happy to see Celina feeling well now.

"Don't worry, you will have time to enjoy your new boobs as much as you like. But for right now, you just need to rest," Venus added as she laid her hand on Celina's leg.

"Ok fine. Whatever the doctor says," Celina said, getting a smile out of Venus.

"Thank you guys for looking after me. It means a lot" Celina added.

"Of course, it's the least we can do," Jason responded.

"Venus, did the same thing happen to you whenever you first grew?" Celina asked out of curiosity.

"I blacked out too. But I was only out for a short period, not a whole week." Venus answered

"Why couldn't my brain handle it like yours?" Celina asked.

"Well, my theory is that since my brain is an actual computer and not one made from flesh like yours, the circuits in my brain protected me from overloading it. Whereas your brain just wasn't made to handle the amount of pleasure you experienced. So it broke down," Venus solemnly responded

"I see. So I'm guessing no more nanobots for me?" Celina said with some disappointment in her voice.

"For now, yes, but you should be fine after you recover. While you were out, I installed a small chip into your brain called a limiter, which will ensure that your pleasure signals don't go that high ever again," Venus answered.

"That's what the patch is for then?" Celina said as she gestured to the patch on her head.

"Yes, and that should heal in the next day or so," Venus added

“Okay, cool. Thanks again Venus,” Celina said.

“No problem. Do you need anything right now? Water? Food?” Venus asked.

“One of your pregnancy shakes does sound amazing right now,” Celina said with some guilt in her voice.

“That’s my girl. Let me go get you one.” Venus said as she started to wobble her way to the kitchen.

“Dang, she is huge, isn’t she? You can see both her belly and tits from behind!” Celina said to Jason as Venus wobbled away.

“I know right, and she’s not even done growing yet!” Jason said as he also starred as Venus wobbled away

“6 babies, that’s crazy.” Celina added.

“You’ll be there one day,” Jason said.

“I know. I’m still kind of nervous about it all. But seeing her handle it so gracefully gives me some more confidence. For now, though, I’ll just stick with the one-” Celina said before she cut herself off.

“One what-” Jason attempted to say but was cut off by Celina screaming at the top of her lungs.

“OH MY GOD MY BABY!!!!” Celina shouted as she jumped out of her hospital bed and rushed out of the lab, ripping off all the medical equipment on her as she did so.

“Wait, Celina! Stop!!” Jason shouted as he chased after Celina.

As she ran out of the lab she passed by Venus, startling her.

“Hey! What are you doing!?” Venus asked, concerned for Celina.

“I left my poor baby at home! I have to go back!” Celina said as she ran off to the teleporter.

“Baby?” Venus said to herself, confused.

Just as she said that Jason followed in pursuit. Reluctantly, Venus followed behind, albeit, much slower than the other two.

Jason waited for Venus to get to the teleporter. Once she did, they both teleported to the same location Celina teleported to: her house. They saw the front door wide open so they both rushed inside to check on Celina. Once inside, they looked around to see no Celina in sight.

"Where did she go?" Jason asked as he looked around

"Wait, I heard something, over there," Venus said as she pointed to one of the rooms where she heard someone crying.

They both rushed over to the room to find Celina kneeling on the ground with her back to the door. All they could see was she was holding something and crying.

"Celina, what happened? Are you ok?" Jason asked as he laid a hand on her shoulder.

"Yes, I am now that I know my baby is ok!" Celina said through her tears as she presented her baby to the pair.

Celina's baby ended up being a Bombay cat, a black cat with gold-colored eyes. Seeing the cat, both Venus and Jason let out a deep sigh of relief that it wasn't a real baby.

"My baby! I'm so sorry I left you for so long! Mommy will never do that again!" Celina said as she embraced the black cat, who struggled as his owner suffocated him.

"What's his name?" Venus asked.

"Puffles, like from Club Pelican," Celina answered as she wiped the tears from her eyes.

"Aww, that's a cute name. I used to love that game," Venus added.

"You played Club Pelican too?" Jason asked, surprised that Venus played the game as well.

"Of course. I told you I used to play games all of the time. I had to do something to pass the time," Venus responded.

When Celina finally let go of her death grip on Puffles, he bolted out of the room past Venus and ran outside.

"Sorry! I should have stopped him," Venus said apologetically.

"No, don't worry about it. He used to be an outdoor cat so he is fine," Celina said as she got back on her feet.

“Sorry for scaring you guys, that’s just the longest I have left him and I wanted to make sure he was ok,” Celina added.

“Don’t worry about it. I’m just glad everyone is ok. Speaking of that, are you sure you are ok?” Jason said as he pointed to a small trail of blood running down Celina’s arm where her IV used to be.

“I’m fine, just a little scratch. It’s just my headache but it’s not that bad anymore, that pain medicine you gave me is amazing,” Celina answered.

“Ok that’s good,” Jason said.

“Oh- sorry for being rude, welcome to my house guys! Y’all want a quick tour of the place?” Celina asked the pair.

“I’d love to! I love seeing how humans decorate their homes,” Venus said with excitement.

“Ok, follow me then,” Celina said as she led them out of the bedroom.

Celina’s house was simple but homey. It was a small two-bedroom townhouse with some cozy decorations and some green plants to bring some life to the place. After their tour, they ended up in the living room.

“Wow, this is much better than Jason’s house,” Venus said.

“There’s no way, this is nothing” Celina responded in disbelief.

“No, this feels nice. It feels like someone lives here. Jason’s house felt abandoned. Sorry Jason but it’s true” Venus said.

“Is it that bad?” Celina asked Jason.

“All I’m going to say is that I wasn’t used to having people over,” Jason said, embarrassed.

“Oh, it is that bad,” Celina said.

“Told you! Haha!” Venus said as she laughed, causing Celina to join her in laughter as well.

After a good laugh, Celina asked a question,

“Oh yeah, while we are here, can I bring some of my clothes and stuff up to the ship with me? Sorry Venus but I’m starting to get tired of the white scrubs.”

“Oo, that’s a great idea. Let’s get you all situated in your new home now,” Venus said as wobbled her way to Celina’s room.

“Woah, woah, woah. Slow your roll Ms. Preggers. You can’t be carrying stuff. I’ll take care of it ok?” Jason said as he gestured to her to sit down on the couch.

“Mhm, ok fine.” Venus reluctantly said as she sat herself down.

“Good, alright Celina let’s go,” Jason said as he headed off to Celina’s room.

“I think my head is starting to hurt again,” Celina said, obviously exaggerating as she sat down on the couch next to Venus.

“Yeah, Jason you can’t make her work either. She just got out of her coma,” Venus added as she started to massage ‘poor’ Celina, who had her best puppy eyes on display.

“Ugh, fine…” Jason said as he reluctantly dragged himself to Celina’s room.

“Just grab all of my clothes and put them in my room on the ship!” Celina shouted to Jason as he rounded the corner.

“Alright!” Jason shouted back.

“Thanks!” Celina shouted back, as she and Venus giggled to themselves.

“Finally, some girl time for once,” Celina said, laughing with Venus.

They laughed for a moment, then there was silence. Venus’ cheerful demeanor changed to a more serious one.

“Hey Celina, listen, while you were out, I got to think about some things,” Venus said to Celina in a serious tone, which Celina recognized. She paid close attention to Venus now.

“I just wanted to say I’m sorry for being so harsh on you lately. It’s just, this mission is extremely important to me. So I’ve been extremely cautious about bringing more people onto the ship because an entire civilization is riding on this mission. The only way something goes wrong is if someone sabotages the mission. So naturally, every person that is brought on board is a risk. So the people on the ship need to be entirely devoted to this mission, you understand?” Venus said to Celina looking for approval.

“Of course, I understand where you are coming from. Like I told you before, I’m all in on this mission. I don’t have much going for me here on earth and to be a part of this mission is the greatest honor and opportunity I could ever ask for. I recognize that and I promise I would never do anything to compromise this mission and ruin that opportunity,” Celina replied confidently.

Celina let out her heart and she nervously waited for Venus’ response. She truly did believe in this mission as one of the greatest opportunities a human has ever been given in their life and she was not going to let that go. On top of that, she could spend it with the man of her dreams, so by no means was there even a shadow of a doubt in Celina’s mind. And even though she was reluctant to believe it, Venus could see in her eyes that Celina was telling the truth.

“Ok, I believe you,” Venus calmly responded.

Venus changed her serious demeanor to give Celina a warm smile of approval. Celina let out a sigh of relief once she saw this. Seeing her nervousness, Venus then brought Celina in for a comforting boob hug to calm her down.

“Thank you,” Celina replied while she was smothered by Venus’ curves.

After a sweet moment of silence together, they broke off.

“You're welcome. But if you want to thank anyone, you need to thank Master, I mean Jason” Venus said.

“I know. I wouldn’t be here without him,” Celina responded.

“Yeah because I’m going to be honest with you, at first, I doubted you. I never even wanted you on the ship to begin with,” Venus said.

“I could imagine. If I was in your position I would’ve been paranoid of everyone and anyone,” Celina responded, not taking offense to Venus’ words.

“Haha yeah, you could say I was a little paranoid. But I will say, Jason really really likes you,” Venus said with emphasis.

“Really?” Celina said, surprised.

“Really. I know he loves me, but he looks at you in a special way. From the beginning, he believed in you. He even convinced me to bring you on the ship in the first place. And while you were out, he helped me believe in you as well. So no need to thank me. Thank him,” Venus said with a comforting smile.

“Wow, I had no idea. I owe him the world don’t I?” Celina asked, as she was deep in thought.

“I’d say so. Oh and speak of the devil,” Venus said as she saw Jason round the corner, struggling to carry a huge pile of clothes.

“Jesus Celina, how many clothes do you have?” Jason said from across the room as he was smothered by the mountain of clothes.

“Welcome to the life of a girl,” Celina said with a chuckle.

“Jesus, I’m going to be here all day!” Jason exclaimed in frustration.

“Oh don’t worry, there’s more in the basement!” Celina added on as Venus and her attempted to conceal their laughter.

“Uhgggg!” Jason moaned in frustration as he walked back to Celina’s room, causing the girls to fail to conceal their laughter anymore.

After another good bonding moment, Celina broke the silence,

“Thank you for telling me all of these things, it means a lot to me.”

“Of course, as Jason said, we’re stuck on that ship together so we might as well get along, right?” Venus replied as she shrugged.

“Well said... Well said,” Celina said, nodding in agreement.

“Speaking of Jason, you were saying you owe him the world right?” Venus asked.

“Of course. I mean I would do anything for him,” Celina answered, exactly how Venus wanted her to.

“Well, if you really want to pay him back, I’d use those,” Venus said, indicating Celina's boobs.

“Oh yeah? Is he a titty guy?” Celina asked.

“Calling him a titty guy is an understatement. He is OBSESSED with them. So if you want to pay him back, trust me, use the boobs,” Venus replied.

“Mhm ok, I’m sure I’ll figure out a way to put these bad boys to use,” Celina said, cupping her own DD cup breasts.

“Speaking of your boobs, how do you like them so far?” Venus said, getting excited about talking about boobs, her new favorite topic.

“Oh, I mean I haven’t had time to think about them but so far I love them! I have been dreaming of getting these boobs ever since I was a little girl. I almost got surgery to get them, that’s how badly I wanted them,” Celina answered.

“Well, I’m glad your dreams finally came true. Would you ever consider going bigger?” Venus curiously asked as she leaned closer to Celina, unintentionally bulging her breasts even further outwards.

“Oh, I mean it’s something I’ve considered in the past whenever I was planning my surgery so I’ve had a long time to think about this. So I think I’m happy where I’m at right now. And as much as I love boobs, I’d never go as big as you. No offense,” Celina replied.

“No offense taken. I was just curious,” Venus said, losing her excitement and looking down in disappointment.

Based on her reaction, Celina could tell Venus didn’t like her response. Of course, Celina had thought about going bigger before, as every girl does when getting a boob job. But after thinking about it for a long time, and now feeling them and seeing them on her body, she felt confident in her answer. However, she did notice the way that Jason looked at Venus’ boobs before. And after hearing that he was a titty guy, maybe it wouldn’t hurt to go a little bigger. Especially sitting next to Venus, Celina couldn’t help but admit she did feel a little small.

But right before she was about to say something, her mind went completely blank.

Her mind went blank because Venus sprayed her with the mind control spray she was hiding behind her back.

Venus had been planning this moment since the night Jason told her he wished Celina had bigger boobs. Every day since Venus carried a tiny bottle of the spray around as she waited for the right moment when she and Celina were alone. And after seeing his reaction to Celina choosing her current size, Venus knew she had to make her move. She had to do this herself because now that she knew Celina would never go bigger herself, Jason would have to be the one to suggest it. And as much as he loved big boobs, he was too considerate ever to do anything about it. Hell, even when she let master modify her body however he wished, he still didn’t make her as big as he truly wanted. Despite how much Celina was growing on her, master Jason was the most important thing in Venus’ life so making him happy was her top-most priority. And she knew the key to making him happy was bigger and bigger boobs.

So, once Venus saw Celina’s eyes glaze over, she said her message, “Celina, you will now be obsessed with having bigger and bigger boobs. And not just a few cup sizes, No. You will never be satisfied until your breasts are truly enormous, bigger than you could ever imagine. And even when they have grown to be truly massive, you will still long for and dream of bigger and bigger tits. You will take any opportunity to grow your breasts even larger. You will do whatever it takes to get bigger boobs. And while you grow your boobs, you will love it. You will love it not only because you love ginormous boobs, but also because you know Jason is a titty guy. And you know having bigger and bigger boobs will make him happy.

And Jason's happiness is very important to you. So, you will do almost anything to make Jason happy."

With that said, Venus felt satisfied. She was careful not to mention anything about forcing her to never leave the ship or anything along those lines and only mention things related to growing her boobs just as her master said. And now she just had to wait for the drugs to wear off.

But at the last moment, Venus thought of something she forgot to ask.

"Oh yeah, Celina, how do you feel about having hundreds and thousands of kids?" Venus asked, anxiously waiting for her response.

"I'm scared and nervous," Celina mindlessly answered with her true thoughts.

"Ha, just what I expected. Celina, over the next couple of weeks you will want to have Jason's kids more and more until you are happy to have as many kids as he likes," Venus said, adding the cherry on top.

Now, Venus felt truly satisfied knowing the mind control spray would do its work and Celina would truly believe everything she told her. Venus also felt happy knowing her master's wish would eventually come true.

Shortly after, Celina came back.

"Sorry, did you say something?" Celina asked, slightly confused as she came back to reality.

"Nope. I think you are hearing things," Venus replied, trying to act oblivious.

"Mmm, maybe I'm hearing things. Anywho, I'm still starving from earlier. Do you want to go get some pregnancy shakes?" Celina said.

As she said that, Venus caught Celina looking at Venus' boobs, then back to hers. Venus noticed that wasn't how Celina used to look at her boobs. Venus could tell she was trying to hide it, but she couldn't help but notice the jealousy in her eyes. Seeing this, Venus knew the changes worked.

"Don't have to ask me twice!" Venus said as she and Celina got up from the couch.

Just as they did so, Jason came from around the corner, gasping for breath.

"I'm - done," Jason said as he plopped himself down on a chair in the kitchen.

"No, you ain't. We still got all this furniture to move mister," Celina said.

“The furniture too!?” Jason exclaimed in fear.

“Yes, come on boy. The ship needs some better decor. It’s too cold and plain as it is right now” Celina replied, causing Jason to huff and puff.

Celina and Venus simply laughed at Jason’s little performance.

“I’m a scientist, not a mover,” Jason said.

“Trust me, I know. And don’t worry, we will help you. But first, me and Venus are going to go eat because we are starving. Come on Venus let’s go,” Celina said as she took Venus’ hand in hers and they teleported together back to the spaceship.

After Celina and Venus had their fill of pregnancy shakes, they helped Jason finish moving Celina’s furniture back to the ship.

As the day went on, Venus was surprised that Celina wasn’t acting any different. But on the inside, Celina had undoubtedly changed. But little did Venus know of the true implications of her actions.
